PROXY STATEMENT
IN CONNECTION WITH ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON DECEMBER 28, 2005.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THEGLOBE.COM, INC. ("THEGLOBE", "WE" OR "US") IS SOLICITING PROXIES TO BE VOTED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS (THE "ANNUAL MEETING") TO BE HELD AT THEGLOBE'S CORPORATE HEADQUARTERS LOCATED AT 110 EAST BROWARD BOULEVARD, SUITE 1100, FORT LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA ON WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 28, 2005 AT 10:00 A.M. AND AT ANY ADJOURNMENT OR POSTPONEMENT.

This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy are first being sent to stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting on or about November 21, 2005. theglobe.com's principal executive offices are located at 110 East Broward Boulevard, Suite 1400, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301, telephone number (954) 769-5900.

VOTING RIGHTS AND SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

PURPOSE OF THE ANNUAL MEETING

As summarized in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the purpose of the annual meeting is to elect the Board of Directors for the coming year (see Proposal No. 1 in this proxy statement for further details) and to transact any other business that may properly come before the Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

RECORD DATE AND SHARES OUTSTANDING

Stockholders of record who owned common stock at the close of business on November 4, 2005 (the "Record Date") are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. At the Record Date, 173,146,807 shares of common stock were issued and outstanding. The average of the bid and asked price of our common stock on the OTC Bulletin Board on the Record Date was $0.40 per share.

REVOCABILITY AND VOTING OF PROXIES

Any person signing a proxy in the form accompanying this proxy statement has the power to revoke it prior to the Annual Meeting or at the Annual Meeting prior to the vote pursuant to the proxy. A proxy may be revoked by any of the following methods:

- by writing a letter delivered to Robin S. Lebowitz, Corporate Secretary of theglobe, stating that the proxy is revoked;
- by submitting another proxy with a later date; or
- by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Please note, however, that if a stockholder's shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee and that stockholder wishes to vote at the Annual Meeting, the stockholder must bring to the Annual Meeting a letter from the broker, bank or other nominee confirming that stockholder's beneficial ownership of the shares. Shares of common stock represented by properly executed proxies will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the instructions indicated on the proxies, unless the proxies have been revoked.

Unless we receive specific instructions to the contrary, properly executed proxies will be voted: (i) FOR the election of each of theglobe's nominees as a director (Proposal No. 1) and (ii) FOR any other matters that may come before the Annual Meeting, at the discretion of the proxy holders. theglobe does not presently anticipate any other business will be presented for vote at the Annual Meeting.

LIST OF STOCKHOLDERS

A list of stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will be available at the Annual Meeting and for ten days prior to the Annual Meeting during regular business hours at our offices located at 110 East Broward Boulevard, Suite 1400, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, by contacting Robin S. Lebowitz, Corporate Secretary of theglobe.

VOTING AT THE ANNUAL MEETING

Each share of common stock outstanding on the Record Date will be entitled to one (1) vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the stockholders, including the election of directors.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Abstentions and broker "non-votes" are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. A broker "non-vote" occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power for that particular item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

A plurality of the votes cast by the holders of common stock is required for the election of Directors (Proposal No. 1). Abstentions and broker "non-votes" are not counted for purposes of Proposal No. 1.

SOLICITATION

We will pay the costs relating to this proxy statement, the proxy and the Annual Meeting. We may reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their expenses in forwarding solicitation material to beneficial owners. Directors, officers and regular employees may also solicit proxies. They will not receive any additional compensation for the solicitation.

BOARD MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD

Including unanimous written actions of the Board, the Board of Directors met 24 times in 2004. No incumbent director who was on the Board for the entire year attended less than 75% of the total number of all meetings of the Board and any committees of the Board on which he or she served, if any, during 2004.

The Board of Directors has a standing Audit and Compensation Committee but no standing Nominating Committee.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee, which was formed in July 1998, reviews, acts on and reports to the Board of Directors with respect to various auditing and accounting matters, including the selection of our independent auditors, the scope of the annual audits, fees to be paid to the auditors, the performance of our auditors and our accounting practices and internal controls. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written charter, as amended, adopted by the Board of Directors on June 12, 2000. The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Egan and Cespedes and Ms. Lebowitz, all of whom are employee directors. None of the current committee members are considered "independent" within the meaning of applicable NASD rules. Ms. Lebowitz serves as the "audit committee financial expert" as required by Section 407 of Sarbanes, but is not considered "independent" within the meaning of applicable NASD rules. Including unanimous written actions of the Committee, the Audit Committee held 7 meetings in 2004.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee, which met 9 times in 2004 (including unanimous written actions of the Committee), establishes salaries, incentives and other forms of compensation for officers and other employees of theglobe.com. The Compensation Committee (as well as the entire Board of Directors) also approves option grants under all of our outstanding stock based incentive plans. The current members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Egan and Cespedes.

