AMCOR ANNOUNCES CONVERSION OF $210 MILLION NOTE ISSUE

Amcor announces today that the $210 million PACRS2 convertible notes will be converted to equity on 30 April 2007. Prior to conversion, Amcor also intends to offer to repurchase PACRS2 notes off-market to provide holders with a cash alternative to receiving ordinary shares.

Amcor's Managing Director and CEO, Ken MacKenzie, said "The PACRS2 convertible notes are now a less attractive source of funding compared to other alternatives. This initiative will result in a simpler, more flexible and efficient capital structure."

PACRS2 are the Perpetual Amcor Convertible Reset Securities issued by Amcor Investments (New Zealand) Limited (AINZL) in May 2002. PACRS2 have a Reset Date of 30 April 2007.

The number of Amcor shares to be issued on the conversion of any remaining PACRS2 will be determined in accordance with the terms of issue and will depend on the average share price during the conversion pricing period ending in late April. Based on the share price prevailing at the time of this announcement, the PACRS2 notes would convert to approximately 30 million shares in Amcor Limited. However, the number of shares actually arising from the conversion will be reduced to the extent holders of PACRS2 accept the repurchase offer from AINZL.

These initiatives are part of an ongoing capital management program by the Amcor Group. Amcor is also presently implementing an on-market share buy-back program announced on 6 July 2006, and will at a later time consider acquiring, subject to market conditions and Amcor's capital requirements at the time, some or all of the ordinary shares issued on conversion of the PACRS2 notes which are not repurchased under the PACRS2 repurchase offer.

The offer price for the repurchase of PACRS2 notes will be $105.2632 per note. This offer price reflects the value of the conversion terms. Settlement of the repurchase is scheduled for 30 April 2007, and holders accepting the repurchase offer will also receive the full amount of interest of $4.2498 per note for the final interest period up to and including 29 April 2007.

A booklet explaining the terms and conditions of the PACRS2 repurchase offer is scheduled to be sent to entitled holders by 28 February 2007.

For further details of the PACRS2 conversion and repurchase program, see today's announcement from AINZL (attached).
