GENERAL

Introduction

Fulton Financial Corporation, a Pennsylvania business corporation and registered financial holding company, was organized pursuant to a plan of reorganization adopted by Fulton Bank and implemented on June 30, 1982. On that date, Fulton Bank became a wholly owned subsidiary of Fulton Financial Corporation and the shareholders of Fulton Bank became shareholders of Fulton Financial Corporation. Since that time, Fulton Financial Corporation has acquired other banks and currently owns the following subsidiary banks: Fulton Bank, Delaware National Bank, Lebanon Valley Farmers Bank, FNB Bank, N.A., Hagerstown Trust Company, Lafayette Ambassador Bank, Swineford National Bank, The Bank, The Peoples Bank of Elkton, Skylands Community Bank, Premier Bank, Resource Bank, First Washington State Bank, Somerset Valley Bank and The Columbia Bank. In addition, Fulton Financial Corporation has several direct, non-banking subsidiaries including: Fulton Financial Advisors, National Association (which offers fiduciary and investment services), Fulton Insurance Services Group, Inc. (which operates an insurance agency selling life insurance and related insurance products), Fulton Financial Realty Company (which owns or leases certain properties on which certain branch and operational facilities are located), Fulton Reinsurance Company, Ltd. (which reinsures credit life, health and accident insurance that is directly related to extensions of credit by subsidiary banks of Fulton Financial Corporation), Central Pennsylvania Financial Corp. (which owns, directly or indirectly, certain limited partnership interests, principally in low-moderate income and elderly housing projects), and FFC Management, Inc. (which holds certain investment securities and corporate owned life insurance policies).

On February 1, 2006, Fulton Financial Corporation completed its acquisition of Columbia Bancorp, of Columbia, Maryland, a $1.3 billion bank holding company. Its primary subsidiary, The Columbia Bank, which operates 20 full-service community banking offices and five-retirement community banking offices in Howard, Montgomery, Prince George's and Baltimore Counties as well as Baltimore City, became a wholly owned subsidiary of Fulton Financial Corporation.

The meeting to which this Proxy Statement relates will be the twenty-fourth Annual Meeting of the shareholders of Fulton Financial Corporation.

Date, Time and Place of Meeting

The regular Annual Meeting of the shareholders of Fulton Financial Corporation will be held on Tuesday, May 2, 2006, at 12:00 noon, at the Hershey Lodge and Convention Center, West Chocolate Avenue and University Drive, Hershey, Pennsylvania.

Shareholders Entitled to Vote

Only those shareholders of record at the close of business on March 14, 2006 shall be entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the meeting.

Purpose of Meeting

The shareholders will be asked to consider and vote upon the following matters at the meeting: (i) to elect seven directors for the terms specified herein; and (ii) to consider and vote upon such other business as may be properly brought before the meeting and any adjournment thereof.

Solicitation of Proxies

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies, in the accompanying form, by the Board of Directors of Fulton Financial Corporation for use at the Annual Meeting of shareholders to be held at 12:00 noon on Tuesday, May 2, 2006, and any adjournments thereof.

Revocability and Voting of Proxies

The execution and return of the enclosed proxy will not affect a shareholder's right to attend the meeting and to vote in person. A shareholder may revoke any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation by delivering written notice of revocation to George R. Barr, Jr., Secretary of Fulton Financial Corporation, at any time before the proxy is voted at the meeting. Unless revoked, any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation will be voted at the meeting in accordance with the instructions thereon of the shareholder giving the proxy. In the absence of instructions, all proxies will be voted FOR the election of the seven nominees identified in this Proxy Statement. Although the Board of Directors knows of no other business to be presented, in the event that any other matters are properly brought before the meeting, any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors of Fulton Financial Corporation.

Shares held for the account of shareholders who participate in the Dividend Reinvestment and Stock Purchase Plan and for the account of employees who participate in the Employee Stock Purchase Plan will be voted in accordance with the instructions of each shareholder as set forth in his or her proxy. If a shareholder who participates in these plans does not return a proxy, the shares held for the shareholder's account by the Plan Agent will not be voted.

