PROXY STATEMENT
FOR THE ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON MAY 26, 2004

Edgar Filing: NASDAQ STOCK MARKET INC - Form DEF 14A

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy card are being furnished to the holders (the "Holders") of the voting securities of The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Nasdaq"), in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Nasdaq (the "Board of Directors" or the "Nasdaq Board") for use in voting at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at the time and place and for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting, and any and all adjournments or postponements thereof (the "Annual Meeting"). This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy card are first being mailed or delivered to the Holders on or about April 15, 2004.

THE ANNUAL MEETING

Date, Time, and Place. The Annual Meeting is scheduled to be held at Nasdaq's headquarters at One Liberty Plaza, 50th floor, New York, New York, on May 26, 2004, at 10:00 a.m. local time.

Purpose. At the Annual Meeting, the Holders will be asked to consider and vote upon each of the following matters:

1. To elect five Class 1 directors;
2. To ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as Nasdaq's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2004; and
3. To transact such other business as may come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Who Can Vote. Only Holders of record on the books of Nasdaq at the close of business on March 31, 2004 (the "Record Date") of Nasdaq's common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), Series B Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Series B Stock") and 4% Convertible Subordinated Notes due 2006 (the "Voting Notes" and, together with the Common Stock and the Series B Stock, the "Nasdaq Securities") will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. However, holders of warrants issued by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (the "NASD") who have exercised warrants for shares of Common Stock (the "Warrant Shares") will not be able to vote the Warrant Shares at the Annual Meeting. Pursuant to a voting trust agreement dated June 28, 2000, as amended (the "Voting Trust"), among Nasdaq, the NASD, The Bank of New York and Mellon Investor Services, LLC, the NASD retains the right to vote the Warrant Shares until such time as Nasdaq becomes registered as a national securities exchange ("Exchange Registration") with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Holders of Warrant Shares will receive the Proxy Statement and annual report to stockholders for informational purposes, but will not receive a proxy card for the Warrant Shares.

As of the Record Date, there were outstanding 78,741,270 shares of Common Stock (including shares of restricted stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting) and one share of Series B Stock. The one share of Series B Stock is owned by the NASD. The Voting Notes are convertible into an aggregate of 12,000,000 shares of Common Stock.

At Nasdaq's 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, stockholders approved an amendment to Nasdaq's Restated Certificate of Incorporation ("Certificate of Incorporation") granting holders of the Voting Notes the right to vote with the holders of Common Stock and Series B Stock on matters submitted to a vote of stockholders. The Voting Notes are held by Hellman & Friedman Capital Partners IV, L.P. and certain of its affiliated limited partnerships (collectively, "Hellman & Friedman").

As discussed in more detail below, the Voting Notes will entitle Hellman & Friedman to 4,537,094 votes on each of the matters to be submitted at the Annual Meeting, which total shall be reduced by each share of Common Stock over which Hellman & Friedman has voting control (see "How Votes Are Counted").

The enclosed proxy card shows the number of Nasdaq Securities that you are entitled to vote. Your individual vote is confidential and will not be disclosed to third parties.

Quorum. A quorum must be present in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting. The Holders of a majority of the votes that Holders are entitled to cast constitute a quorum. If you have returned valid proxy instructions or attend the meeting in person, your Nasdaq Securities will be counted for the purpose of determining whether there is a quorum, even if you wish to abstain from voting on some or all matters introduced at the meeting. Abstentions and "broker non-votes" (shares held by a broker, bank or other nominee that does not have authority, either express or discretionary, to vote on a particular matter) are counted for determining whether there is a quorum.

How Votes Are Counted. Each share of Common Stock outstanding on the Record Date is entitled to one vote on each matter that may be brought before the Annual Meeting, subject to the voting limitation in the Certificate of Incorporation that generally prohibits a Holder from voting in excess of 5% of the total voting power of Nasdaq. The share of Series B Stock is entitled to a number of votes that, together with all other votes entitled to be cast by the holder of the Series B Stock, is equal to one vote more than one-half of all votes entitled to be cast by all Holders as of the Record Date. In addition, the Holder of each Voting Note is entitled to the number of votes equal to the number of shares of Common Stock into which that Voting Note could be converted on the record date, subject to the 5% voting limitation contained in the Certificate of Incorporation. The Voting Notes will entitle Hellman & Friedman to 4,537,094 votes on each of the matters to be submitted at the Annual Meeting, which total shall be reduced by each share of Common Stock over which Hellman & Friedman has voting control.

Nasdaq Securities (Common Stock, Series B Stock and Voting Notes) vote together as a single class. As a result, the affirmative vote by the NASD of the Common Stock and Series B Stock that it controls in favor of the proposals being submitted for approval of the Holders at the Annual Meeting will result in approval of such proposals.

Required Vote. If a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting, the five nominees for director receiving the greatest number of votes (a plurality) will be elected. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be considered in determining whether director nominees have received the requisite number of affirmative votes. For each of the remaining proposals, approval will require the affirmative votes of the holders of a majority of the total number of the votes of the Nasdaq Securities present at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal. For each of these proposals, abstentions will have the effect of a vote "Against" such proposal, and broker non-votes, although counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, will have the effect of a vote neither for nor against such proposal.

Form of Proxy. The proxy provides that each Holder may vote his or her Nasdaq Securities "For" the director nominees or to "Withhold Authority" for the individual nominees or for all of the nominees, and may vote "For" or "Against" or "Abstain" from voting with respect to each of the other proposals.

Voting by Proxy Holders. If you hold your Nasdaq Securities in your name as a holder of record, you may instruct the proxy holders how to vote your Nasdaq Securities by using the toll-free telephone number, the Internet website listed on the proxy card or by signing, dating, and mailing the proxy card in the postage paid envelope that we have provided to you. Whichever of these methods you select to transmit your instructions, the proxy holders will vote your Nasdaq Securities as provided by those instructions. IF YOU RETURN A SIGNED PROXY WITHOUT SPECIFIC VOTING INSTRUCTIONS, YOUR NASDAQ SECURITIES WILL BE VOTED BY THE PROXY HOLDERS FOR THE ELECTION OF THE DIRECTORS AND FOR THE OTHER PROPOSALS SET FORTH HEREIN. If your Nasdaq Securities are held by a broker, bank or other nominee that does not have authority, either express or discretionary, to vote on a particular matter, you will receive instructions from your nominee, which you must follow to have your Nasdaq Securities voted. The broker, bank or other nominee may only vote the Nasdaq Securities that it holds for you as provided by your instructions.

Vote by Telephone. You can vote your Nasdaq Securities by telephone by dialing, at no cost to you, the toll-free number printed on your proxy card. Telephone voting is available 24 hours a day until 11:59 p.m. (E.D.T.) on May 25, 2004. You must enter your control number (printed on your proxy card above your name). You will then receive easy-to-follow voice prompts allowing you to vote your Nasdaq Securities and to confirm that your instructions have been properly recorded. If you vote by telephone, you do not need to return your proxy card. If you are located outside the United States and Canada, you should vote by Internet or by mail.

Vote by Internet. You can also choose to vote through the Internet. The website address for Internet voting is printed on your proxy card. Internet voting is available 24 hours a day until 11:59 p.m. (E.D.T.) on May 25, 2004. As with telephone voting, you must enter your control number (printed on the proxy card above your name) and you will be given the opportunity to confirm that your instructions have been properly recorded. If you vote through the Internet, you do not need to return your proxy card.

Vote by Mail. If you choose to vote by mail, simply mark your proxy card, sign and date it, and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided.

Voting on Other Matters. Nasdaq is not aware of any matters to be presented at the Annual Meeting other than those described in this Proxy Statement. If any other matters not described in the Proxy Statement are properly presented at the meeting, the proxy holders will use their own judgment to determine how to vote your Nasdaq Securities. If the meeting is adjourned or postponed, your Nasdaq Securities may be voted by the proxy holders on the new meeting date as well, unless you have revoked your proxy instructions before that date.

