INFORMATION STATEMENT
PURSUANT TO SECTION 14(C)
OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
AND REGULATION 14C AND SCHEDULE 14C THEREUNDER

February 20, 2006

This Information Statement is being mailed on or about February 20, 2006 to the stockholders of record on February 1, 2006 (the "Record Date") of Endavo Media and Communications, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), in connection with the adoption of a forty-for-one reverse stock split of the Company's common stock, $.001 par value per share, outstanding as of February 1, 2006 (the "Reverse Stock Split"). The Reverse Stock Split was adopted pursuant to the written consent by the holder of a majority of the capital stock entitled to vote, dated as of February 1, 2006, and as reflected in the Company's books and records as of such date. This Information Statement is further directed to the approval of the Certificate of Amendment of our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Amendment") to effect the Reverse Stock Split. The actions to be taken pursuant to the written consent shall be made effective 20 days after the mailing of this Information Statement.

The board of directors of the Company approved the adoption of the Reverse Stock Split and Amendment by unanimous written consent dated as of February 1, 2006 as it believes that such actions are in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. The majority stockholder of the Company, which comprises 75.7% of the total issued and outstanding shares of the Company's capital stock entitled to vote on these matters approved the adoption of the Reverse Stock Split and the Amendment by written consent dated as of February 1, 2006. This Information Statement is furnished only to inform stockholders of the Company of the above actions taken by the majority stockholder of the Company before such action takes effect in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended from time to time (the "Exchange Act").

The elimination of the need for a special or annual meeting of stockholders to ratify or approve the Reverse Stock Split and Amendment is authorized by Section 228(a) of the DGCL, which provides that the written consent of stockholders holding at least a majority of the voting power may be substituted for such a special or annual meeting. In order to eliminate the costs and management time involved in holding a special or annual meeting and in order to effect or ratify the Reverse Stock Split and Amendment as early as possible in order to accomplish the purposes of the Company as hereafter described, the board of directors of the Company voted to utilize the written consent of stockholders holding a majority of the voting power of the Company.

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY

OUTSTANDING SHARES AND VOTING RIGHTS

holder to one vote on each matter submitted to the stockholders. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock entitles its holder to 9.6 votes (due to 9.6-to-1 conversion ratio) on each matter submitted to the stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, because a consenting stockholder holding at least a majority of the voting rights of all outstanding shares of capital stock has voted in favor of the foregoing proposals by resolution dated February 1, 2006 and has sufficient voting power to approve such proposals through its ownership of capital stock, no other stockholder consents will be solicited in connection with this Information Statement.

REVERSE STOCK SPLIT AND AMENDMENT

General

The board of directors has adopted, and the majority stockholder of the Company has approved, pursuant to the written consent dated as of February 1, 2006, a Reverse Stock Split and Amendment.

The board of directors of the Company approved the adoption of the Reverse Stock Split and Amendment by unanimous written consent as it believes the corporate actions are in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

Vote Required

Adoption of the Reverse Stock Split and Amendment requires approval by holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock who are present, or represented, and entitled to vote thereon, at a special or annual meeting of stockholders. Section 228(a) of the DGCL provides that the written consent of stockholders holding at least a majority of the voting power may be substituted for such a special or annual meeting.

Our board of directors fixed the close of business on February 1, 2006 as the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to notice of the above noted action.

One consenting stockholder, SovCap Equity Partners, Ltd. (the "Consenting Stockholder"), holds a total of 1,410,800 shares of our common stock and 3,581,585 shares of our Series A Preferred Stock, which votes together with the common stock on an as-if converted basis. For purposes of voting, each share of Series A Preferred Stock is convertible into 9.6 shares of our common stock. Accordingly, the Consenting Stockholder has the right to vote an aggregate of 35,794,016 shares of our common stock. This equals 75.7% of the total voting power entitled to vote on the foregoing resolutions as of the Record Date. The Consenting Stockholder voted in favor of the corporate actions and possessed the power to pass the corporate actions without the concurrence of any of our other stockholders.

Distribution and Costs

We will pay all costs associated with the distribution of this information statement, including the costs of printing and mailing. In addition, we will only deliver one information statement to multiple stockholders sharing an address, unless we have received contrary instructions from one or more of the stockholders. Also, we will promptly deliver a separate copy of this information statement and future stockholder communication documents to any stockholder at a shared address to which a single copy of this information statement was delivered, or deliver a single copy of this information statement and future stockholder communication documents to any stockholder or stockholders sharing an address to which multiple copies are now delivered, upon written request to us at our address noted above.

Stockholders may also address future requests regarding delivery of information statements and/or annual reports by contacting us at the address noted above.

