On December 10, 2018, Penn National Gaming, Inc. (the Company) entered into an executive agreement (the Executive Agreement) with Carl Sottosanti, the Company's Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary. The Executive Agreement is effective as of December 13, 2018, the date the prior executive agreement with Mr. Sottosanti expired by its terms.

Mr. Sottosanti's Executive Agreement has a term of three years, unless earlier terminated. In the event Mr. Sottosanti's employment is terminated without cause (as defined in the Executive Agreement) or by non-renewal of the Executive Agreement at the end of the term, Mr. Sottosanti will be entitled to severance payments equal to (i) 18 months of his annual base salary as of such date, paid in accordance with the Company's regular payroll procedures, and (ii) 1.5 times the average of the last two full years' bonuses paid to Mr. Sottosanti based on the actual performance of the Company, paid at the time such next bonuses are paid to similarly situated executives after the termination date.

If, within 12 months after a change in control (as defined in the Executive Agreement), Mr. Sottosanti is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason (as defined in the Executive Agreement), he will be entitled to receive a cash payment equal to two times the sum of (i) his annual base salary and (ii) the amount of his targeted bonus compensation, each at the rate in effect at the time of the change of control or the termination date, whichever is greater. To the extent that Mr. Sottosanti receives a change in control payment, he will not be eligible to receive any additional cash severance in the event of a termination of employment during the employment term. Prior to receipt of any severance payment, Mr. Sottosanti must execute a general release in favor of the Company and its affiliates.

The Executive Agreement also contains customary confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation provisions. Mr. Sottosanti has agreed not to solicit or hire an executive or management level employee of the Company for a period of 18 months following termination.