How to Revoke Your Proxy Instructions. A proxy may be revoked at any time prior to the voting at the Annual Meeting. To revoke your proxy instructions, you must (1) so advise Nasdaq's Corporate Secretary, Joan C. Conley, c/o The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc., One Liberty Plaza, New York, New York, 10006, in writing before your Nasdaq Securities have been voted by the proxy holders at the meeting, (2) deliver to Nasdaq's Corporate Secretary before the date of the Annual Meeting your revised proxy instructions, or otherwise submit a later dated proxy (including a proxy by telephone or through the Internet), or (3) attend the meeting and vote your Nasdaq Securities in person.

Cost of This Proxy Solicitation. Nasdaq will pay the cost of its proxy solicitation. Nasdaq will, upon request, reimburse brokers, banks, and other nominees for their reasonable expenses in sending proxy material to their principals and obtaining their proxies. Some of Nasdaq's employees may also solicit Holders personally and by telephone. None of these employees will receive any additional or special compensation for doing this. Mellon Investors Services has been retained to assist in soliciting proxies at a fee of $7,500 plus costs and expenses for these services. Your cooperation in promptly voting your Nasdaq Securities and submitting your proxy by telephone, the Internet or by completing and returning the enclosed proxy card will help to avoid additional expense.

Attending the Annual Meeting. If you are a holder of record and you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, please indicate this when you vote. If you are a beneficial owner of Nasdaq Securities held by a bank, broker or other nominee, you will need proof of ownership to be admitted to the meeting. A recent brokerage statement or letter from the bank, broker, or other nominee are examples of proof of ownership. If you want to vote in person your Nasdaq Securities held in street name, you will have to obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the holder of record.

PROPOSAL I

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The business and affairs of Nasdaq are managed under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Certificate of Incorporation establishes a classified Board of Directors, divided into three classes having staggered terms of three years each. Pursuant to the Certificate of Incorporation and Nasdaq's By-Laws, the Board of Directors may determine the total number of directors. The Board of Directors currently consists of seven Class 1 directors, six Class 2 directors, and seven Class 3 directors. The Nominating Committee has recommended, and the Board of Directors has approved, a reduction in the size of the Board of Directors from 21 to 18 members. Five Class 1 directors are to be elected at the Annual Meeting by the Holders for terms expiring at the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders and upon their successors being duly elected and qualified. The directors whose terms will expire at the Annual Meeting are: H. Furlong Baldwin, Frank E. Baxter, Michael W. Clark, William S. Cohen, Robert Greifeld, Thomas M. Joyce and Arvind Sodhani. Messrs. Baxter, Clark and Cohen are retiring from the Board of Directors and will not stand for re-election as Class 1 directors at the Annual Meeting. The remaining Class 1 directors have been nominated for re-election. Former U.S. Senator Fred D. Thompson has been nominated by the Nominating Committee to stand for election as a Class 1 director at the Annual Meeting to fill the remaining Class 1 vacancy. Senator Thompson was initially recommended to the Nominating Committee by one of Nasdaq's executive officers.

All nominees have consented to be named in this Proxy Statement and to serve on the Board of Directors, if elected. In the event that any nominee should not be available, the persons named in the proxy will vote for the other nominees and may vote for a substitute for the unavailable nominee.

Under Nasdaq's By-Laws, all directors are classified as either Industry Directors, Non-Industry Directors, or Staff Directors (each as described below). In addition, Non-Industry Directors may also be classified as Public Directors or Issuer Representatives (each as described below). The number of Non-Industry Directors, including at least one Public Director and at least two representatives of Nasdaq-listed companies (an "Issuer Representative"), is required to equal or exceed the number of Industry Directors, unless the Board of Directors consists of nine or fewer directors. In such case only one director is required to be an Issuer Representative. Nasdaq establishes the classification of each director based on a questionnaire with specific questions related to each of the classifications discussed below. Nasdaq's Corporate Secretary annually certifies to the Board of Directors the classification of each director.

The following is a general description of Nasdaq's director classifications:

Edgar Filing: NASDAQ STOCK MARKET INC - Form DEF 14A

Industry Director means a director (excluding any two officers of Nasdaq, selected at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors, amongst those officers who may be serving as directors (the "Staff Directors")) who (i) has served in the prior three years as an officer, director, or employee of a broker or dealer, excluding an outside director or a director not engaged in the day-to-day management of a broker or dealer; (ii) is an officer, director (excluding an outside director), or employee of an entity that owns more than 10% of the equity of a broker or dealer, and the broker or dealer accounts for more than 5% of the gross revenues received by the consolidated entity; (iii) owns more than 5% of the equity securities of any broker or dealer, whose investments in brokers or dealers exceed 10% of his or her net worth, or whose ownership interest otherwise permits him or her to be engaged in the day-to-day management of the broker or dealer; (iv) provides professional services to brokers or dealers, and such services constitute 20% or more of the professional revenues received by the director or member or 20% or more of the gross revenues received by the director's or member's firm or partnership; (v) provides professional services to a director, officer, or employee of a broker, dealer, or corporation that owns 50% or more of the voting stock of a broker or dealer, and such services relate to the director's, officer's or employee's professional capacity and constitute 20% or more of the professional revenues received by the director or 20% or more of the gross revenues received by the director's or member's firm or partnership; or (vi) has a consulting or employment relationship with or provides professional services to the NASD, NASD Regulation, Inc. ("NASDR"), Nasdaq, or the American Stock Exchange LLC ("Amex") or has had any such relationship or provided such services at any time within the prior three years.

Non-Industry Director means a director (excluding the Staff Directors) who is (i) a Public Director; (ii) an officer or employee of an issuer of Nasdaq-listed securities or securities traded in the over-the-counter market ("Issuer Representative"); or (iii) any other individual who would not be an Industry Director.

Public Director means a director who has no material business relationship with a broker or dealer or the NASD, NASDR, or Nasdaq and does not meet the definition of Industry Director set forth above.

Pursuant to Nasdaq's By-Laws, the Board of Directors has established seven standing committees, which are described below. Each committee has adopted a charter, which is available on Nasdaq's website at www.nasdaq.com/investorrelations/ under the caption "Board of Directors and Committees." In addition, the Nasdaq Board may hire outside experts to assist it when necessary.

Executive Committee. Subject to the limitations in Nasdaq's By-Laws, the Executive Committee has the general power and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of Nasdaq between meetings of the Board of Directors. Messrs. Baldwin, Casey, Clark, Greifeld, Markese, Sodhani and Ms. White currently serve on the Executive Committee. This committee did not meet during 2003.

Messrs. Casey, Baxter, Havens, Sodhani and Sorrell currently serve on the Management Compensation Committee. The Committee met in executive session at each of the 11 committee meetings in 2003.

Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee has the authority to identify and nominate candidates for vacancies on the Board of Directors. Nominations for directors to be elected by the stockholders are made by the Nominating Committee, or may be made by a stockholder in accordance with the procedures described in the section entitled "Stockholder Proposals and Nominations of Directors" below. If a director position becomes vacant because of death, disability, disqualification, removal, resignation or increase in the number of directors, the Nominating Committee will nominate, and the Board of Directors will elect by majority vote, a person satisfying the classification (Industry, Non-Industry or Public Director), if applicable, for the directorship to fill such vacancy, except that if the remaining term is not more than six months, no replacement is required. Nasdaq's By-Laws require that no more than three current members of the Board of Directors and two Industry members may serve on the Nominating Committee. The current members of the Nominating Committee are: Edward T. Alter, Betsy S. Atkins, Nicholas E. Calio, Joseph A. Grundfest, Bernard L. Madoff and Hedi S. Reynolds. In evaluating candidates, the Nominating Committee considers the candidates' willingness to participate fully in Board activities including active membership on Board committees, the attributes of the candidates (including areas of expertise, experience, background, integrity, available time commitment, diversity, and applicable laws, rules and regulations) and the needs of the Board of Directors including financial expertise referred to in SEC regulations and Nasdaq's listing standards and will review all candidates in the same manner, regardless of the source of the recommendation. The Audit Committee oversees Nasdaq's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors and reports to the Board of Directors the results of these activities, including the systems of internal controls which management and the Board of Directors have established, Nasdaq's audit and compliance process and financial reporting. The Audit Committee, among other duties, engages the independent public accountants, pre-approves all audit and non-audit services provided by the independent public accountants, reviews with the independent public accountants the plans and results of the audit engagement, considers the compatibility of any non-audit services provided by the independent public accountants with the independence of such auditors and reviews the independence of the independent public accountants. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee, a copy of which is attached to this Proxy Statement as Annex A. Messrs. Markese, Casey, O'Neill and Ms. White currently serve on the Audit Committee. This committee met nine times during 2003. The Board of Directors has determined that Audit Committee members must meet the independence standards for audit committees of companies listed on The Nasdaq Stock Market and has concluded that each member of the Audit Committee satisfies these independence standards.

