Press release

RESPONSE FROM BSKYB TO DECISION BY OFT

Following the publication today of a decision by the Office of Fair Trading that the company has not been found in breach of competition law, a BSkyB spokesman said:

"After an investigation lasting nearly three years, BSkyB welcomes confirmation that its conduct has not infringed the Competition Act."

- ENDS -

Notes for Editors

1. The OFT announced its investigation of BSkyB on 11 January 2000 using its powers under the Fair Trading Act 1973. In its Issues Paper of 1 March 2000, the OFT specified its then current approach to prescriptive regulation of the BSkyB's wholesale supply of pay-TV channels.

2. On 5 December 2000, the OFT indicated that it would continue the inquiry under the Competition Act.

3. On 17 December 2001, the OFT announced that it proposed to make a decision that BSkyB had infringed the Competition Act. It was at this stage that, for the first time, BSkyB was made aware of the allegations against it and the company's rights of defence were invoked.