Edgar Filing: Endavo Media & Communications, Inc. - Form PRE 14C

Dissenters' Right of Appraisal

No action will be taken in connection with the proposed corporate actions by our board of directors or the voting stockholders for which the DGCL, our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation or the Company's bylaws provide a right of a stockholder to dissent and obtain appraisal of or payment for such stockholder's shares.

Effect of The Reverse Stock Split

The Reverse Stock Split would not effect the registration of our common stock under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, nor will it change our periodic reporting and other obligations thereunder.

The number of stockholders of record would not be effected by the Reverse Stock Split. The authorized number of shares of our common stock and the par value of our common stock under our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation would remain the same following the effective time of the Reverse Stock Split.

The number of shares of our common stock issued and outstanding as of February 1, 2006 would be reduced following the effective date of the Reverse Stock Split in accordance with the following formula: every sixteen shares of our common stock owned by a stockholder will automatically be changed into and become one new share of our common stock. Any shares issued and outstanding after February 1, 2006 would be unaffected. Our Series A Preferred Stock contains a provision that prevents the adjustment of the conversion ratio in the event of a reverse stock split or combination. Accordingly, the conversion ratio of the Series A Preferred Stock will remain unaffected by the Reverse Stock Split and, as of February 1, 2006, each outstanding share of Series A Preferred Stock will continue to be convertible into 9.6 shares of our common stock.

As described below, all fractional share amounts resulting from the Reverse Stock Split will be rounded up to the nearest whole share in lieu of issuing any fractional share.

We currently have no intention of going private, and this proposed Reverse Stock Split is not intended to be a first step in a going private transaction and will not have the effect of a going private transaction covered by Rule 13e-3 of the Exchange Act. Moreover, the Reverse Stock Split does not increase the risk of us becoming a private company in the future. We will continue to be subject to the periodic reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 following the Reverse Stock Split of our common stock.

The number of authorized but unissued shares of our common stock effectively will be increased significantly by the Reverse Stock Split of our common stock. The Reverse Stock Split will have the effect of decreasing the number of our outstanding shares of our common stock.

The issuance in the future of such additional authorized shares may have the effect of diluting the earnings per share and book value per share, as well as the stock ownership and voting rights, of the currently outstanding shares of our common stock.

The effective increase in the number of authorized but unissued shares of our common stock may be construed as having an anti-takeover effect by permitting the issuance of shares to purchasers who might oppose a hostile takeover bid or oppose any efforts to amend or repeal certain provisions of our articles of incorporation or bylaws. Such a use of these additional authorized shares could render more difficult, or discourage, an attempt to acquire control of the Company through a transaction opposed by our board of directors. At this time, our board of directors does not have plans to issue any common shares resulting from the effective increase in our authorized but unissued shares generated by the Reverse Stock Split.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

We will not recognize any gain or loss as a result of the Reverse Stock Split.

The following description of the material federal income tax consequences of the Reverse Stock Split to our stockholders is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applicable Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial authority and current administrative rulings and practices as in effect on the date of this information statement. Changes to the laws could alter the tax consequences described below, possibly with retroactive effect. We have not sought and will not seek an opinion of counsel or a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service regarding the federal income tax consequences of the Reverse Stock Split. This discussion is for general information only and does not discuss the tax consequences that may apply to special classes of taxpayers (e.g., non-residents of the United States, broker/dealers or insurance companies). The state and local tax consequences of the Reverse Stock Split may vary significantly as to each stockholder, depending upon the jurisdiction in which such stockholder resides. You are urged to consult your own tax advisors to determine the particular consequences to you.

We believe that the likely federal income tax effects of the Reverse Stock Split will be that a stockholder who receives a reduced number of shares of our common stock will not recognize gain or loss. With respect to a Reverse Stock Split, such a stockholder's basis in the reduced number of shares of our common stock will equal the stockholder's basis in its old shares of our common stock. The holding period of the post-effective Reverse Stock Split shares received will include the holding period of the pre-effective Reverse Stock Split shares exchanged.

Effective Date

The Reverse Stock Split will become effective as of 5:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on the date we file the Amendment with the Delaware Secretary of State, however, the Reverse Stock Split will only effect those shares of our common stock outstanding as of February 1, 2006. Effectively, this makes the effective date February 1, 2006. Accordingly, except for stockholders who currently hold fewer than sixteen shares, on such date, all shares of our common stock that were issued and outstanding immediately on February 1, 2006 will be, automatically and without any action on the part of the stockholders, converted into new shares of our common stock in accordance with the sixteen-for-one exchange ratio.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The Company has received no indication from any of its directors or non-employee directors of any intent to oppose any action to be taken by the Company. There have been no proposals for action submitted to the Company by any stockholders other than the proposal, which is the subject of this Information Statement.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

Paul D. Hamm, President and Chief Executive Officer
February 10, 2006
