Mr. Loof will also reinforce comments from the Company's last earnings call (available at <http://www.kemet.com/ir>) that gross margins are projected to remain under pressure in the Tantalum business unit, causing consolidated gross margins to soften (using the March 2011 quarter as a reference point) and that the distribution channel is expected to continue to correct its excess inventory position. The Company will provide guidance for the December quarter during its second quarter earnings call on October 27, 2011.