Shares held for the account of employees of Fulton Financial Corporation and its subsidiaries who participate in the Fulton Financial Stock Fund of the Fulton Financial Corporation Profit Sharing Plan and Affiliate 401(k) Savings Plan will be voted by the Plan Trustee (Fulton Financial Advisors, National Association) in accordance with the instructions of each participant as set forth in the separate voting instruction card sent to the participant with respect to such shares. To allow sufficient time for the Plan Trustee to vote, participants' voting instructions must be received by April 21, 2006. Shares held under the Fulton Financial Stock Fund with respect to which no voting instructions are received by April 21, 2006, will be voted by the Plan Trustee FOR the election of the seven nominees identified in the Proxy Statement

Voting of Shares and Principal Holders Thereof

At the close of business on March 14, 2006, which is the record date for determination of shareholders entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the meeting and any adjournment thereof, Fulton Financial Corporation had outstanding 165,687,525 shares of common stock. There is no other class of stock outstanding. As of the record date, 3,436,836 shares of Fulton Financial Corporation common stock were held by Fulton Financial Advisors, National Association, a subsidiary of Fulton Financial Corporation, as sole fiduciary. The shares held by Fulton Financial Advisors, National Association as sole fiduciary represent in the aggregate approximately 2.07 percent of the total shares outstanding and will be voted FOR the election of the seven nominees identified in this Proxy Statement.

A majority of the outstanding common stock present in person or by proxy constitutes a quorum for the conduct of business. The judge of election will treat shares of Fulton Financial Corporation common stock represented by a properly signed and returned proxy as present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum, without regard to whether the proxy is marked as casting a vote or abstaining. Likewise, the judge of election will treat shares of common stock represented by "broker non-votes" (i.e., shares of common stock held in record name by brokers or nominees as to which (i) instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or persons entitled to vote, (ii) the broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting power under applicable rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or the instrument under which it serves in such capacity, and (iii) the record holder has indicated on the proxy or otherwise notified Fulton Financial Corporation that it does not have authority to vote such shares on that matter) as present for purposes of determining a quorum.

Each share is entitled to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of the shareholders. A majority of the votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present is required in order to approve any matter submitted to a vote of the shareholders, except in cases where the vote of a greater number of shares is required by law or under the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws.

In the case of the election of directors, the seven candidates receiving the highest number of votes cast at the Annual Meeting shall be elected to the Board of Directors. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as shares that are present at the meeting, but will not be counted as votes cast on the election of directors.

To the knowledge of Fulton Financial Corporation, no person owned of record or beneficially on the record date more than five percent of the outstanding common stock of Fulton Financial Corporation.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors recommends that the shareholders vote FOR the election of the seven nominees identified in this Proxy Statement.

Shareholder Proposals

Shareholder proposals intended to be presented at the 2007 Annual Meeting must be received at the executive offices of Fulton Financial Corporation at One Penn Square, Lancaster, Pennsylvania not later than November 28, 2006, in order to be included in the proxy statement and proxy form to be prepared by Fulton Financial Corporation in connection with the 2007 Annual Meeting. In order to be eligible to submit a proposal, a shareholder must have continuously held at least $2,000 in market value of Fulton Financial Corporation common stock for at least one year before the date the proposal is submitted. The shareholder must continue to hold that stock through the date of the 2007 Annual Meeting.

Any shareholder submitting a shareholder proposal to Fulton Financial Corporation must also provide Fulton Financial Corporation with a written statement verifying ownership of stock and confirming the shareholder's intention to continue to hold the stock through the date of the 2007 Annual Meeting. The shareholder, or a qualified representative, must attend the 2007 Annual Meeting to present the proposal.

