Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On June 18, 2015, Capstone Turbine Corporation (the Company) received approval from the Nasdaq Stock Market (Nasdaq) to transfer the listing of the Company's common stock from the Nasdaq Global Market to the Nasdaq Capital Market. This transfer will be effective at the opening of business on Monday, June 22, 2015. The Company's common stock will continue to trade under the symbol CPST. The Nasdaq Capital Market is a continuous trading market that operates in substantially the same manner as the Nasdaq Global Market and requires listed companies to meet certain financial requirements and comply with Nasdaq's corporate governance requirements.

As previously reported, the Company was notified by Nasdaq on December 19, 2014 that it no longer satisfied the minimum bid price requirement of $1.00 per share for continued listing as set forth in Nasdaq Listing Rule 5450(a)(1). In anticipation of not meeting the minimum bid price requirement by June 17, 2015, the end of its initial 180-day grace period, the Company had previously applied to transfer the listing of its stock to the Nasdaq Capital Market. Upon transfer to the Nasdaq Capital Market, the Company is being afforded an additional 180-day grace period to regain compliance with Nasdaq's minimum bid price requirement. In order to regain compliance, the minimum bid price per share of the Company's common stock must be at least $1.00 for at least ten consecutive business days during the second 180-day grace period, which will end on December 14, 2015. If the Company fails to regain compliance during this grace period, the Company's common stock will be subject to delisting by Nasdaq. The Company has provided written notice of its intention to cure the minimum bid price deficiency during the second grace period by effecting a reverse stock split if necessary. The Company intends to request stockholder approval of a reverse stock split at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders, to be held on August 27, 2015.
