No. 1	RNS Announcement, re: Appointment of New CEO dated 4 February, 2003

Edgar Filing: BRITISH ENERGY PLC - Form 6-K

Exhibit No. 1

4 February 2003

BRITISH ENERGY APPOINTS NEW CHIEF EXECUTIVE

British Energy plc ("British Energy") is pleased to announce that Mike Alexander is appointed Chief Executive Officer with effect from 1 March 2003. Mr Alexander is currently Chief Operating Officer of Centrica plc.

Adrian Montague, Chairman of British Energy, said:

"I am delighted that he has agreed to join us. Mike is a highly regarded senior Director with just the right combination of skills and experience for British Energy at this critical time as we seek to reach agreement on our financial restructuring. He has an exceptional record in driving major organisational change and will bring great value to the business."

Mr Alexander commented:

"I am hugely excited to have the opportunity of driving the Company forward to ensure that it consolidates its position in the UK electricity market and of steering it through the next phase in its development."

Mr Alexander is a Chemical Engineer, Fellow of the Institution of Electrical Engineers and, prior to joining British Gas in 1991, spent an extensive period with BP plc in a variety of policy, commercial, engineering and marketing roles.

His engineering background includes design, control, operation and maintenance of major process plant. Within British Gas, he moved from the asset management roles associated with upstream oil and gas production to the trading and marketing activities of the newly liberalised UK energy markets. As Managing Director of British Gas Trading, he led the transformation from a gas to energy supplier, building the electricity business and was responsible for the creation of the Goldfish Credit Card. He is also a non-executive director of Associated British Foods plc.