For example, communications concerning accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters will be shared with the Chair of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

Code of Conduct

Fulton Financial Corporation has had a Code of Conduct ("Code") for two decades that governs the conduct of its directors, officers and employees. The Code was revised in 2004 to comply with the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and NASDAQ listing standards, and Fulton Financial Corporation provides the Code to each director, officer and employee. A copy of the Code of Conduct can be obtained, without cost, by writing to the Corporate Secretary at: Fulton Financial Corporation, P.O. Box 4887, One Penn Square, Lancaster, PA 17604.

SELECTION OF DIRECTORS

General Information

The Bylaws of Fulton Financial Corporation provide that the Board of Directors shall consist of not less than two nor more than thirty-five persons and that the directors shall be classified with respect to the time they shall severally hold office by dividing them into three classes, each consisting as nearly as possible of one third of the number of the whole Board of Directors. The Bylaws further provide that the directors of each class shall be elected for a term of three years, so that the term of office of one class of directors shall expire at the Annual Meeting each year. The Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors shall determine the number of directors in each class of directors.

A majority of the Board of Directors may increase the number of directors between meetings of the shareholders. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors, whether due to an increase in the number of directors, resignation, retirement, death or any other reason, may be filled by appointment by the remaining directors. Any director who is appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting of the shareholders and until a successor is elected and shall have qualified. There is a mandatory retirement provision in the Bylaws, which states that the office of a director shall be considered vacant at the Annual Meeting of shareholders next following the director attaining the age of 70 years.

Procedure for Shareholder Nominations

Section 3 of Article II of the Bylaws of Fulton Financial Corporation requires that nominations, other than those made by or on behalf of the existing management of Fulton Financial Corporation, must be made in writing and must be delivered or mailed to the Chief Executive Officer of Fulton Financial Corporation not less than 14 days nor more than 50 days prior to the date of the Annual Meeting; provided, however, that if less than 21 days' notice of the meeting is given to the shareholders, such nominations must be mailed or delivered to the Chief Executive Officer of Fulton Financial Corporation not later than the close of business on the sixth day following the day on which notice of the meeting was mailed. The required notice must set forth the name, age, residence address and principal occupation of each nominee. The chairman of the meeting is required to determine whether nominations have been made in accordance with the requirements of the Bylaws and, if he determines that a nomination is defective, the nomination and any votes cast for the nominee shall be disregarded.

Director Qualifications

In considering individuals nominated for board membership, the Board of Directors considers a variety of factors, including whether the candidate is recommended by executive management; the individual's professional and personal qualifications, including business experience, education and community and charitable activities; and the individual's familiarity with the communities in which Fulton Financial Corporation is located or is seeking to locate. In 2004, the Board of Directors formed a nominating committee of the Board, whose members are independent and are responsible for recommending director nominees to the independent members of the Board of Directors. The charter for the nominating committee is available on Fulton Financial Corporation's website: www.fult.com.

COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

For 2005, compensation for executive officers of Fulton Financial Corporation was determined by the Board of Directors after receiving recommendations from the Executive Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors based upon external salary comparisons and individual performance.¹ Fulton Financial Corporation's executive compensation program is based, to a significant degree, on peer group information, because the Board of Directors believes that the Corporation must offer competitive salaries in order to recruit and retain qualified executive officers.

In making recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding the appropriate levels of executive officer compensation for 2005, the Executive Compensation Committee also considered the individual performance factors described in this paragraph. With regard to the compensation paid to executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer, the Executive Compensation Committee considered their own perceptions of the group, information provided by the Chief Executive Officer as to each executive officer's level of individual performance, contribution to the organization, and salary history during the past four years. With regard to the compensation paid to the Chief Executive Officer, the Executive Compensation Committee considered his performance level, the results of management decisions made by him, and the earnings of Fulton Financial Corporation during the previous year. The Executive Compensation Committee did not assign a particular weight to any of the foregoing individual performance factors, nor did it establish specific target levels for individual performance or corporate earnings. The compensation recommendations of the Executive Compensation Committee were based on its overall subjective assessment of the value of the services provided by each executive officer to Fulton Financial Corporation, after giving careful consideration to the peer group compensation information and the individual performance factors discussed in this paragraph.