Nominating Committee. The Board of Directors does not have a separate nominating committee. Rather, the entire Board of Directors acts as nominating committee. Based on the Company's Board currently consisting only of employee directors, the Board of Directors does not believe the Company would derive any significant benefit from a separate nominating committee. Due primarily to their status as employees of the Company, none of the members of the Board are "independent" as defined in the NASD listing standards. The Company does not have a Nominating Committee charter.

In recommending director candidates in the future (including director candidates recommended by stockholders), the Board intends to take into consideration such factors as it deems appropriate based on the Company's current needs. These factors may include diversity, age, skills, decision-making ability, inter-personal skills, experience with businesses and other organizations of comparable size, community activities and relationships, and the interrelationship between the candidate's experience and business background, and other Board members' experience and business background, whether such candidate would be considered "independent", as such term is defined in the NASD listing standards, as well as the candidate's ability to devote the required time and effort to serve on the Board.

The Board will consider for nomination by the Board director candidates recommended by Stockholders if the Stockholders comply with the following requirements. Under our By-Laws, if a stockholder wishes to nominate a director at the Annual Meeting, we must receive the stockholder's written notice not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the date of the annual meeting, unless we give our stockholders less than 70 days' notice of the date of our Annual Meeting. If we provide less than 70 days' notice, then we must receive the stockholder's written notice by the close of business on the 10th day after we provide notice of the date of the Annual Meeting. The notice must contain the specific information required in our By-Laws. A copy of our By-Laws may be obtained by writing to the Corporate Secretary. If we receive a stockholder's proposal within the time periods required under our By-Laws, we may choose, but are not required, to include it in our proxy statement. If we do, we may tell the other stockholders what we think of the proposal, and how we intend to use our discretionary authority to vote on the proposal. All proposals should be made in writing and sent via registered, certified or express mail, to our executive offices, 110 East Broward Boulevard, Suite 1400, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301, Attention: Robin S. Lebowitz, Corporate Secretary.

Shareholder Communications with the Board of Directors. Any shareholder who wishes to send communications to the Board of Directors should mail them addressed to the intended recipient by name or position in care of: Corporate Secretary, theglobe.com, inc., 110 East Broward Boulevard, Suite 1400, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, 33301. Upon receipt of any such communications, the Corporate Secretary will determine the identity of the intended recipient and whether the communication is an appropriate shareholder communication. The Corporate Secretary will send all appropriate shareholder communications to the intended recipient. An "appropriate shareholder communication" is a communication from a person claiming to be a shareholder in the communication, the subject of which relates solely to the sender's interest as a shareholder and not to any other personal or business interest.

In the case of communications addressed to the Board of Directors, the Corporate Secretary will send appropriate shareholder communications to the Chairman of the Board. In the case of communications addressed to any particular directors, the Corporate Secretary will send appropriate shareholder communications to such director. In the case of communications addressed to a committee of the board, the Corporate Secretary will send appropriate shareholder communications to the Chairman of such committee.

The Board of Directors encourages, but does not require, its directors to attend the Company's annual meeting of stockholders. Last year, all of the Company's directors attended the annual meeting.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Directors who are also our employees receive no compensation for serving on our Board or committees. We reimburse non-employee directors for all travel and other expenses incurred in connection with attending Board and committee meetings. Non-employee directors are also eligible to receive automatic stock option grants under our 1998 Stock Option Plan, as amended and restated. As of December 31, 2004 there were no directors who met this definition.

Each director who becomes an eligible non-employee director for the first time receives an initial grant of options to acquire 25,000 shares of our common stock. In addition, each eligible non-employee director will receive an annual grant of options to acquire 7,500 shares of our common stock on the first business day following each annual meeting of stockholders that occurs while the 1998 Stock Option Plan or 2000 Stock Option Plan is in effect. These stock options will be granted with per share exercise prices equal to the fair market value of our common stock as of the date of grant.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE THREE NOMINEES AS DIRECTORS OF THEGLOBE.COM.

