Pursuant to the Omnibus Amendment, the Note Purchase Agreement was amended to provide for the issuance of an additional $3,000,000 of indebtedness by the Company. In order to provide for such additional indebtedness, the Notes, in the original principal amount of $3,000,000, were cancelled and replaced with amended and restated senior convertible promissory notes in an aggregate principal amount of $6,000,000 (the “New Notes”). The New Notes increase certain penalties contained in the Notes if the proposed preferred stock financing transaction between the Company and the holders of the Notes is not closed by July 31, 2007, as follows: the Company will be obligated to pay to the holders of the New Notes a $6,000,000 penalty in addition to the outstanding principal and interest that will become due under the New Notes on July 31, 2007, and the Company will be obligated to pay the holders 30% of any amount received by the Company from financing, sale or licensing transactions completed prior to June 30, 2009, subject to a cap of $8,000,000. The Omnibus Amendment also amended the date that the Warrants can be exercised by the holders from May 31, 2007, to July 31, 2007. Finally, the Omnibus Amendment acknowledged that the New Notes are subject to the Security and Guaranty Agreement and the Intellectual Property Security Agreement, each dated January 11, 2007, by and among the Company and the holders of the Notes.
