Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definite Agreement

On May 24, 2005, Public Company Management Corporation (the "Registrant") announced via press release that its subsidiary, GoPublicToday.com ("GPT"), signed a contract with FLC Properties, Inc. ("FLC"). Under the contract, GPT will assist FLC in becoming a publicly traded company on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board market ("OTCBB") through a registration for resale of securities owned by certain FLC founders. The press release announcing this event is filed herewith as exhibit 99.

The Registrant's subsidiary, GPT, signed the consulting contract with FLC on May 19, 2005. In exchange for securities registration services, GPT will receive cash and securities issued by FLC as compensation.

FLC Properties competes in the commercial real estate industry. Launched in March 2004, FLC currently owns and manages a 90,000-square-foot shopping center located in North Richland Hills, Texas, a suburb of Fort Worth. The center is 90 percent occupied by a variety of retail tenants.

FLC intends to raise capital to acquire additional properties; construct new properties in the United States and overseas; and to develop an online resource center for individuals interested in real estate investing, management and construction.
