PRESS RELEASE

ARCADIS WINS DEVELOPMENT CONTRACT WORTH MILLIONS

ARNHEM, THE NETHERLANDS January 30, 2008 ARCADIS (EURONEXT: ARCAD), the international consulting, design and engineering company, today announced that it has been assigned a contract for the design and construction of the next phase for the housing development Oostindie in Leek in the Dutch province of Groningen. The housing development will be almost 150 acres in size with two neighborhood parks and a center park. The project has a value of EUR 13.5 million and will be completed by 2012. The contracts were signed on January 25, 2008.

The green areas that will be developed will consist of a large park adjacent to the neighborhood, a green zone around the entire development and a green area in the center that will also include a pond. After the completion of phase 2 of this development, ARCADIS will manage the quality of the public space for a period of five years.

This contract is an excellent example of the integrated way in which ARCADIS looks at neighborhood development, says Douwe Kras, director for the Dutch ARCADIS activities. The value of houses and enjoyment of people are strongly influenced by the quality of the environment. Neighborhoods in which buildings, green amenities and recreational facilities are well arranged, simply provide more comfort. If in addition, this gives residents a safer feeling, that really provides added value. Not only is this beneficial for the people living there, it is also good for the owners of the properties, such as housing corporations.

ARCADIS is an international company providing consultancy, design and engineering and management services in infrastructure, environment and facilities, to enhance mobility, sustainability and quality of life. ARCADIS develops, designs, implements, maintains and operates projects for companies and governments. With more than 12,000 employees and $2 billion in gross revenue, the company has an extensive international network that is supported by strong local market positions.
