On November 5, 2018, SB One Bancorp (“SB One”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) a definitive proxy statement/prospectus with respect to the special meeting of shareholders of Enterprise Bank N.J., a New Jersey-chartered bank (“Enterprise”), scheduled to be held on December 20, 2018 at which Enterprise shareholders will be asked to, among other things, vote on a proposal to approve the agreement and plan of merger by and among SB One, SB One Bank, a New Jersey-chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of SB One, and Enterprise dated as of June 19, 2018, pursuant to which Enterprise will merge with and into SB One Bank with SB One Bank surviving the merger.

A purported securities class action lawsuit has been filed against SB One, Enterprise and each of the members of the board of directors of Enterprise in the Superior Court of New Jersey Law Division: Union County. Captioned Parshall v. Enterprise Bank N.J., et al., (No. 003949-18), the case was filed on November 19, 2018, purports to have been brought on behalf of all public shareholders of Enterprise, and seeks to enjoin the defendants from proceeding with the shareholder vote on the proposed merger transaction at the special meeting or consummating the proposed merger unless and until SB One and Enterprise disclose allegedly omitted information, in addition to paying damages allegedly suffered by the plaintiffs as a result of the asserted omissions, as well as attorneys’ fees and expenses.
