ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS.

As disclosed by Monster Worldwide, Inc. (the Company) in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed on December 10, 2004 (the Prior 8-K), in order to sharpen its focus on its Monster division business, the Company has been reassessing the ability of its continental European Advertising & Communications businesses to help maximize the Monster division's profitability. In connection therewith and as disclosed in the Prior 8-K, the Company previously transferred to its former local management the Company's French Advertising & Communications business and entered into an agreement to transfer to its local management the Company's Netherlands Advertising & Communications business. The Netherlands transaction closed on December 13, 2004. In addition, today the Company has transferred to its respective local management its German and its Belgian Advertising & Communications businesses. None of these transfers is material or includes significant assets. It is anticipated that there will be no disruption of client services.

(All other items on this report are inapplicable.)