Each member of the Audit Committee meets the standard for financial knowledge for companies listed on The Nasdaq Stock Market. In addition, the Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Casey is qualified as an audit committee financial expert within the meaning of SEC regulations and that he has accounting and related financial management expertise that meets the standard for "financial sophistication" set forth in NASD Rule 4350(d)(2)(A).

Nasdaq Board Attendance at Annual Meeting

It is the policy of Nasdaq to encourage all members of the Nasdaq Board to attend the Annual Meeting. In 2003, 12 members of the Nasdaq Board attended the Annual Meeting.

Director Compensation

Employee directors do not receive additional compensation for serving on the Board of Directors. In 2003, all non-employee directors were entitled to receive a compensation package valued at $40,000. Each non-employee director may elect to receive the compensation package in cash, payable in equal quarterly installments, shares of restricted stock, or a combination of one-half in stock and one-half in cash. Calculation of the number of shares of restricted stock to be awarded will be based on the closing price of the Common Stock on the date prior to the grant. The shares of restricted stock will vest two years from date of grant and unvested shares are forfeited in certain circumstances upon termination of the director's service on the Nasdaq Board. Directors do not receive retirement, health or life insurance benefits and do not receive additional fees for meeting attendance or service on committees. Two incumbent directors elected to waive all compensation for services rendered in 2003. One additional director who retired from the Nasdaq Board in May 2003 waived all compensation for his period of service in 2003.

2002 accounting consultation fees have been reclassified as Audit fees to conform with the current year presentation.

Fees exclude services provided to non-profit entities of The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc., services provided in relation to Nasdaq's role as the Securities Information Processor ("SIP") under the Unlisted Trading Privileges Plan ("UTP Plan") and the audit of the Nasdaq-100 Trust, Series 1, the trust for the Nasdaq-100 Index Tracking StockSM ("QQQSM").

Audit fees represent the audit, inclusive of international entities, of Nasdaq's annual financial statements and the review of Nasdaq's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, and accounting consultation on matters addressed during the audit or interim review. Audit-related fees represent assurance, employee benefit plan audits, internal control reviews including assistance with Section 404 internal control reporting requirements. In 2002, Audit-related fees also included transactional due diligence fees related to Nasdaq's global strategic initiatives of $1,933,753. Tax fees represent tax services related to tax compliance, advice and planning. All other fees represent client advisory services and products, and certain other services not included in the above categories. In 2002, All other fees also included Internal audit co-sourcing services of $1,196,411. Internal audit co-sourcing services were terminated as of June 30, 2002.

Under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Audit Committee of Nasdaq's Board of Directors is responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the services provided by Nasdaq's independent auditors, Ernst & Young. The Audit Committee is required to pre-approve both audit and non-audit services performed by Ernst & Young.

Pre-Approval of Services by Audit Committee

In accordance with the SEC's new independence rules, Nasdaq's Audit Committee requires specific pre-approval of each non-audit service provided by Ernst & Young on a case-by-case basis. In approving Nasdaq's independent auditors to provide such services, the Audit Committee considers many factors prior to the specific pre-approval of non-audit services. These factors take into consideration the most efficient or effective service provider, familiarity with the company's systems and processes, business and risk profile, and other services that may improve the overall audit quality. The Audit Committee has delegated its Chairman the authority to evaluate and pre-approve non-audit engagements on behalf of the Audit Committee if such engagements do not exceed $100,000 in the aggregate between meetings and the Audit Committee is informed of the pre-approval by the Chairman at the next committee meeting. Nasdaq's management periodically reports to the full Audit Committee regarding the extent of the services provided by Ernst & Young, including fees for such services, in accordance with Nasdaq's pre-approval process. The Audit Committee pre-approved all Ernst & Young services engaged in 2003. The Audit Committee also reviewed, among other things, the amount of fees paid to Ernst & Young to consider whether the provision of non-audit services by Ernst & Young is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young's independence.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP AS INDEPENDENT AUDITORS.

OTHER BUSINESS

The Board of Directors knows of no business other than the matters set forth herein that will be presented at the Annual Meeting. To the extent that matters not known at this time may come before the Annual Meeting, absent instructions thereon to the contrary, the enclosed proxy will confer discretionary authority with respect to such other matters as may properly come before the meeting, and it is the intention of the persons named in the proxy to vote in accordance with their judgment on such other matters.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Report of the Management Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation

The Management Compensation Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors, composed entirely of independent directors, has overall responsibility for establishing and administering Nasdaq's compensation, benefits and equity programs. Each member of the Committee qualifies as a "non-employee director" under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Committee met 11 times in 2003. The Committee met in executive session at each of the 11 committee meetings.

General Compensation Philosophy

Nasdaq's general compensation philosophy is to provide a results based, total reward opportunity which includes compensation, benefits and equity, that firmly positions Nasdaq to attract, motivate and retain key executives in leadership roles. Total cash compensation varies with Nasdaq's performance in attaining measurable financial and non-financial objectives. Moreover, long-term incentive compensation, such as equity awards, is utilized to strengthen the relationship between pay and Nasdaq's performance and align employee and stockholder interests. Nasdaq maintains two major incentive compensation programs in which the majority of Nasdaq's employees participate: the annual Corporate Incentive Program ("CIP"), and the Equity Plan.

In 2003, total cash compensation for Nasdaq employees, including its executive officers, managers and employees in non-management job categories consisted of base salary and for eligible employees a performance based at risk cash bonus under the CIP. The level of cash bonus earned was generally determined based on corporate and individual performance tied to business unit objectives. The total amount of incentive compensation paid to all Nasdaq employees including guaranteed and contractual commitments in respect of 2003 was approximately 70% of the CIP opportunity at target performance levels. During 2003, individual cash bonus payments under the CIP were based on the following four measures: (1) Corporate Net Income before tax; (2) Total Revenue or Market Share; (3) Individual Business Unit Strategic Measures; and (4) Employee Satisfaction Index (management staff only) determined by an annual Business Effectiveness Employee Survey.

Long-term incentive compensation has been delivered through the granting of stock options to most Nasdaq employees, including certain executive officers under the Equity Plan. In addition, ownership of Common Stock is offered to eligible employees through a tax-qualified ESPP. The ESPP is generally available to all regular Nasdaq employees who work at least 20 hours per week or five months in a calendar year and have completed six months or more of Nasdaq service. Under the ESPP, shares of Common Stock may be purchased at six-month intervals (each, an "Offering Period") at 85% of the lower of the fair market value on the first or the last day of each Offering Period. Employees may purchase shares having a value not exceeding 10% of their annual compensation, subject to applicable annual Internal Revenue Service limitations. Participation in the ESPP is an important component of Nasdaq's total compensation strategy and is voluntary.

Executive Compensation

The Committee considers both quantitative and qualitative performance based factors in making pay decisions for executive officers of Nasdaq. These factors range from the Committee's consideration and review of business results and individual performance against established corporate and business unit goals. The Committee also solicits appropriate input from Nasdaq's CEO and President regarding total compensation and equity for those executives who report directly to him.

