Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 16, 2016, Adaptimmune Therapeutics plc (the Company) and Bellicum Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (Bellicum) entered into a Co-Development and Co-Commercialisation Agreement (the Agreement) in order to facilitate a staged collaboration to evaluate, develop and commercialize next generation T-cell therapies.

Under the Agreement, the parties agreed to evaluate Bellicum's GoTCR technology (inducible MyD88/CD40 co-stimulation, or iMC) with the Company's affinity-optimized SPEAR® T-cells for the potential to create enhanced TCR product candidates. Depending on results from the preclinical proof-of-concept phase, the parties expect to progress to a two-target co-development and co-commercialization phase. To the extent necessary, and in furtherance of the parties' proof-of-concept and co-development efforts, the parties granted each other a royalty-free, non-transferable, non-exclusive license covering their respective technologies for purposes of facilitating such proof-of-concept and co-development efforts. In addition, as to covered therapies developed under the agreement, the parties granted each other a reciprocal exclusive license for the commercialization of such therapies.

With respect to any joint commercialization of a covered therapy, the parties agreed to negotiate in good faith the commercially reasonable terms of a co-commercialization agreement. The parties also agreed that any such agreement shall provide for, among other things, equal sharing of the costs of any such joint commercialization and the calculation of profit shares as set forth in the Agreement.

The Agreement will expire on a country-by-country basis once the parties cease commercialization of the T-cell therapies covered by the Agreement, unless earlier terminated by either party for material breach, non-performance or cessation of development, bankruptcy/insolvency, or failure to progress to co-development phase.

The description of the Agreement contained herein does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Agreement, including the exhibits thereto, a copy of which will be filed as an exhibit to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016.