The peer group of bank holding companies used by the Executive Compensation Committee for purposes of making a comparative analysis of executive compensation for 2005 included the same bank holding companies that were in the peer group that was established by the Corporation in 2004 to compare shareholder returns, as indicated in the Performance Graph included in this Proxy Statement. The peer group included bank holding companies that at the time were comparable to Fulton Financial Corporation in terms of asset size, although they were not necessarily comparable in terms of financial performance.

Pursuant to the 2004 Stock Option and Compensation Plan approved by the Board of Directors on October 21, 2003 and the shareholders in 2004, Fulton Financial Corporation is authorized to award incentive stock options, non-qualified stock options and restricted stock to key employees of Fulton Financial Corporation and its subsidiaries. Stock options enable the recipients to purchase Fulton Financial Corporation common stock at the prices designated in the awarded options. The number of options available for grant in any calendar year is determined based on the performance of Fulton Financial Corporation measured in terms of total shareholder return for the immediately preceding five-year period relative to a peer group selected by the Executive Compensation Committee. The awards of stock options made to the executive officers of Fulton Financial Corporation during 2005 were determined by the Board of Directors based on the recommendations of the Executive Compensation Committee. In making such recommendations, the Executive Compensation Committee considered the number of shares to be optioned and the profitability of Fulton Financial Corporation, as well as information provided by the Chief Executive Officer concerning the level of individual performance and contribution to the organization of each of the other executive officers. The Executive Compensation Committee used the same criteria in determining the number of options to be awarded to the Chief Executive Officer. However, the committee also decided to give the Chief Executive Officer the opportunity to choose to accept the stock options or 15,000 shares of restricted stock. He chose to accept the restricted stock. The Executive Compensation Committee did not establish specific target levels for individual performance or corporate profitability. The Executive Compensation Committee believes, however, that awards of stock options, restricted stock and bonuses are an appropriate means of compensating executive officers based on the performance of Fulton Financial Corporation.

¹ The Board formed an Executive Compensation Committee in March 2004. At an October 18, 2004 meeting, the Executive Compensation Committee reviewed and evaluated information concerning the compensation and performance of the executive officers of Fulton Financial Corporation and voted to recommend to the independent directors of the Board of Directors increases in the 2005 salaries for each of the executive officers. At a regular board meeting on December 21, 2004, the independent directors of the Board of Directors, after discussion, approved the recommendations of the Executive Compensation Committee for increasing the 2005 salaries of the executive

SEVERANCE AGREEMENTS AND SURVIVORS' BENEFITS

Fulton Financial Corporation has entered into severance agreements with Messrs. Smith, Ashby and Nugent (the "Executives")². Under the terms of those agreements, certain limited severance benefits are payable in the event an Executive resigns or is discharged other than for cause following, and for reasons relating to, a change in control of Fulton Financial Corporation. Specifically, in the event of such a discharge or resignation, the Executive would be entitled to receive from Fulton Financial Corporation an annual benefit consisting of his then effective base salary, certain fringe benefits in lieu of coverage under employee benefit plans and a supplemental retirement benefit in lieu of his continuing participation in the Fulton Financial Corporation employee retirement plans. Such benefits would be payable, in the cases of Messrs. Smith, Ashby and Nugent, for a period of three years, beginning on the date of the Executive's discharge or resignation and continuing until (i) he elects to terminate benefits in order to accept employment with another financial services institution; (ii) the end of the year in which he attains the age of 65; or (iii) he dies, whichever first occurs.

Officers of Fulton Financial Corporation and certain of its bank subsidiaries as of April 1, 1992, who had been employed by the Corporation for at least five years as of that date, are eligible to participate in a survivors' benefit program. This program provides the employee's spouse, in the event of the employee's death prior to retirement, with an annual income equal to the lesser of $25,000 or 25 percent of the employee's final annual salary. This benefit is paid from the date of death until the employee's 65th birthday with a minimum of ten annual payments. Messrs. Smith and Ashby participate in this program.