Base Salaries. In determining base salaries of executive officers, a variety of factors are considered, including: individual performance and future potential, skills and prior experience, scope of responsibility and accountability within the organization and relevant external market pay level information encompassing all cash and equity compensation. Base salaries are normally reviewed on an annual basis, however, adjustments may occur at the time of notable changes in executive responsibility or in response to events that would impact the long-term retention of a key executive. During 2003, base salaries of all executive officers were held constant due to Nasdaq's financial performance.

Annual Cash Incentives. Through annual cash incentives, a significant portion of total cash compensation is "at risk" and performance based. However, in order to address significant leadership, recruitment and retention requirements, certain annual executive minimum cash incentives were guaranteed through 2003 and, to a lesser extent, in 2004, during which two executives will have guaranteed minimums.

In 2001, the Committee adopted the Executive Retention Component of the CIP under which executives whose base salaries equal or exceed $300,000 had 20% (the "Retained Amount") of their annual CIP Award retained by Nasdaq and credited with interest for 24 months from the date that the annual award would normally be paid (subject to certain provisions related to early termination). In December 2003, the Committee voted to eliminate the Retention Component of the CIP. Nasdaq's current total compensation philosophy has evolved toward an aggregation of the total employment experience which underscores the belief that executives and employees will not remain with the company solely because of monetary rewards or retention of portions of bonus payments. The Retention Component is not viewed as having contributed to the retention of senior management talent and is no longer viewed as an element in Nasdaq's compensation philosophy. All retained amounts held in participant's accounts, including interest credited at prime plus one percent, were distributed at the same time bonuses were paid for fiscal year 2003 (February 2004) and no future amounts will be retained. The final payment of the Retained Amount was subject to the participant's active employment at the time of payment.

Long-term Incentives. All newly hired executive officers were granted stock options and Mr. Greifeld was granted both stock options and a restricted stock award in 2003. Certain of Mr. Greifeld's awards were made outside the Equity Plan as inducement awards (see " Compensation of the CEO and President" below). Only awards made in 2003 under the Equity Plan are exempt from the Section 162(m) limitation discussed below. This emphasis on equity-based compensation reflects the Committee's view that there should be a close alignment between executive rewards and creation of stockholder value.

Effective January 2003, Nasdaq adopted the Nasdaq Executive Corporate Incentive Plan ("ECIP"), subsequently approved by stockholders at the 2003 Annual Meeting, which is intended to be a "qualified performance based bonus plan" in order to comply with the qualified performance based exception to the limitation on the deduction of compensation paid to certain key executives of Nasdaq pursuant to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code ("the Code").

Section 162(m) of the Code provides a limit of $1,000,000 on the amount of compensation that may be deducted by a public company in any year in respect of each of the CEO and the next four most highly paid executive officers. The Committee has endeavored and will continue to endeavor to utilize certain transitional rules under the regulations governing Section 162(m) and other applicable exceptions to maximize the deductibility of compensation. However, in order to maintain flexibility in compensating executive officers and to attract needed leadership in exceptional circumstances, a policy that all compensation must be deductible has not been adopted and the Committee believes that such a policy may not be in the best interests of Nasdaq or its stockholders.

Nasdaq Performance

In linking executive pay to performance, the Committee believes that the most important measure of Nasdaq performance is the increase in long-term stockholder value, attained through the achievement of specific annual performance measures as provided for in the ECIP. In making ECIP awards, the Committee reviewed the 2003 corporate financial and strategic accomplishments as well as individual performance against goals for all executives earning in excess of $200,000 in base salary or in excess of $400,000 in total cash compensation, with awards subject to any applicable contractual guarantees. The Committee approved the 2003 compensation awards for named executive officers shown in the Summary Compensation Table that follows this report.

Profit Sharing and Retirement Plans

Edgar Filing: NASDAQ STOCK MARKET INC - Form DEF 14A

Nasdaq provides both tax-qualified and a non-qualified savings and retirement plans. All eligible employees may participate in the tax qualified plans (both pension and savings). Participation by Nasdaq employees in the defined contribution tax-qualified 401(k) savings plan is approximately 93%. Nasdaq matches up to 4% of an employee's eligible compensation to this plan during the year and may make an additional discretionary contribution to the plan as approved by the Nasdaq Board on the Committee's recommendation, which may vary with the financial performance of Nasdaq. Due to Nasdaq's financial performance, no additional discretionary match was made with respect to 2003.

Nasdaq is a participating employer along with the NASD in the NASD Pension Plan and was until recently a participating employer in the NASD's supplemental executive retirement plan ("SERP"). Nasdaq continues to participate in the NASD Pension Plan, which is a broad based qualified plan available to all eligible Nasdaq employees. In 2003, Nasdaq ceased participating in the NASD SERP and established the Nasdaq SERP for the benefit of a select group of highly compensated employees. As part of its overall cost control and expense reduction efforts in 2003, the NASD Pension Plan was amended solely as it applied to Nasdaq employees. The amendment changed the calculation of a participant's accrued benefit by changing how his or her ultimate benefit is calculated. A participant's benefit will be determined based on his or her average career compensation rather than highest consecutive five years of compensation. However, this change generally will be phased in over a five-year period. This amendment is anticipated to reduce the annual pension expense by approximately $3.0 million per fiscal year, while continuing to provide a defined benefit pension for employees.

Similarly, in adopting the Nasdaq SERP for its executives, the company implemented a similar means to calculate the ultimate benefit earned under the SERP as discussed above with respect to the Pension Plan. Executives who earned a benefit under the NASD SERP will have that benefit preserved and ultimately paid from the Nasdaq SERP (subject to the change to the average career method of calculation once phased-in).

See "Pension Plan Table" for a description of the benefits under the Pension Plan and SERP, including the amendments discussed above.

Compensation of the CEO and President

On May 12, 2003, Robert Greifeld joined Nasdaq as CEO and President. In order to attract, motivate and retain Mr. Greifeld, a combination of cash compensation and equity incentives were provided to Mr. Greifeld. Mr. Greifeld's employment agreement provided for, and he received, a prorated portion of his annual salary of $790,000 for the period of his service in 2003 and a guaranteed minimum annual cash incentive of $1,750,000 for 2003 payable in February 2004. In addition, and in accordance with his employment agreement, Mr. Greifeld was awarded 1,000,000 stock options and 100,000 shares of restricted stock as inducements to secure Mr. Greifeld's employment. These inducement awards were approved outside of the Equity Plan because the provisions of the Equity Plan contain a 1,000,000 share limit on awards to a single participant in a calendar year. The inducement options vested as to 25% on July 10, 2003, and vest as to an additional 25% on each of the first three anniversaries of the grant date. The inducement shares of restricted stock vest in equal installments on the first three anniversaries of the grant date. In addition, Mr. Greifeld was awarded 1,000,000 stock options in 2003 under the Equity Plan pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement. These options vest as to 25% on the grant date and as to an additional 25% on each of the first three anniversaries of the grant date. The Committee developed Mr. Greifeld's compensation based on practices of companies of comparable size and similar industries.

The Committee is pleased to submit this report to the Holders with regard to the above matters.

Respectfully submitted,

The Management Compensation Committee

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

Nasdaq has employment agreements with four of its named executive officers: Messrs. Greifeld, Knight, Randich and Warren. In addition, information is provided on the employment agreement of Mr. Simmons, who served as Chairman and CEO of Nasdaq until May 12, 2003.

Mr. Greifeld

Nasdaq is a party to an employment agreement with Mr. Robert Greifeld (the "Greifeld Agreement"). The Greifeld Agreement has an initial term ending on May 12, 2007 (the "Term"). Under the terms of the Greifeld Agreement, the contract will automatically extend for one-year renewals thereafter unless either party, at least 180 days prior to the expiration of the Term, gives a notice of its intent not to extend the agreement. The Greifeld Agreement provides for (i) an annual base salary of $790,000, (ii) incentive compensation for 2003 equal to no less than $1,750,000, (iii) incentive compensation for 2004 equal to no less than 100% of base salary then in effect, and (iv) a target incentive compensation for the third, fourth, and fifth years of the Term of $1,750,000 based on the achievement of one or more performance goals established for such year by the Compensation Committee after consultation with Mr. Greifeld with respect to such goals ("Target Bonus"). The Greifeld Agreement also provides that Nasdaq will pay Mr. Greifeld a transition bonus equal to $500,000 ("Transition Bonus") no later than April 15, 2004. The Transition Bonus is subject to Mr. Greifeld's continued employment with Nasdaq through April 15, 2004 and repayment if Mr. Greifeld is terminated for cause or without good reason prior to May 12, 2005.

