Notes

1. The index referred to as the IPD "Annual Index" is the Investment Property Databank All Property (Standing Investments excluding Active Management) Annual Total Return Index. The IPD Annual Capital Growth Index is a component of the Annual Index and both are calculated by IPD from information held in its annual database which at 31st December 2003 contained information relating to individual properties having an aggregate value of approximately GBP105.1bn.

2. IPD compiles monthly indices as proxies for the Annual Index (the "Monthly Proxy Index") and for the Annual Capital Growth Index (the "Monthly Proxy Capital Growth Index") for the preceding month. The Monthly Proxy Index and the Monthly Proxy Capital Growth Index are estimated by reference to information contained in the monthly database, which at the end of December 2003 contained information relating to individual properties having an aggregate value of approximately GBP17.4bn. As these indices are intended to be proxies for the Annual Index and the Annual Capital Growth Index, the constituent information is re-weighted by sector, property type and region to reflect the portfolio of properties used in the calculation of the Annual Index and the Annual Capital Growth Index.

Investment Property Databank Limited ("IPD") will not be liable to any holder of Barclays Property Index Certificates for any loss or damage as a result of any error in any of the above mentioned indices. This information has been prepared by IPD. Whilst it is deemed to be reliable, Barclays Bank PLC does not represent that such information is accurate or complete and it should not be relied upon as such. The prices of investments which trade in limited markets may go up or down.

A BARCLAYS STATEMENT

Edgar Filing: BARCLAYS PLC - Form 6-K

Barclays confirms it is in discussions with ABSA, a leading South African bank, in connection with a possible recommended partial offer for a majority stake in ABSA. This process is at an early stage and is subject inter alia to due diligence and securing a satisfactory level of committed acceptances from ABSA's significant shareholders prior to making any offer. In addition, these discussions have not yet reached a stage which requires a formal approach to the relevant regulators. These discussions may or may not lead to a transaction being agreed. Barclays would not expect to issue ordinary shares to fund a potential transaction.

The Barclays board believes that if there is a successful conclusion to this process such a transaction would enhance the bank's existing successful African operations and would be immediately accretive to earnings per share and economic profit.

- ENDS -

This announcement contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended and Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, with respect to certain of the Barclays plans and its current goals and expectations relating to the potential transaction described above. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events and circumstances, including, but not limited to, domestic and global economic and business conditions, market related risks such as changes in interest rates and exchange rates, the policies and actions of governmental and regulatory authorities, changes in legislation and the impact of competition, a number of which are beyond the Barclays control. As a result, actual future results may differ materially from the plans, goals and expectations set forth in the forward-looking statements.

Barclaycard enters into joint venture with House of Fraser

Barclays PLC ("Barclays") and House of Fraser have entered into a partnership under which Barclaycard will form a joint venture with House of Fraser to manage its financial services business from June 2007 for a period of 10 years. House of Fraser and Barclaycard will share the profits generated by the joint venture on a 50/50 basis.

Barclaycard is expected to make total cash payments to House of Fraser, between January 2005 and 2007, totalling some GBP 25 million. The cash payment will be made from Barclays internal resources. The expected premium to receivables transferred by House of Fraser to the joint venture is 16% to 18%.

The current House of Fraser loyalty and storecard business has over one million active cardholders. From 2007, the joint venture will manage existing and new accounts and both parties see an exciting opportunity to develop a range of financial services.

The move underlines Barclaycard's strategy to grow its UK lending business, with a growing contribution from non Barclaycard-branded businesses, namely Monument, Littlewoods Financial Services and Clydesdale Financial Services.
