Peace Arch Subsidiary, The Eyes, Completes Principal Photography on Second Season of Award-Winning Campus Vets TV Series

TORONTO, ONT. - Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. (AMEX and TSX: PAE), a diversified Canadian entertainment company, today announced the completion of principal photography on season two of its award-winning animal series, Campus Vets. The show airs Thursday nights at 9:00 p.m. EST on Life Network in Canada and is distributed internationally by The Eyes Project Development Corp. (The Eyes) which maintains all worldwide broadcast rights to the series.

Campus Vets remains very popular with viewers across Canada and we have found more, very compelling stories for our second season, stated Blair Reekie, President of The Eyes. The state-of-the-art facilities of the Western College of Veterinary Medicine played a central role this season, giving viewers a unique, behind-the-scenes glimpse into the lives of veterinary students.

"We are very excited about the debut of the second season of Campus Vets," said Dr. Charles S. Rhodes, Dean, Western College of Veterinary Medicine. "The series provides an excellent opportunity to showcase to the public the educational program for veterinarians and the varied roles veterinarians play in society. Our feedback from viewers has been tremendous. I think the audience relates to the students and their very rigorous and diverse educational program, and, of course they also very much relate to the animals and their owners featured in the program."

Episodes document the real-life situations faced by the WCVM veterinary students as they pursue the demanding careers of saving injured and sick animals. From the working ranch to the adrenalin of a high-tech ER, Campus Vets captures moments when animals, owners and veterinarians are bound together in a desperate race against time.