² Messrs. Shreiner, Wenger and Hill, who became executive officers on January 1, 2006 also have severance agreements. Messrs. Shreiner and Wenger have agreements that provide for payment for 18 months. Mr. Hill's severance agreement provides for payment for 12 months.

INFORMATION CONCERNING DIRECTORS

Meetings and Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of Fulton Financial Corporation has a standing Executive Committee, Audit Committee, Nominating Committee, Executive Compensation Committee and Trust Committee. There is also a standing Human Resources Committee which, except with regard to the executive officers of Fulton Financial Corporation, serves as the compensation committee.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

In March 2004, the Executive Compensation Committee was formed and its membership consists only of independent directors. In December 2004, this committee recommended the 2005 compensation for the executive officers to the independent directors of the Board, who then approved the committee's recommendation. Members of the Executive Compensation Committee are Donald W. Leshner, Jr., Chair, George W. Hodges, Vice Chair, Mrs. Holleran and Messrs. Bowman, Freer, and Gardner. There are no interlocking relationships, as defined in regulations of the SEC, involving members of the Executive Compensation Committee. Director Bowman has the indirect relationships described in "Transactions with Directors and Executive Officers." The Executive Compensation Committee is responsible for, among other things, recommending the compensation and stock option awards for the executive officers to the Board of Directors. The Executive Compensation Committee met four times in 2005.

Other Board Committees

Members of the Audit Committee are George W. Hodges, Chair, Thomas W. Hunt, Vice Chair, Mrs. Mary Ann Russell and Messrs. Gardner, Kooyker and Stewart. Mrs. Russell and Mr. Gardner will be retiring as of the 2006

Annual Meeting in accordance with the Corporation's mandatory retirement policy. Director Freer will join the committee on the same date. All members of the Audit Committee meet the experience and independence requirements of the National Association of Security Dealers, Inc., the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the rules and regulations of the SEC. Directors Gardner and Hunt were determined to qualify, and agreed to serve, as the Audit Committee's "financial expert" as defined by the SEC regulations. The Audit Committee met fourteen times during the year. The Audit Committee is governed by a formal charter, which was adopted in 2004. The Audit Committee's pre-approval policy and procedure for audit and non-audit services is set forth in its charter. The functions of the Audit Committee include, among other things, sole authority to appoint or replace the independent auditor; direct responsibility for the compensation and oversight of the work of the independent auditor; oversight of the overall relationship with the independent auditor; meeting with the independent auditor to review the scope of audit services; reviewing and discussing with management and the independent auditor annual and quarterly financial statements and related disclosures; overseeing the internal audit function; reviewing holding company regulatory examination reports and management's responses thereto; and reviewing periodic reports from the loan review function.

Members of the Nominating Committee are Craig A. Dally, Chair, Jeffrey G. Albertson, Vice Chair and Messrs. Bowman, Hunt, Shirk and Stewart. The Nominating Committee met one time during the year. The Nominating Committee is responsible for, among other things, recommending to the independent directors the nominees for election to the Board of Directors.

Members of the Executive Committee are Donald M. Bowman, Jr., Chair, Donald W. Leshner, Jr., Vice Chair, Mrs. Holleran and Messrs. Freer, Gardner, Hodges, and Smith. The Executive Committee met two times during the year. Except for the powers expressly excluded in Section 5 of Article III of the Bylaws, the Executive Committee exercises the powers of the Board of Directors between board meetings. In January 2006, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, R. Scott Smith, Jr. replaced Mr. Fulton on the Executive Committee and Mr. Fulton joined the Human Resources Committee.

