SEC and DOJ Investigations

On December 15, 2004, Time Warner Inc. (the "Company" or "Time Warner") issued a press release announcing certain developments in the investigations that the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the U.S. Department of Justice ("DOJ") have been conducting into the Company's accounting and disclosure practices, principally involving the Company's America Online business segment. In the press release, the Company announced that it and its subsidiary, America Online, Inc. ("AOL"), have reached a definitive agreement with the DOJ that resolves the DOJ's investigation of the Company. Time Warner also announced that it has proposed a settlement to the staff of the SEC that the staff has agreed, subject to agreement on appropriate documentation, to recommend to the SEC Commissioners. A copy of the press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.

DOJ Settlement

In connection with the settlement with the DOJ, AOL has entered into a Deferred Prosecution Agreement with the DOJ, pursuant to which the DOJ will file a criminal complaint against AOL in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia (the "District Court") for the conduct of certain employees in connection with securities fraud by PurchasePro.com, but will defer prosecution of AOL. If AOL fulfills its obligations under the Deferred Prosecution Agreement, the DOJ will dismiss the criminal complaint filed against AOL in two years. The Deferred Prosecution Agreement also provides that AOL will not be prosecuted for conduct relating to certain transactions entered into from July 1, 1999, including transactions that were the subject of the DOJ or SEC investigations. Pursuant to a separate letter agreement between Time Warner and the DOJ, the DOJ has agreed not to prosecute Time Warner for the PurchasePro.com transactions or the other transactions covered by the Deferred Prosecution Agreement. The obligations of AOL and the Company are set forth in the Deferred Prosecution Agreement and the separate letter agreement, respectively, and are summarized in the press release.

A copy of the Deferred Prosecution Agreement in the form filed with the District Court is filed as Exhibit 99.2 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the Letter Agreement between Time Warner and the DOJ is filed as Exhibit 99.3 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.

Proposed SEC Settlement

As reported in the press release, the Company has proposed a settlement to the staff of the SEC that the staff has agreed to recommend to the SEC Commissioners. The material terms of the proposed settlement are set forth in the press release, which is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report, and which is incorporated herein by reference. The settlement is subject to both agreement on appropriate documentation with the staff of the SEC and approval of the settlement by the SEC Commissioners.

The Company's chief financial officer, controller and deputy controller have also proposed settlements to the SEC staff that the staff has agreed to recommend to the SEC Commissioners. The proposed settlements relate to the Company's accounting and disclosure of its transactions with Bertelsmann, A.G. Under these proposed settlements, the three officers would, without admitting or denying the allegations, agree to the entry of an administrative order that they cease and desist from any violations of certain reporting provisions of the securities laws. The proposed settlements would not result in any suspension, bar or penalties being imposed on the individuals, who will continue to work for the Company in their current capacities.
