The following disclosures were included in a Current Report filed on Form 8-K dated June 8, 2016.

Transaction Litigation

As previously disclosed, on February 9, 2016, ITC Holdings Corp ( ITC ) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (as amended or modified from time to time, the Merger Agreement ) with Fortis Inc. ( Ultimate Parent ), FortisUS Inc. ( Parent ) and Element Acquisition Sub Inc. ( Merger Sub ), pursuant to which, upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into ITC (the Merger ), with ITC continuing as the surviving corporation and a subsidiary of Parent.

As previously disclosed in ITC s definitive proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC ) on May 16, 2016 (as amended or supplemented from time to time, the proxy statement/prospectus ), purported shareholders of ITC have initiated legal actions challenging the Merger.

As previously disclosed in ITC s Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on May 20, 2016, plaintiffs and defendants in three of the four such purported shareholder actions the Guerra, Mehrotra, and Severance actions have reached an agreement in principle to settle the actions and release the defendants from all claims relating to the Merger, subject to approval of the court.

On March 4, 2016, an action captioned Alan Poland v. Fortis Inc., et al., No. 2016-151852-CB was filed in the Oakland County Circuit Court of the State of Michigan (the Poland Action ). The complaint names as defendants a combination of ITC and the individual members of the ITC board of directors, Fortis, FortisUS and Merger Sub. The complaint generally alleges, among other things, that (i) ITC s directors breached their fiduciary duties in connection with the Merger Agreement (including, but not limited to, various alleged breaches of duties of good faith, loyalty, care and independence), (ii) ITC s directors failed to take appropriate steps to maximize shareholder value and claims that the Merger Agreement contains several deal protection provisions that are unnecessarily preclusive and (iii) a combination of Fortis, FortisUS and Merger Sub aided and abetted the purported breaches of fiduciary duties. The complaints seek class action certification and a variety of relief including, among other things, enjoining defendants from completing the proposed Merger, unspecified rescissory and compensatory damages, and costs, including attorneys fees and expenses. On March 23, 2016, the state court entered an order directing that related cases be consolidated with the Poland Action under the caption In re ITC Holdings Corporation Shareholder Litigation. On April 8, 2016, the plaintiff filed an amended complaint adding Merger Sub and FortisUS as defendants and naming ITC as nominal defendant. The amended complaint asserts the same general allegations and seeks the same types of relief as in the original complaint, but also alleges that the proxy statement/prospectus is allegedly materially misleading and allegedly omits material facts that are necessary to render it non-misleading and also purports to assert claims derivatively on behalf of ITC. On May 24, 2016, plaintiff filed a motion for a preliminary injunction.

ITC believes that no further disclosure is required to supplement the definitive proxy statement/prospectus under applicable laws; however, to avoid the risk that the Poland Action may delay or otherwise adversely affect the consummation of the proposed Merger and to minimize the expense of defending such action, ITC wishes to voluntarily make supplemental disclosures related to the proposed Merger, which are set forth below, in response to certain of the allegations. Nothing in these supplemental disclosures shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable laws of any of the disclosures set forth herein.

ITC and the other named defendants have vigorously denied, and continue to vigorously deny, that they have committed any violation of law or engaged in any of the wrongful acts that were alleged in the Poland Action.

Supplemental Disclosure

The supplemental disclosure set forth in this Current Report on Form 8-K below should be read alongside the proxy statement/prospectus, and to the extent that information in this Current Report on Form 8-K differs from or updates information contained in the proxy statement/prospectus, this Current Report on Form 8-K supersedes the information contained in the proxy statement/prospectus. Defined terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings set forth in the proxy statement/prospectus.

1. The section of the proxy statement/prospectus titled PROPOSAL 1: THE MERGER Background of the Merger is hereby supplemented as follows:

A. The following disclosure is added following the first sentence in the fifth full paragraph on page 60 (which paragraph begins On January 5, 2016, Fortis submitted a markup of a draft of the merger agreement ) of the proxy statement/prospectus:

The Fortis mark-up generally accepted the merger consideration provisions contained in the initial draft of the merger agreement provided by ITC on December 9, 2015, including that ITC's outstanding options, restricted stock and performance shares would generally vest and be converted into the right to receive cash in connection with the proposed transaction. Further, the mark-up generally reflected and was consistent with Fortis' practice of relying on the experience of existing management and other key personnel to manage and operate acquired businesses, generally retained the structure of the employee arrangements originally proposed by ITC, and included a provision reflecting that the Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation shall be comprised initially of not more than seven (7) directors, including the chief executive officer of the Surviving Corporation.

B. The following disclosure is added following the last sentence of the fifth full paragraph on page 63 (which paragraph begins On February 3, 2016, Fortis delivered to ITC a revised proposal ) of the proxy statement/prospectus:

The revised draft included revisions to reflect the proposed cash and stock consideration for ITC common shares but did not modify the all-cash treatment of ITC's outstanding options, restricted stock and performance awards contained in the initial mark-up of the merger agreement received from Fortis on January 5, 2016.

C. The following disclosure is added at the end of fifth full paragraph on page 64 (which paragraph begins In the evening of February 7, 2016, Messrs. Welch and Perry ) of the proxy statement/prospectus:

In addition, Messrs. Welch and Perry also discussed restricting ITC and its subsidiaries from, without the prior written consent of FortisUS, terminating employees occupying certain levels of management.