Members of the Trust Committee are Craig A. Dally, Chair, Clark S. Frame, Vice Chair, and Messrs. Bowman, Horst, Mowad and Shirk. Director Mowad will be retiring as of the 2006 Annual Meeting in accordance with the Corporation's mandatory retirement policy. In 2005, Mr. Fulton and Mr. Smith served as ex-officio members of this Committee. The Trust Committee met eight times during the year. The Trust Committee is responsible for consulting with management of Fulton Financial Advisors, National Association, a subsidiary of Fulton Financial Corporation, and overseeing all trust, investment, insurance and related financial services which Fulton Financial Corporation performs, directly or indirectly through an affiliate.

Members of the Human Resources Committee are Jeffrey G. Albertson, Chair, Patrick J. Freer, Vice Chair, Mrs. Holleran and Messrs. Fulton, Leshner and Opatut. In 2005, Mr. Fulton and Mr. Smith served as ex-officio members of this Committee. The Committee met seven times during the year to review benefit and salary administration programs (except for executive officers of Fulton Financial Corporation) and other human resources matters affecting Fulton Financial Corporation and its subsidiaries.

There were eight meetings of the Board of Directors of Fulton Financial Corporation and forty-four meetings of committees of the Board of Directors of Fulton Financial Corporation during 2005. No director attended fewer than 75% of the aggregate number of meetings of the Board of Directors and of the board committees on which he or she served.

Executive Sessions

The independent directors of the board met two times in executive session in 2005.

Annual Meeting Attendance

Fulton Financial Corporation does not have a formal policy requiring directors to attend the Annual Meeting, however, in order to facilitate their attendance, the corporation held its regularly scheduled board meeting for April at 9 a.m., April 13, 2005, at the Hershey Lodge and Convention Center, the same date and location as the 2004 Annual Meeting, which began at 12:00 noon. One director was absent from that regular board meeting and did not attend the Annual Meeting.

Compensation of Directors

Each member of the Board of Directors of Fulton Financial Corporation is paid an annual fee of $20,000 for his or her services as a director, except that no fee is paid to any director who is also a salaried officer of Fulton Financial Corporation or one of its subsidiary banks. In addition, directors are paid a fee of $1,000 for each Board of Directors meeting attended and $1,000 for each committee meeting attended on non-board meeting days. The chairperson of the Audit Committee is paid an annual fee of $10,000 and the chairpersons of the Executive Committee and Executive Compensation Committee are paid an annual fee of $2,500. Certain directors have elected to participate in the Fulton Financial Corporation Deferred Compensation Plan, under which a director may elect not to receive the normal director's fees when earned, but instead, to receive them, together with interest, in a lump sum or in installments over a period of up to twenty (20) years following retirement.

Transactions with Directors and Executive Officers

Some of the directors and executive officers of Fulton Financial Corporation and the companies with which they are associated were customers of, and had banking transactions with Fulton Financial Corporation bank subsidiaries during 2005. All loans and commitments to lend made to such persons and to the companies with which they are associated were made in the ordinary course of bank business, on substantially the same terms (including interest rates, collateral and repayment terms) as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons, and did not involve more than a normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features. It is anticipated that similar transactions will be entered into in the future.

Some of the directors of Fulton Financial Corporation are members of law firms which provided legal services to Fulton Financial Corporation or its subsidiaries in 2005 and prior years. The law firm of Albertson Ward, Woodbury, New Jersey, has provided legal services to The Bank, a subsidiary of Fulton Financial Corporation, for many years. In 2005, Albertson Ward was paid $136,090.75 in fees for such services, which constituted more than five percent (5%) of its gross revenues. Director Jeffrey G. Albertson is a partner in this firm. The law firm of Barley Snyder LLC, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, provided legal services to Fulton Financial Corporation and its subsidiaries in 2005. The fees paid to Barley Snyder in 2005 did not exceed five (5%) of its gross revenues. Director John O. Shirk is a partner in this law firm. The law firm of Pierce & Dally, LLP, Nazareth, Pennsylvania, provided legal services to Lafayette Ambassador Bank in 2005. In 2005, Pierce & Dally was paid $45,517.73 in fees for such services, which constituted more than five percent (5%) of its gross revenues. Director Craig A. Dally is a partner in this law firm. In each case, the law firm is expected to continue to provide legal services to Fulton Financial Corporation or its subsidiaries in the future.

