The Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2005 could not be completed in time because the Company is continuing to evaluate the accounting for the warrants issued in the first quarter of 2005 and expects to file within the five-day extension period. Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form NT 10-Q

Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for (3) the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?
[X] Yes [] No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company anticipates that the accounting for warrants in the first quarter of 2005 will not result in any significant change in its results of operations when compared to the corresponding period of the preceding year. However, significant changes from the current year when compared to the prior year will be reflected in the results of operations from the sale of the Company's video division in May 2004 which results in a reclassification in the Company's Statement of Operations for the three month period ended March 31, 2004 for the discontinued operations of the video division. Reclassifications for the period ended March 31, 2004 include net revenues of $1.1 million, cost of goods sold and expenses of approximately $2.5 million for a total loss from discontinued operations of approximately $1.4 million. There were no discontinued operations for the corresponding period in 2005.