Mr. Greifeld was granted 1,000,000 non-qualified stock options on April 15, 2003 ("First Option") and an additional 1,000,000 on June 11, 2003 ("Second Option"). With respect to the First Option, one-fourth of the shares underlying this grant vested on July 10, 2003 and an additional one-fourth shall vest on each April 15th thereafter. With respect to the Second Option, one-fourth of the shares underlying this grant vested on June 11, 2003 and an additional one-fourth shall vest on each June 11th thereafter. Mr. Greifeld was also granted 100,000 restricted shares of Nasdaq Common Stock on June 11, 2003 and will receive additional grants of 100,000 restricted shares on the first and second anniversaries of the effective date of the Greifeld Agreement, provided he is employed with Nasdaq on such date. Under his agreement, Mr. Greifeld will be fully vested in his supplemental retirement benefits under the SERP upon the attainment of age 49 while employed by Nasdaq and his completion of four years of service. If Mr. Greifeld's employment is terminated without cause by Nasdaq, or for good reason by Mr. Greifeld, he is entitled to: (i) a severance amount equal to his annual base salary and his Target Bonus for the calendar year immediately preceding his termination date; (ii) the Transition Bonus; and (iii) his SERP benefits as if he were fully vested in the SERP. In addition, upon his termination by Nasdaq without cause, or by Mr. Greifeld for good reason, Nasdaq will provide continued health care coverage for the lesser of (I) twelve months or (II) the date he is eligible for coverage under the health care plans of a subsequent employer.

Mr. Knight

Nasdaq has entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Edward Knight (the "Knight Agreement"), the term of which commenced on December 30, 2000 and continued for an initial term ending on December 31, 2003 that was extended until December 31, 2004. Under the terms of the Knight Agreement, the contract will automatically extend for one-year renewals thereafter unless either party, at least six months prior to the expiration of the term, gives a notice of its intent not to renew the term. The Knight Agreement provides Mr. Knight with (i) a base salary at an annual rate not less than the rate of base salary in effect on December 30, 2000, and (ii) for years after 2003, such incentive compensation for each calendar year during the term as the Compensation Committee may award in its discretion. Effective as of February 1, 2002, the Knight Agreement was amended to conform to the Executive Retention Component of the CIP. Retained Amounts from prior years were paid in 2004 in connection with the termination of the Executive Retention Component and no future amounts will be retained.

Under his agreement, Mr. Knight will be fully vested in his supplemental retirement benefits under the Nasdaq's SERP upon the attainment of age 55 while employed by Nasdaq and his completion of five years of service or if his employment with Nasdaq terminates (i) due to death or disability, (ii) by Nasdaq without cause or (iii) by Mr. Knight for good reason. Under the terms of the Knight Agreement, as executed in 2000, Mr. Knight was entitled to receive a payment in an amount equal to two times his then effective base salary (the "Knight Stay Bonus") if Mr. Knight was employed by Nasdaq as of December 30, 2002. Nasdaq paid the Knight Stay Bonus in 2003 pursuant to the terms of the Knight Agreement.

Further, if Mr. Knight's employment is terminated without cause or if Mr. Knight terminates his employment for good reason, Nasdaq is obligated to pay to Mr. Knight: (i) a pro rata portion of the incentive compensation for the year of termination (including any Retained Amount plus interest at the applicable rate) and (ii) a lump sum cash payment equivalent to continuation of base salary and incentive compensation, if any, until the later of (x) the end of the term of the Knight Agreement or (y) 24 months following the date of such termination of employment (collectively, the "Termination Amounts"). Nasdaq will also continue to provide Mr. Knight with health coverage at its expense for such period.

The Knight Agreement also provides that if Mr. Knight becomes subject to any "golden parachute" excise tax, Nasdaq is obligated to make additional payments to Mr. Knight to offset the effect of such tax. In addition, Mr. Knight has agreed to be subject to certain post-termination restrictive covenants relating to non-competition, non-solicitation, non-disparagement and confidentiality.

Mr. Randich

A September 22, 2000 letter sets forth certain terms and conditions of Mr. Randich's employment with Nasdaq that commenced on October 30, 2000. The letter provides that Mr. Randich receives a signing bonus of $500,000, a guaranteed base salary of $500,000 through 2004 and guaranteed minimum annual bonuses of $500,000 through 2004. Mr. Randich is also entitled to receive an accrued retention bonus of $950,000 contingent on his remaining employed by Nasdaq with satisfactory performance through December 31, 2004. Mr. Randich also received 150,000 stock options under the Equity Plan pursuant to the terms of the letter.

Mr. Warren

Edgar Filing: NASDAQ STOCK MARKET INC - Form DEF 14A

A November 30, 2000 letter sets forth certain terms and conditions of Mr. Warren's employment with Nasdaq that commenced on January 2, 2001 at the level of Senior Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer. The letter provides that Mr. Warren receives a signing bonus of $100,000, a guaranteed base salary of $300,000 through 2003 and guaranteed minimum annual bonuses of $150,000 through 2003. The letter also provided for a forgivable loan to Mr. Warren in lieu of relocation assistance in the amount of $200,000 that was never made. Instead, Nasdaq provided a full-recourse loan in lieu of relocation assistance in the amount of $225,000. The interest rate and repayment terms of this loan are described in "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions Directors and Officers."

Mr. Simmons

Nasdaq is party to an employment agreement with Mr. Hardwick Simmons (the "Simmons Agreement"). The Simmons Agreement had a term of three years commencing on February 1, 2001 (the "Simmons Term"). The Simmons Agreement provided (i) annual base salary of $750,000, (ii) incentive compensation for 2001 of $1,750,000 prorated for partial years served and (iii) incentive compensation for the second and third years of the Simmons Term equal to no less than 100% of base salary. The Simmons Agreement was amended effective as of February 1, 2002 to conform to the Executive Retention Component of Nasdaq's CIP, which provided that Nasdaq will retain 20% of Mr. Simmons' incentive compensation for 24 months following the date incentive compensation is paid with respect to each calendar year. Retained Amounts were credited with interest at an annual rate of prime plus 1%, and were to be paid provided Mr. Simmons remained in the employ of Nasdaq at the conclusion of the 24 month period, unless his employment was earlier terminated on account of retirement, disability or death in which case the Retained Amount (plus the applicable interest) would also be paid. Under the terms of the Simmons Agreement and Amendment Number One thereto effective as of February 1, 2001, Mr. Simmons was granted 1,000,000 non-qualified stock options on February 1, 2001 and an additional 1,000,000 on February 1, 2002. Under the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Simmons became fully vested in all of the stock options upon termination of his employment in May 2003.

Upon termination of his employment, Mr. Simmons received pursuant to the terms of the Simmons Agreement: (i) his annual base salary and minimum guaranteed incentive compensation expressed as a monthly amount multiplied by the remaining number of full or partial months in the Simmons Term; (ii) any benefits under Nasdaq's regular benefit plans; (iii) a pro rata portion of the Retained Amount (plus the applicable interest). The Simmons Agreement provided a supplemental executive pension benefit equal to the present value of the benefit he would have accrued under the qualified plan in which Nasdaq participates without regard to any Internal Revenue Service limitation on includable compensation or benefits and without regard to any vesting requirements. In connection with Mr. Simmons' severance from Nasdaq pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, he received a lump sum payment on February 16, 2004 of $2.1 million equal to the present value of his lifetime supplemental pension benefit.