In 2005, a banking subsidiary of Fulton Financial Corporation paid annual rent of $95,178 for a branch office to The Bowman Group, LLP. The same banking subsidiary paid annual rent of $108,000 for a branch office to Bowman 2000 LLC. Director Donald M. Bowman, Jr. is a partner in The Bowman Group, LLP and he is the manager of Bowman 2000 LLC.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the directors and executive officers of Fulton Financial Corporation to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission initial reports of ownership and reports of change in ownership of common stock and other equity securities of Fulton Financial Corporation. To the knowledge of Fulton Financial Corporation, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its directors and executive officers have been complied with, except in the following cases: with respect to Charles J. Nugent, a report was filed on March 25, 2005 for a disposition of 6,116 shares of Fulton Financial Corporation stock in connection with the exercise of a stock option on March 22, 2005; and with respect to Thomas W. Hunt, an amended Form 3 was filed on February 27, 2006 to include 1,279 shares of Fulton Financial Corporation stock which were not reported in the original Form 3. In Mr. Nugent's case, the failure to file a timely report was inadvertent and occurred as a result of a delay in getting timely information from the stock transfer agent in reporting the transaction. In Mr. Hunt's case, the failure to file a correct original Form 3 was inadvertent and occurred when his shares of Resource Bankshares Corporation (Resource) were being exchanged for Fulton Financial Corporation stock following the merger of Resource with the Corporation.

RELATIONSHIP WITH INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

For the year ended December 31, 2005, Fulton Financial Corporation engaged KPMG LLP ("KPMG"), independent certified public accountants, to audit the Corporation's financial statements. The fees incurred for services rendered by KPMG for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 are summarized in the following table.

	2005	2004
Audit Fees Annual Audit and Quarterly Review ⁽¹⁾	$1,606,800	$1,822,600
Audit Fees Issuance of Comfort Letters and Consents	218,800	35,000
 Audit Fees Subtotal	 1,825,600	 1,857,600
 Audit Related Fees Student Loan Audit	 6,240	 5,000
Tax Fees - Preparation of Tax Returns	75,500	92,675
All Other Fees ⁽²⁾	118,622	106,580
 TOTAL	 $2,025,962	 $2,061,855

(1) Amounts presented for 2005 are based upon the audit engagement letter. Final billings for 2005 may differ.

(2) All Other Fees were for services rendered to the trust subsidiary, primarily for a SAS 70 report on the processing of transactions by the retirement services area.

The appointment of KPMG for the current year will be reviewed in the second quarter of 2006. Representatives of KPMG are expected to be present at the 2006 Annual Meeting with the opportunity to make a statement and to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Fulton Financial Corporation has carefully considered whether the provision of the non-audit services described above which were performed by KPMG in 2005 would be incompatible with maintaining the independence of KPMG in performing its audit services and has determined that, in its judgment, the independence of the auditor has not been compromised.

All fees paid to KPMG in 2005 and 2004 were preapproved by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee preapproves all auditing and permitted non-auditing services, including the fees and terms thereof, to be performed by its independent auditor, subject to the de minimus exceptions from non-auditing services permitted by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. However, these types of services are approved prior to completion of the services. The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees consisting of one or more members, when appropriate, including the authority to grant preapprovals of audit and permitted non-audit services. Any decisions of such subcommittees to grant preapprovals shall be presented to the full Committee for ratification at its next scheduled meeting.

The Audit Committee, based on its review and discussion of the audited 2005 financial statements of the Corporation with management and the Corporation's auditor, KPMG, it recommended to the Board of Directors that the financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. A copy of the report of the Audit Committee of its findings that resulted from its financial reporting oversight responsibilities is attached as Exhibit A.