We will vote your shares as you specify on the enclosed proxy card. If you do not specify how you want your shares voted, we will vote them FOR the election of all the nominees listed above. If unforeseen circumstances (such as death or disability) make it necessary for the Board of Directors to substitute another person for any of the nominees, we will vote your shares FOR that other person. The Board of Directors does not presently anticipate that any nominee will be unable to serve.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth certain information regarding beneficial ownership of our common stock as of the record date of November 4, 2005 by (i) each person who owns beneficially more than 5% of our common stock, (ii) each of our directors, (iii) each of the officers named in the table under the heading "Executive Compensation-Summary Compensation Table," for 2004 (our "Named Executive Officers"), and (iv) all directors and executive officers as a group. A total of 173,146,807 shares of the globe's common stock were issued and outstanding on November 4, 2005.

The amounts and percentage of common stock beneficially owned are reported on the basis of regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") governing the determination of beneficial ownership of securities. Under the rules of the SEC, a person is deemed to be a "beneficial owner" of a security if that person has or shares "voting power," which includes the power to vote or to direct the voting of such security, or "investment power," which includes the power to dispose of or to direct the disposition of such security. A person is also deemed to be a beneficial owner of any securities of which that person has a right to acquire beneficial ownership within 60 days. Under these rules, more than one person may be deemed a beneficial owner of the same securities and a person may be deemed to be a beneficial owner of securities as to which such person has no economic interest. Unless otherwise indicated below, the address of each person named in the table below is in care of theglobe.com, inc., P.O. Box 029006, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33302.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors establishes our general compensation policies as well as the compensation plans and specific compensation levels for executive officers. The Compensation Committee also administers our stock based incentive plans for executive officers.

The Compensation Committee believes that the compensation of our executive officers, including the CEO, should be influenced by our performance. Employment agreements with certain of our executive officers establish base salary levels, and any salary increases are made in accordance with those agreements. Additional compensation in the form of cash bonuses or stock options is made in accordance with the employment agreements, where applicable, or at the discretion of the Compensation Committee or the full Board, taking into account the contributions made by the executive officers to theglobe, as well as anticipated performance of theglobe in the coming year. The Compensation Committee believes that our executive officer salaries in 2004 did not exceed levels in the industry for similarly sized businesses.

In addition to salary, the Board or the Compensation Committee, from time to time, grants options to executive officers. The Compensation Committee views option grants as an important component of its long-term, performance-based compensation philosophy. Since the value of an option bears a direct relationship to our stock price, the Compensation Committee believes that options motivate executive officers to manage us in a manner that will also benefit stockholders. As such, options are granted at the current market price. One of the principal factors considered in granting options to an executive officer is the executive officer's ability to influence our long-term growth and profitability.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE:

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

Michael S. Egan, theglobe.com's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and Edward A. Cespedes, theglobe.com's President, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer and Director served as members of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors during 2004. Although certain relationships and related transactions between Messrs. Egan and Cespedes and theglobe.com are disclosed in the following section of this Proxy Statement entitled CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, none of these relationships or transactions relate to interlocking directorships or compensation committees.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

ARRANGEMENTS WITH ENTITIES CONTROLLED BY VARIOUS DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

On February 2, 2004, Michael S. Egan (our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer) and his wife, S. Jacqueline Egan, entered into a Note Purchase Agreement with the Company pursuant to which they acquired convertible promissory notes (the "Bridge Notes") in the aggregate principal amount of $2,000,000. The Bridge Notes were convertible at anytime into shares of the Company's common stock at an initial rate of $.98 per share. The conversion rate was initially adjustable based on an amount equal to the rate at which the Company sold its common stock in any subsequent qualified private offering (defined as an offering which raises a minimum of $7.5 million) (or at a 20% discount to such amount, depending upon the timing of completion, and amount of, such private offering). This conversion was subsequently adjusted to $.57 per share, which was the effective per share rate of the subsequent qualified private offering. The Bridge Notes were due on demand from the holder, and were secured by a pledge of substantially all of the assets of the Company. The security interest was shared with the holders of the Company's Secured Convertible Notes in the principal amount of $1,750,000. The Bridge Notes paid interest at the rate of ten (10) percent per annum. In addition, the Egons were issued a warrant to acquire 204,082 shares of theglobe.com common stock at an initial exercise price of $1.22 per share. This warrant is exercisable at any time on or before February 2, 2009. The Egons are entitled to certain demand and "piggy-back" registration rights in connection with this investment.

