BUNZL ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

In a statement at today's AGM, Anthony Habgood, Chairman of Bunzl plc, said that, in an improved but still uncertain international economic climate, current trading remains satisfactory. He indicated that organic volume growth in Outsourcing Services is moderating as a result of ongoing pressures on the US supermarket industry while good volume growth in redistribution and food processors has continued. Furthermore, in Europe, the priority remains to extend Bunzl's footprint, to integrate acquisitions and to raise margins. He went on to say that, while price levels in the US entered 2004 somewhat below those in 2003 and future trends remain uncertain, prices of the majority of product categories are moving upwards during 2004. With respect to currency movements, he further indicated that, while the dollar is currently stronger than it was earlier this year, its weakness compared to the first half of 2003 will influence the translation of Bunzl's dollar results into sterling.

He reiterated that the combination of volume growth, the opportunities provided by acquisition activity and Bunzl's strong position in its markets gives the Board confidence that the prospects of the Group are good and that the business will continue to develop satisfactorily.
