Explanation of Responses:

- * If the form is filed by more than one reporting person, see Instruction 4(b)(v).
-  Intentional misstatements or omissions of facts constitute Federal Criminal Violations. See 18 U.S.C. 1001 and 15 U.S.C. 78ff(a).
- Prior to July 15, 2008, 41,460 shares were held in a trust established by the reporting person's mother for which the reporting person was the trustee. In late 2007, the reporting person's mother passed away and pursuant to the terms of her will and the trust, the shares held in the trust were distributed in equal portions to the reporting person and his sister. Accordingly, the reporting person remained the beneficial owner of 20,730 of the shares, although they are now reported as being held in his revocable grantor trust.
- (2) This number is 20,730 higher than the amount reported in this line item on the reporting person's most recent Form 4 due to the 20,730 shares that were distributed from his deceased mother's trust upon its termination. See the previous footnote.

Note: File three copies of this Form, one of which must be manually signed. If space provided is insufficient, see Instruction 6 for procedure. Potential persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB number.