PENSION PLAN TABLE

Nasdaq's executive officers participate in the NASD's qualified plan and Nasdaq's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan. Under these plans executive officers earn an aggregate benefit expressed as an annual annuity equal to 6% of their modified career average compensation for each year of service up to a maximum of 10 years. In general, modified career average compensation is the average annual salary plus one-third of the annual bonus (incentive compensation) for the period of service beginning January 1, 2004 and ending on the date of termination. As a transitional rule, prior to January 1, 2009, modified career average earnings will be the average annual salary plus one-third of the annual bonus for the last 60 months of employment. In no event will the modified career average earnings be less than the average annual salary plus one-third of the annual bonus during the highest consecutive 60 month period of employment as of October 31, 2003. As of December 31, 2003, the estimated credited years of service for Mr. Greifeld is .67 years, Mr. Jacobs is 20.83 years, Mr. Knight is 4.50 years, Mr. Randich is 3.25 years and Mr. Warren is 3.0 years. The following table sets forth the aggregate annual benefit payable under the plans for various levels of remuneration and years of service. Such benefits are not reduced by benefits received under social security or other offsets.

EQUITY COMPENSATION PLAN INFORMATION

The Equity Plan provides for the issuance of Nasdaq's equity securities to officers and other employees, directors and consultants. In addition, employees of Nasdaq and its subsidiaries are eligible to participate in the ESPP at 85% of the fair market value of the Common Stock on the price calculation date. The Equity Plan and the ESPP have been approved by Nasdaq's Stockholders. In 2003, Nasdaq granted options for 1,000,000 shares of Common Stock and 100,000 shares of restricted stock to Robert Greifeld as inducement awards to secure his employment as CEO and President of Nasdaq. These two inducement awards were outside of the Equity Plan. The following table sets forth information regarding outstanding options and shares reserved for future issuance under all of Nasdaq's compensation plans as of December 31, 2003:

Plan Category	Number of shares to be issued upon exercise of outstanding options, warrants and rights (a)	Weighted-average exercise price of outstanding options, warrants and rights (b)	Number of shares remaining available for future issuance under equity compensation plans (excluding shares reflected in column (a)) (c)
Equity compensation plans approved by stockholders	12,423,134	$ 11.26	12,946,563(1)
Equity compensation plans not approved by stockholders	1,000,000(2)(3)	$ 5.28	0
Total	13,423,134	$ 10.82	12,946,563(1)

(1) This includes 2,015,422 shares of Common Stock that may be awarded other than through options pursuant to the Equity Plan and 1,320,022 shares of Common Stock that may be issued pursuant to the ESPP.

(2) Mr. Greifeld received an inducement award of non-qualified stock options exercisable for 1,000,000 shares of Common Stock pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement. The award was granted on April 15, 2003 at an exercise price of $5.28 per share and expires on April 15, 2013 (the "Expiration Date"). The Option became exercisable with respect to 250,000 shares on July 10, 2003 and become exercisable with respect to 250,000 shares on each of April 15, 2004, 2005 and 2006. In the event Mr. Greifeld's employment is terminated by Nasdaq for Cause or by Mr. Greifeld without Good Reason (each as defined in his employment agreement) the unvested portion of the option will be forfeited and the vested portion will remain exercisable for a period ending on the earlier of ten days after termination or the Expiration Date. In the event Mr. Greifeld's employment is terminated by Nasdaq without Cause, by Mr. Greifeld for Good Reason or in the event of death or disability, any portion of the option that would vest within 12 months shall vest, in most circumstances, as of termination and the remainder will be forfeited. In this case, Mr. Greifeld would have the earlier of 24 months after the termination date or the Expiration Date to exercise the vested portion of the option. If Mr. Greifeld's employment terminates as a result of retirement (as defined in his employment agreement) unvested options that would have vested within 12 months will continue to vest. Mr. Greifeld would have the earlier of 370 days or the Expiration Date to exercise the vested portion of the option. In the event Mr. Greifeld's employment terminates as a result of a non-renewal by Nasdaq, any vested portion will be exercisable until the earlier of 24 months from termination or the Expiration Date and the unvested portion will be forfeited. This inducement award is transferable by Mr. Greifeld only to certain immediate family members or to a trust or other entity for the exclusive benefit of such immediate family members.

Does not include 100,000 shares of restricted stock granted to Mr. Greifeld as an inducement award on June 11, 2003. The shares of restricted stock vest in equal amounts on each of the first three anniversaries of the grant date. In the event Mr. Greifeld's employment is terminated by Nasdaq for Cause, by Mr. Greifeld without Good Reason or as a result of a non-renewal by Mr. Greifeld, all unvested restricted stock is forfeited. In the event Mr. Greifeld's employment is terminated by Nasdaq without Cause, by Mr. Greifeld for Good Reason or in the event of death, disability or retirement, all restricted shares that would have vested within 12 months of termination will vest and the remaining shares will be forfeited. In the event Mr. Greifeld's employment terminates as a result of a non-renewal by Nasdaq, any unvested shares shall vest as of termination. This inducement award is transferable only by the laws of descent and distribution.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act and regulations of the SEC thereunder require Nasdaq's executive officers and directors, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of Nasdaq's equity securities collectively, to file reports of initial ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC. Based solely on its review of copies of such forms received by Nasdaq, or on written representations from certain reporting persons that no other reports were required for such persons, Nasdaq believes that during 2003, substantially all of the Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its executive officers, directors and 10% stockholders were complied with, except that Messrs. Greifeld, Gorman and Aust each filed one Form 4 late as a result of an administrative error by Nasdaq and the NASD filed one late Form 4 covering nine separate transactions involving the exercise of warrants issued by the NASD for shares of Common Stock that should have been reported on nine Forms 4.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The NASD and Amex

Nasdaq's legal authority to operate as a stock market is delegated to it by the NASD under a plan approved by the SEC (the "Delegation Plan"). Although Nasdaq has initiated the process with the SEC to become registered as a national securities exchange, there can be no assurance at this time that Exchange Registration will occur or that the Exchange Registration will occur in a timely fashion.

As a result, prior to Exchange Registration, Nasdaq will continue to operate under the Delegation Plan, pursuant to which the NASD has delegated responsibility for market operation functions to Nasdaq. Although Nasdaq exercises primary responsibility for market-related functions, including market-related rulemaking and interpretations, all actions taken pursuant to authority delegated by the NASD are subject to review, ratification, or rejection by the NASD Board of Governors. As long as the Delegation Plan remains in effect, the NASD Board will continue to have authority over Nasdaq. The current structure will continue until Nasdaq is reconstituted as a self-regulatory organization, which will become effective upon Exchange Registration.

Although it is contemplated that the NASD will eventually divest completely its ownership interest in Nasdaq, there may still exist certain contractual relationships between the parties once this happens. For example, prior to the restructuring that resulted in the separation of Nasdaq from the NASD, Nasdaq had access to many support functions of the NASD, including certain financial services, real estate, legal, information services and corporate and administrative services. The NASD and Nasdaq entered into a Separation and Common Services Agreement, dated as of January 1, 2002 (the "New Separation Agreement"), which replaced an interim Separation and Common Services Agreement executed in 2000 (the "Interim Agreement"). The services to be provided to Nasdaq by the NASD under the New Separation Agreement are limited to certain finance, technology infrastructure, facilities sharing and legal services, which are substantially more limited than what were previously provided by the NASD under the Interim Agreement. Under the New Separation Agreement, Nasdaq pays to the NASD the costs of the services provided, including any incidental expenses associated with such services. Nasdaq's costs for services provided by the NASD in 2003 were approximately $1.2 million compared to $5.1 million in 2002. Nasdaq anticipates that the annual costs for services under the New Separation Agreement will drop in future years as Nasdaq reviews the provision of these services and continues to internalize more of these services or seeks alternative third party providers.

