Plans.

On November 22, 2005, Revlon Consumer Products Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Revlon, Inc. ("RCPC"), furnished a notice to participants in the Revlon Employees' Savings, Investment and Profit Sharing Plan and Revlon Excess Savings Plan, RCPC's qualified and non-qualified defined contribution 401(k) plans, respectively (collectively, the "Plans"), informing them that the Plans are changing their record keeper effective as of January 3, 2006. The notice stated that, as a result of these changes, during a period starting 3:00 p.m. Eastern time on December 22, 2005 and expected to end during the week of January 15, 2006 (referred to as the "blackout period"), Plan participants will be unable to direct or diversify investments in their individual accounts, or obtain a loan, withdrawal or distribution from the Plans. The notice indicated that such restrictions apply to shares of Revlon, Inc. Class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share, held by Plan participants through the Revlon, Inc. Employee Stock Fund, which is one of the investment options offered under each of the Plans.

In connection with the foregoing, on November 22, 2005, each of Revlon, Inc. and RCPC sent a notice to its respective executive officers and directors informing them that, among other things, pursuant to Section 306(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules promulgated thereunder, during the blackout period, they would be prohibited from, directly or indirectly, purchasing, selling or otherwise acquiring or transferring equity securities of Revlon, Inc. acquired in connection with their service or employment as a director or executive officer. The notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The description of the notice is qualified in its entirety by reference to Exhibit 99.1. Such notice was provided to executive officers and directors of Revlon, Inc. and RCPC within five business days of November 22, 2005, which is the date that the blackout notice was mailed to Plan participants and the date that the Plan administrator notified Revlon, Inc. and RCPC of the blackout period.

During the blackout period and for a period of two years after the ending date thereof, a Revlon, Inc. security holder or other interested person may obtain, without charge, information regarding the blackout period, including the actual beginning and ending dates of the blackout period, by contacting the office of the Executive Vice President, Chief Legal Officer, General Counsel and Secretary of Revlon, Inc. at 237 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10017; telephone 212-527-5695.
