PART III--NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed in the Form 8-K filed with the SEC on April 2, 2015, the Company recently entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement with Andrea Communications LLC. The Company's management and accounting staff have been working diligently with Marcum LLP to complete the financial statements for the quarter ended March 31, 2015 to reflect the appropriate accounting treatment for such agreement. As previously disclosed in the Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 30, 2015, in February 2015 the Company also filed a Complaint with the United States International Trade Commission (ITC), alleging patent infringement and unfair competition against certain entities. In connection with the ITC complaint key management and accounting staff have been subject to numerous depositions and other matters related to the ITC complaint. In addition, and at the same time, the Company is in the process of a relocation of its main office. As a result, the Company is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2015 on a timely basis. The Company intends to file the Form 10-Q that is the subject of this Notification of Late Filing within the five-day extension period afforded by SEC Rule 12b-25.