On June 28, 2000, Nasdaq and NASD Regulation, Inc. ("NASDR"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the NASD, signed a Regulatory Services Agreement pursuant to which NASDR or its subsidiaries would provide regulatory services to Nasdaq and its subsidiaries commencing upon the effectiveness of Exchange Registration. As a result, no services have been performed under this agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the Regulatory Services Agreement, the services provided will be of the same type and scope as are currently provided by NASDR to Nasdaq under the Delegation Plan for a term of ten years. Each regulatory service is to be provided for a minimum of five years, after which time the parties may determine to terminate the provision by NASDR of a particular service. The termination of a particular service will generally be based upon a review of pricing and the need for such services. In 2003, Nasdaq paid NASDR $61.8 million for regulatory services provided pursuant to the Delegation Plan, versus $76.7 million in 2002. This reduction was due to careful review of NASDR's charges and the allocation of these charges among the markets it regulates. Nasdaq believes that ongoing review of these charges and the related services, especially with respect to the technology used to provide those services, may reduce these costs further in 2004 without affecting the quality of regulatory oversight. Nasdaq has approached the NASD about formalizing the services provided pursuant to the Delegation Plan in a new written contract to be effective until Exchange Registration.

Nasdaq pays the NASD and certain of its subsidiaries for the use of approximately 96,323 square feet of office space. Nasdaq pays approximately $4.7 million in the aggregate per year to the NASD for the use of this space. In addition, Nasdaq has agreed to lease an additional 31,034 square feet of office space beginning in 2004, for approximately $1.6 million in the aggregate per year.

In addition, during December 2002, Nasdaq purchased the NASD's 50.0% interest in the NASD Insurance Agency, LLC (subsequently renamed the Nasdaq Insurance Agency, LLC ("NIA")). Nasdaq's consideration for the NASD's 50.0% interest consisted of an upfront payment of $0.5 million and up to $5.1 million based on NIA's stream of contingent cash flows through 2011. Nasdaq will pay (a) 20% of NIA's contingent cash flows until Nasdaq has paid the NASD $2.3 million from such cash flows; (b) 10% of NIA's contingent cash flows until Nasdaq has paid the NASD a cumulative amount of $3.0 million from such cash flows; and (c) 5% of NIA's contingent cash flows until Nasdaq has paid the NASD the full cumulative amount of $5.1 million from such cash flows. Nasdaq accounts for its investment in NIA under the equity method of accounting. NIA provides insurance brokerage services and specializes in the director and officer liability insurance market.

Nasdaq and the NASD have entered into an Investor Rights Agreement, pursuant to which Nasdaq has granted the NASD certain registration rights with respect to the 1,338,402 outstanding shares of Series A Cumulative Preferred Stock ("Series A Stock") and the shares of Common Stock underlying the warrants issued by the NASD in two private placements of Common Stock in 2000 and 2001. In addition, under the Investors Rights Agreement, the NASD may direct, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Investor Rights Agreement, that Nasdaq allow NASD members to subscribe to purchase up to 10,295,403 shares of Common Stock in the event of an initial public offering for cash of the Common Stock (the "IPO").

The Delegation Plan requires that the NASD retain greater than 50% of the voting control over Nasdaq. The one outstanding share of Series B Stock issued to the NASD will ensure that the NASD maintains voting control until Exchange Registration. The voting power of the share of Series B Stock is recalculated for each matter presented to Holders as of the record date for the determination of the Holders entitled to vote on the matter. The NASD, as holder of the share of Series B Stock, will be entitled to cast the number of votes that, together with all other votes that the NASD is entitled to vote by virtue of ownership, proxies or voting trusts, enables the NASD to cast one vote more than one-half of all votes entitled to be cast by Holders. In addition, the shares of Common Stock underlying unexercised and unexpired warrants issued by the NASD as well as shares of Common Stock purchased through the valid exercise of warrants, will be voted by a trustee at the direction of the NASD until Exchange Registration. Shares of Series A Stock do not have voting rights, except for the right as a class to elect two new directors to the Board of Directors at any time distributions on the Series A Stock are in arrears for four consecutive quarters and as otherwise required by Delaware law. If Nasdaq obtains Exchange Registration, the share of Series B Stock will automatically lose its voting rights and will be redeemed by Nasdaq. Nasdaq may redeem the shares of Series A Stock at any time after Exchange Registration and is required to use the net proceeds from an IPO, and upon the occurrence of certain other events, to redeem all or a portion of the Series A Stock.

On February 6, 2002, Nasdaq, the NASD and Amex entered into a Technology Transition Agreement to provide for the sharing of certain administrative and regulatory technologies between Nasdaq and Amex and the provision of certain technology services by Nasdaq to Amex. This agreement replaces the existing technology arrangements among the parties that resulted from the NASD's acquisition of Amex in 1998. Depending upon the applicable service or technology, the term of the agreement ranges between three months and two years while Amex reconstructs these services and technologies in-house, with an option for Amex to extend the term for certain services for up to one year. Pursuant to this agreement, Amex will pay Nasdaq the direct costs of the services provided by Nasdaq, plus certain administrative costs. In addition, this agreement provides that Nasdaq and the NASD contribute to a fund, administered by the NASD, to pay the costs incurred in the implementation of this agreement. In 2002 and 2001, Nasdaq accrued $5.3 million and $9.2 million, respectively, under this commitment, fulfilling its commitment. As of December 31, 2003, $9.5 million has been paid to Amex. The remaining commitment is expected to be paid in 2004.

Edgar Filing: NASDAQ STOCK MARKET INC - Form DEF 14A

The parties also entered into a Master Agreement on February 6, 2002, as amended on December 9, 2002, to govern certain non-technology related matters among the parties. This agreement, among other things, sets forth the terms, as between Nasdaq and Amex, pursuant to which Amex continues to list and trade the QQQ. Under the agreement, Amex will pay annual license fees of between $4.5 million and $5.5 million to Nasdaq, subject to a "most favored nation" clause under which Amex pays at least as low a license fee as Nasdaq charges to any other licensed U.S. exchange.

Hellman & Friedman

On May 3, 2001, Nasdaq issued and sold $240 million in aggregate principal amount of its 4% Convertible Subordinated Notes due 2006 (previously defined as the "Voting Notes") to Hellman & Friedman. The Voting Notes are convertible at any time into an aggregate of 12,000,000 shares of Common Stock, subject to adjustment, in general, for any stock split, dividend, combination, recapitalization or other similar event. As of March 31, 2004, Hellman & Friedman owns approximately 15.9% of Nasdaq on an as-converted basis. At Nasdaq's 2002 Annual Meeting, Nasdaq's stockholders approved a proposal to amend Nasdaq's Certificate of Incorporation to grant holders of the Voting Notes with the right to vote with holders of Common Stock and Series B Stock on matters submitted to a vote of stockholders. As a result, the holder of a Voting Note is entitled to vote the number of votes equal to the number of shares of Common stock into which the Voting Note could be converted on the record date, subject to the 5% voting limitation contained in the Certificate of Incorporation. Nasdaq has also agreed that in the event that the Nasdaq Board approves an exemption from the foregoing 5% limitation for any person pursuant to the Certificate of Incorporation (other than an exemption granted in connection with a strategic market alliance) and seeks the concurrence of the SEC with respect thereto, Nasdaq will grant Hellman & Friedman a comparable exemption from such limitation and use its best efforts to obtain SEC concurrence with respect to such exemption. Nasdaq has granted Hellman & Friedman certain registration rights with respect to the shares of Common Stock underlying the Voting Notes. Additionally, Hellman & Friedman is permitted to designate one person reasonably acceptable to Nasdaq for nomination as a director of Nasdaq for so long as Hellman & Friedman owns Voting Notes and/or shares of Common Stock issued upon conversion representing at least 50% of the shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Voting Notes initially purchased. On March 4, 2004, Nasdaq elected Patrick Healy as a director of Nasdaq pursuant to the foregoing provision. Arthur Rock, a member of the Nasdaq Board, is an indirect limited partner of Hellman & Friedman.

Directors and Officers

In 2001, Nasdaq made a loan to David P. Warren, an executive officer, in the amount of $225,000, which has been evidenced by a promissory note executed on December 28, 2001. The loan was advanced in two stages, $125,000 on May 22, 2001 and $100,000 on August 14, 2001. This full recourse promissory note is unsecured and bears interest at a rate of 5.31% compounded annually. The full amount of the loan remained outstanding as of December 31, 2003. The outstanding principal together with unpaid interest on the promissory notes is due and payable on the earlier of (i) May 1, 2006, (ii) three business days after Mr. Warren's employment with Nasdaq is terminated by Nasdaq for cause or by Mr. Warren for any reason, other than his death or disability, (iii) 365 days following his death or disability, (iv) 90 days after his employment with Nasdaq is terminated by Nasdaq for any reason, other than on account of cause, death or disability and (v) an event of default with respect to Mr. Warren. The purpose of the loan was for the acquisition of Mr. Warren's principal residence upon relocation to the New York area.