On March 11, 2004, theglobe.com, inc. completed the PIPE Offering. In connection with the PIPE Offering, Mr. Egan, our Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and principal stockholder, together with certain of his affiliates and other parties, converted the $2,000,000 Bridge Note, $1,750,000 of Secured Convertible Notes issued on May 23, 2003 and all of the Company's outstanding shares of Series F Preferred Stock issued on March 28, 2003, and exercised (on a cashless exercise basis) all of the warrants issued in connection with the foregoing Secured Convertible Notes and Series F Preferred Stock, together with certain warrants issued to Dancing Bear Investments (an affiliate of Mr. Egan). As a result of such conversions and exercises, the Company issued an aggregate of approximately 48.75 million shares of common stock to such parties.

Interest expense on the $1,750,000 Convertible Notes totaled approximately $108,200, excluding the amortization of the discount on the Notes, during the year ended December 31, 2003. The interest remained unpaid at December 31, 2003, and was included in accrued expenses in our consolidated balance sheet. As a result of the conversion of the $1,750,000 Convertible Notes into the Company's common stock in March 2004, all accrued interest, including approximately $32,000 relating to the first quarter of 2004, was paid by June 30, 2004. As a result of the conversion of the $2,000,000 Bridge Note into the Company's common stock in March 2004, accrued interest of approximately $17,500 relating to the first quarter of 2004 was paid by June 30, 2004.

On April 22, 2005, E&C Capital Partners, LLLP ("E&C Partners") and E&C Capital Partners II, Ltd. (the "Noteholders"), entities controlled by the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, entered into a Note Purchase Agreement (the "Agreement") with theglobe pursuant to which they acquired secured demand convertible promissory notes (the "Convertible Notes") in the aggregate principal amount of $1,500,000. Under the terms of the Agreement, the Noteholders were also granted the optional right, for a period of 90 days from the date of the Agreement, to purchase additional Convertible Notes such that the aggregate principal amount of Convertible Notes issued under the Agreement may total $4,000,000 (the "Option"). On June 1, 2005, the Noteholders exercised a portion of the Option and acquired an additional $1,500,000 of Convertible Notes. On July 18, 2005, the Noteholders exercised the remainder of the Option and acquired an additional $1,000,000 of Convertible Notes.

The Convertible Notes are convertible at the option of the Noteholders into shares of the Company's common stock at an initial price of $0.05 per share. Through September 30, 2005 an aggregate of $600,000 of Convertible Notes were converted by the Noteholders into an aggregate of 12,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The Convertible Notes provide for interest at the rate of ten percent per annum and are secured by a pledge of substantially all of the assets of the Company. Approximately $131,000 of interest payable to the Noteholders was recorded during the nine months ended September 30, 2005 related to the Convertible Notes. The Convertible Notes are due and payable five days after demand for payment by the Noteholders. The Noteholders are entitled to certain demand and "piggyback" registration rights in connection with their investment. Assuming full conversion of all remaining outstanding Convertible Notes, 68,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock would be issued to the Noteholders.

Two of our directors, Mr. Egan and Ms. Lebowitz, also serve as officers and directors of Dancing Bear Investments, Inc. ("Dancing Bear"). Dancing Bear is a stockholder of the Company and an entity controlled by Mr. Egan, our Chairman.

Several entities controlled by our Chairman have provided services to the Company and two of its subsidiaries, including: the lease of office and warehouse space; the outsourcing of customer service and warehouse functions for the Company's VoIP operations; and the outsourcing of human resources and payroll processing functions for the Parent Company and various of the Company's subsidiaries.

