Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

On December 27, 2006, Regal Entertainment Group (the Company) issued an aggregate of 50,000,000 shares of Class A common stock of the Company, to Anschutz Company (Anschutz) upon the conversion by Anschutz of an equal number of shares of Class B common stock of the Company. The shares of Class A common stock issued by the Company upon the conversion are exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to Section 3(a)(9) thereof.

Shares of Class B common stock may be converted at any time into shares of Class A common stock on a one-for-one basis by the holder and are automatically converted into shares of Class A common stock on a one-for-one basis upon a transfer that is not a Permitted Transfer. Each holder of Class A common stock is entitled to one vote for each outstanding share of Class A common stock and each holder of Class B common stock is entitled to ten votes for each outstanding share of Class B common stock. Other than the number of votes per share, Class A and Class B common stock have identical material terms and provisions.

Anschutz has advised the Company that Anschutz has elected to convert the shares of Class B common stock of the Company into shares of Class A common stock of the Company in order to cause Anschutz's voting interest in the Company to drop below 80% so that the Company and its subsidiaries will not be members of the Anschutz controlled group for Anschutz employee benefit plan purposes, which would have otherwise commenced January 1, 2007.