In 2001, Nasdaq made a loan to another executive officer, Dean Furbush, in the amount of $350,000. This full recourse promissory note bore interest at the rate of 5.31% annually. Mr. Furbush repaid the outstanding balance of the loan, including accrued interest, in 2003 after termination of his employment with Nasdaq.

In connection with the Equity Plan, officers of Nasdaq received awards of options to purchase shares of Common Stock and/or restricted shares of Common Stock. Non-employee directors have the option to be awarded shares of restricted Common Stock under the Equity Plan. See "Director Compensation." In connection with the ESPP, employees (including employees who are directors) have the opportunity to purchase shares of Common Stock.

c/o The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. Office of the Corporate Secretary
One Liberty Plaza

Nasdaq's Corporate Secretary regularly forwards all correspondence to the addressees on the Nasdaq Board. STOCKHOLDERS SHARING THE SAME ADDRESS

Nasdaq has adopted a procedure called "householding," which has been approved by the SEC. Under this procedure, Nasdaq will deliver only one copy of its Annual Report to stockholders for fiscal 2004, which includes a copy of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, without exhibits (the "Annual Report"), and this Proxy Statement to multiple stockholders who share the same address (if they appear to be members of the same family) unless Nasdaq has received contrary instructions from an affected stockholder. Stockholders who participate in householding will continue to receive separate proxy cards. This procedure reduces Nasdaq's printing costs, mailing costs and fees and also supports the company's environmental goals.

The Annual Report (including exhibits to the Form 10-K) and this Proxy Statement are available at Nasdaq's web site at www.nasdaq.com/investorrelations/ir_home.stm under the link entitled "SEC Filings." Nasdaq will deliver promptly upon written or oral request a separate copy of the Annual Report and this Proxy Statement to any stockholder at a shared address to which a single copy of either of those documents was delivered. To receive a separate copy of the Annual Report or this Proxy Statement, stockholders should contact Nasdaq:

c/o Mellon Investor Services
85 Challenger Road
Ridgefield Park, NJ 07666

34

A copy of any or all exhibits to the Form 10-K will be furnished for a fee which will not exceed Nasdaq's reasonable expenses in furnishing the exhibits.

If you are a stockholder, share an address and last name with one or more other stockholders and would like to revoke your householding consent and receive a separate copy of Nasdaq's annual report or proxy statement in the future, please contact Nasdaq c/o Mellon Investor at the address above.

A number of brokerage firms have instituted householding. If you hold your shares in "street name," please contact your bank, broker or other holder of record to request information about householding.

The Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors in compliance with Article IV, Section 4.13(g) of the Nasdaq By-Laws and shall consist of four or five Directors, each of whom is independent of management. * Directors shall meet the standards for independence set forth in Section 10A(m) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), the rules promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and Nasdaq Stock Market Rule 4200(a), as amended. Industry and Non-Industry Directors are not disqualified from serving on the Committee solely because they are employees or officers of a member firm or listed company as long as the Board of Directors determines that such Directors are independent of management according to the standards set forth above.

Statement of Policy

The primary function of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by reviewing the financial information, which will be provided to the shareholders and others, the systems of internal controls, which management and the Board of Directors have established, and Nasdaq's audit, financial reporting and the legal and compliance process. In so doing, it is the responsibility of the Committee to maintain free and open communication with independent auditors, internal auditors, and Nasdaq's management. In discharging its oversight role, the Committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention with full access to all books, records, facilities, and personnel of Nasdaq and the power to retain independent counsel, or other experts, and funding sufficient for this purpose.

Responsibilities and Processes

The primary responsibility of the Committee is to oversee Nasdaq's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors and report the results of these activities to the Board. Management is responsible for preparing Nasdaq's financial statements, and the independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. The Committee in carrying out its responsibilities believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible, in order to best react to changing conditions and circumstances. The Committee should take the appropriate actions to set the overall corporate policy for quality financial reporting, sound business risk management practices, and ethical behavior.

The following shall be the principal recurring processes of the Committee in carrying out its responsibilities. The processes are set forth as a guide with the understanding that the Committee may supplement them as appropriate. The responsibilities and processes of the Committee shall be consistent with the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations adopted by the SEC.

1. The Committee shall have a clear understanding with management and the independent auditors that the independent auditors are ultimately accountable to the Board and the Audit Committee, as representatives of Nasdaq's shareholders. The Committee shall have the ultimate authority and responsibility to select, evaluate and, where appropriate, replace the independent auditors (or to nominate the independent auditors to be proposed for shareholder ratification in any proxy statement).

2. The Committee is responsible for ensuring its receipt from the independent auditors at least annually of a formal written statement delineating all relationships between the auditor and Nasdaq, consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard 1. The Committee shall actively engage in dialogue with the independent auditors with respect to any disclosed relationships or services that may impact the objectivity and independence of the auditor and for taking, or recommending that the full board take, appropriate action to oversee the independence of the independent auditor. The Committee shall prescribe what services are allowable by the independent auditors and approve in advance all services provided by the auditors (see Independent Public Auditor Services section). The Committee shall review all proposed Nasdaq hires formerly employed by the independent auditors.

3. The Committee shall discuss with the internal auditors and the independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits including the adequacy of staffing, compensation, and resources. Also, the Committee shall discuss with management, the internal auditors, and the independent auditors the adequacy and effectiveness of Nasdaq's internal controls, including Nasdaq's system to monitor and manage business risk, and legal and ethical compliance programs and financial reporting. Further, the Committee shall meet separately with the internal auditors and the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations. The internal auditors shall report directly to the Committee and have free and open access to information deemed necessary by them to perform their assessments. The Committee shall provide oversight over the system of internal controls, relying upon management's and the internal and independent auditors representations and assessments of the controls.

4. The Committee shall review the interim financial statements and earnings releases with management and the independent auditors prior to the filing of Nasdaq's quarterly report on Form 10-Q. Also, the Committee shall discuss the results of the quarterly review and any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards.

5. The Committee shall review with management and the independent auditors the financial statements to be included in Nasdaq's annual report on Form 10-K (or the annual report to shareholders if distributed prior to the filing of Form 10-K), including their judgment about the quality, not just acceptability, of accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements. Also, the Committee shall discuss the results of the annual audit, including the management letters, reports and attestations prepared by management and the independent auditors to comply with the Exchange Act and any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards and SEC rules.

6. The Committee shall review and approve all related party transactions consistent with the rules applied to companies listed on The Nasdaq National Market.

A-2

7. The Committee shall have responsibility for, and oversight of, a confidential and anonymous process and procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of submissions regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or audit matters. All such relevant submissions must be reported to the Committee.

Independent Public Auditor Services

The independent auditor is prohibited from performing any of the following services for Nasdaq:

bookkeeping or other services related to the accounting records or financial statements of the audit client;

financial information systems design and implementation;

appraisal or valuation services, fairness opinions, or contribution-in-kind reports;

actuarial services;

internal audit outsourcing services;

management or human resources functions;

broker or dealer, investment adviser, or investment banking services;

legal services and expert services unrelated to the audit; and any other service that the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board determines, by regulation, is impermissible.

All audit and allowable non-audit services must be approved in advance by the Committee. However, the Chairman of the Committee is delegated authority to approve in advance non-audit services by the independent auditor to support business development, consulting on accounting issues (subject to the prohibitions above) or tax consulting to the extent permitted by SEC rules, if such non-audit services do not exceed $100,000 in the aggregate between meetings of the Committee and the Committee is informed of such pre-approval by the Chairman at the Committee's next meeting.