We sublease approximately 15,000 square feet of office space for our executive offices from Certified Vacations, a company which is controlled by our Chairman and CEO Michael Egan. The sublease commenced on September 1, 2003 and expires on July 31, 2007. The initial base rent is $18.91 per square foot on an annual basis ($283,650 annually in the aggregate) and will increase on each anniversary of the sublease by $1.50 per square foot. During 2003, approximately $148,000 of expense was recorded related to the lease of the office space. During the year ended December 31, 2004, approximately $334,000 of expense was recorded related to the lease of the office space. During the nine months ended September 30, 2005, approximately $264,000 of expense was recorded related to the lease of office space from Certified Vacations. In addition, from August 2003 through August 2004 we outsourced our customer service function from Certified Vacations under renewable short term agreements at incremental cost, for which we paid an aggregate of $109,000 during the year ended December 31, 2003 and $134,000 during the year ended December 31, 2004.

Beginning in August 2003, our subsidiary, voiceglo Holdings, Inc. ("voiceglo"), began outsourcing warehouse space and related services from Thomas Street Logistics LLC, which is controlled by our Chairman and CEO, Michael Egan, and our President, Edward Cespedes. Our agreement with Thomas Street Logistics included secure warehouse space, equipment rental, insurance, utilities, office space, inventory management, shipping services, personnel and provisioning of our equipment for $25,000 per month and a nominal shipping and handling fee per item shipped. Effective, April 15, 2004, voiceglo terminated its arrangement with Thomas Street Logistics and has transitioned these functions to voiceglo personnel and warehouse space. During 2003, approximately $126,000 of expense was recorded for warehouse space and related outsourced functions. During the year ended December 31, 2004, approximately $99,000 of expense was recorded for warehouse space and related outsourced functions.

Beginning April 2005, we outsourced our human resources and payroll processing functions from Certified Vacations and approximately $21,000 of expense was recorded during the nine months ended September 30, 2005 related to these functions.

In addition, as of December 31, 2004, approximately $90,000 of advances made by the Company to a newly formed entity controlled by our Chairman, Global Voice Network LLC, remained unpaid. At the time these funds were advanced, the entity was anticipated to enter into a joint venture to provide services to voiceglo and the Company was negotiating the terms of such joint venture. The Company and such new entity subsequently agreed to abandon the proposed joint venture and the entity ceased operations in January 2005. Additional advances of approximately $2,000 were made to the entity during January 2005. E&C Partners has represented to theglobe.com that the amounts advanced (which approximate $92,000 as of September 30, 2005), will be repaid to the Company prior to the end of 2005.

ARRANGEMENTS WITH RELATIVES. During the nine months ended September 30, 2005, payments of approximately $4,300 were made to the son-in-law of our Chairman and CEO as reimbursements of marketing expenses incurred on the Company's behalf. In March 2004, the Company engaged the services of Pay the Rent, a company controlled by the son-in-law of our Chairman and CEO. Pay the Rent was contracted for the production, audio and video post-production, voice-over, and scoring of a television commercial featuring voiceglo. Payment in full in the amount of $151,200 was remitted during 2004. In 2003, we reimbursed Pay the Rent $18,013 for marketing and promotion expenses (at cost) for a separate marketing promotion.

COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 16(A) OF THE EXCHANGE ACT

Section 16(a) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 requires our officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent (10%) of a registered class of our equity securities, to file certain reports regarding ownership of, and transactions in, our securities with the SEC and with The NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. Such officers, directors, and 10% stockholders are also required to furnish theglobe with copies of all Section 16(a) forms that they file.

Based solely on our review of copies of Forms 3 and 4 and any amendments furnished to us pursuant to Rule 16a-3(e) and Forms 5 and any amendments furnished to us with respect to the 2004 fiscal year, and any written representations referred to in Item 405(b)(2)(i) of Regulation S-K stating that no Forms 5 were required, we believe that, during the 2004 fiscal year, our officers and directors have complied with all Section 16(a) applicable filing requirements.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The audit committee of the board of directors operates under a written charter adopted by the board of directors. The members of the committee are Michael S. Egan, Edward A. Cespedes, and Robin S. Lebowitz. In as much as the Board does not currently have any non-employee directors, and all audit committee members are also employees of the Company, none of the current committee members are considered "independent" within the meaning of applicable NASD rules.

Management is responsible for the company's internal controls and the financial reporting process. The independent accountants are responsible for performing an independent audit of the company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and to issue a report thereon. The committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

In this context, the audit committee has met and held discussions with management and the independent accountants. Management represented to the committee that the company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and the audit committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and the independent accountants. The committee discussed with the independent accountants matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees).

The company's independent accountants also provided to the audit committee the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the audit committee discussed with the independent accountants that firm's independence.

