Notice released by E.ON AG in Düsseldorf under Section 15 of the German Securities Trading Act (WpHG)

E.ON Reports Improved Earnings and Higher Dividend

In 2002, the E.ON Group generated sales of 37.1 billion (2001: 37.3 billion). The Group's consolidated internal operating profit increased by 23 percent to 3,890 million (2001: 3,157 million), due mainly to the improvement of the internal operating profit of E.ON Energie by 28 percent to 2,855 million (2001: 2,231 million).

At 2,777 million, the Group's consolidated net income was 8 percent higher than in the previous year (2,570 million). Due to the record internal operating profit and book gains of approximately 3.8 billion on the sale of shareholdings, E.ON was able to absorb one-off charges of approximately 4.8 billion.

The cash flow from continuing operations amounted to 3.7 billion, which was 39 percent higher than in the previous year (2.7 billion).

At the annual shareholders meeting on April 30, 2003, E.ON will propose that the dividend for fiscal 2002 should be increased by 0.15 or approx. 9.4 percent to 1.75 per dividend-bearing individual share.

In spite of operational improvements in all the business segments, E.ON's consolidated internal operating profit in 2003 will probably not quite reach the 2002 level because Degussa's profit will only be included at equity, i.e. in accordance with E.ON's share of 46.5 percent.

For the Group's consolidated net income a further rise is expected, especially due to high gains on disposals. From today's perspective, E.ON does not anticipate one-off charges comparable to those in 2002.

In order to make it easier to compare the company's performance in 2001 with 2002, the 2001 earnings figures were brought in line with a new US accounting standard and accordingly scheduled goodwill amortization has been eliminated.
