Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

AAR CORP. (the Company) is updating its earnings guidance for the fourth quarter of its fiscal year ending May 31, 2018 (Fiscal 2018) and reaffirming its earnings guidance for the full fiscal year beginning June 1, 2018 and ending May 31, 2019 (Fiscal 2019).

Fiscal 2018 Fourth Quarter Guidance

The Company previously stated at its January 11, 2018 Investor Day and during its March 20, 2018 third quarter earnings conference call that it expected Fiscal 2018 fourth quarter earnings to be an improvement over third quarter earnings. Due to a slower than anticipated ramp-up of the U.S. Department of State's INL/A Worldwide Aviation Support Services (WASS) program, the Company does not expect that the WASS program will be a significant contributor to Fiscal 2018 fourth quarter earnings. As a result, the Company now expects that Fiscal 2018 fourth quarter results for continuing operations will be similar to or a slight improvement over its third quarter results.

As previously disclosed, the Company's subsidiary, AAR Airlift Group, Inc. commenced performance under the WASS program contract on November 1, 2017, following a series of unsuccessful administrative and judicial protests by the incumbent contractor. Since that date, AAR Airlift has worked cooperatively with the U.S. Department of State to transition the WASS program, and the program is now fully operational at Patrick Air Force Base and support locations in Brevard County, Florida and in the country of Panama. As a result of administrative delays, the transition of operations at the remaining sites in Afghanistan, Iraq and Peru is now expected to be completed by the end of June 2018, at which time the WASS program will be operating at a full run rate.

Fiscal 2019 Guidance

The slower ramp-up of the INL/A WASS program is not expected to affect the Company's Fiscal 2019 results. The Company is reaffirming Fiscal 2019 guidance of sales in the range of $2.1 to $2.2 billion and diluted earnings per share from continuing operations in the range of $2.50 to $2.80.