Based upon the audit committee's discussion with management and the independent accountants and the audit committee's review of the representation of management and the report of the independent accountants to the committee, the audit committee recommended that the board of directors include the audited consolidated financial statements in the company's annual report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2004 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The aggregate fees billed by Rachlin Cohen for professional services rendered for the audit of our annual financial statements during 2004 and 2003 and the reviews of the financial statements included in our Forms 10-Q or 10-QSB and 10-K or 10-KSB, as appropriate, were $104,739 and $202,977, respectively.

Pre-approval of Services by the External Auditor. In April of 2004, the Audit Committee adopted a policy for pre-approval of audit and permitted non-audit services by the Company’s external auditor. The Audit Committee will consider annually and, if appropriate, approve the provision of audit services by its external auditor and consider and, if appropriate, pre-approve the provision of certain defined audit and non-audit services. The Audit Committee will also consider on a case by case basis and, if appropriate, approve specific engagements that are not otherwise pre-approved. Of the Audit-Related Fees and Tax Fees described above, the Audit Committee, approved of the audit related engagements but did not approve the tax related services. All such tax related services will be subject to pre-approval by the Audit Committee in the future.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS FOR THE 2006 ANNUAL MEETING

We welcome comments and suggestions from our stockholders. Here are the ways a stockholder may present a proposal for consideration by the other stockholders at our 2006 Annual Meeting:

In our Proxy Statement. If a stockholder wants to submit a proposal for inclusion in our proxy statement and form of proxy under Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") for the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, we must receive the proposal in writing on or before 5 p.m., Eastern time, March 1, 2006.

At the Annual Meeting. Under our By-Laws, if a stockholder wishes to nominate a director or bring other business before the stockholders at the 2006 Annual Meeting, we must receive the stockholder's written notice not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the date of the annual meeting, unless we give our stockholders less than 70 days' notice of the date of our 2006 Annual Meeting. If we provide less than 70 days' notice, then we must receive the stockholder's written notice by the close of business on the 10th day after we provide notice of the date of the 2006 Annual Meeting. The notice must contain the specific information required in our By-Laws. A copy of our By-Laws may be obtained by writing to the Corporate Secretary. If we receive a stockholder's proposal within the time periods required under our By-Laws, we may choose, but are not required, to include it in our proxy statement. If we do, we may tell the other stockholders what we think of the proposal, and how we intend to use our discretionary authority to vote on the proposal.

Under our By-Laws, a stockholder's notice nominating a person for election as a director must contain specific information about the proposed nominee and the nominating stockholder. If our chairman determines that a nomination was not made in the manner described in our By-Laws, the nomination will be disregarded. Similarly, a stockholder's notice proposing the conduct of business must contain specific information about the business and about the proposing stockholder. If our chairman determines that business was not properly brought before the meeting in the manner described in our By-Laws, the business will not be conducted.

By requiring advance notice of nominations by holders of our common stock, our By-Laws afford our board an opportunity to consider the qualifications of the proposed nominee and, to the extent deemed necessary or desirable by our board, to inform stockholders about these qualifications. By requiring advance notice of other proposed business, our By-Laws also provide an orderly procedure for conducting annual meetings of stockholders and, to the extent deemed necessary or desirable by our board, provides our board with an opportunity to inform stockholders, before meetings, of any business proposed to be conducted at the meetings, together with any recommendations as to our board's position regarding action to be taken with respect to the business, so that stockholders can better decide whether to attend a meeting or to grant a proxy regarding the disposition of any business.

Delivering a Separate Proxy Statement. We will not use our discretionary voting authority if a stockholder submits a proposal within the time period required under our By-Laws, and also provides us with a written statement that the stockholder intends to deliver his/her own proxy statement and form of proxy to our stockholders. Persons who wish to deliver their own proxy statement and form of proxy should consult the rules and regulations of the SEC.

All proposals should be made in writing and sent via registered, certified or express mail, to our executive offices, 110 East Broward Boulevard, Suite 1400, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301, Attention: Robin S. Lebowitz, Corporate Secretary.

OTHER BUSINESS

The Board of Directors is not aware of any other matters to come before the Annual Meeting. If any matter not mentioned in this proxy statement is properly brought before the meeting, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will have discretionary authority to vote all proxies with respect to those matters in accordance with their judgment.
