On March 21, 2012, Performance Technologies, Incorporated (the “Company”) entered into an indemnification agreement with each of its directors and officers, each an indemnitee. A copy of the form of indemnification agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference. The following description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of indemnification agreement.

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, the indemnification agreement provides that the Company will indemnify the indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by law against any and all expenses, judgments, fines, excise and similar taxes, penalties, and amounts paid in settlement if the indemnitee was, is, or becomes a party to, or other participant in a proceeding (as defined in the agreement) or is threatened to be made a party to, or other participant in such a proceeding by reason of being an officer or director of the Company, such proceeding arising in whole or in part out of an indemnifiable event. The indemnification agreement also provides for advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee in connection with an indemnifiable claim, subject to reimbursement in certain circumstances. In addition, the indemnification agreement governs various procedural matters related to indemnification. In addition to the indemnification coverage provided by the indemnification agreement, the Company carries customary insurance coverage for its directors and officers.

The rights of each indemnitee are in addition to any other rights provided under the Company’s Amended and Restated By-laws, as they may be amended from time to time, and under Delaware law.
