GOVERNMENT MUST SCRAP £10 TOURIST TAX AND BREAKUP BAA MONOPOLY AS BAA TRAFFIC FALLS 4.5 MILLION IN 5 MONTHS

Ryanair freezes growth at 9 UK bases with immediate effect

Ryanair
, Europe's largest low fares airline, today (23 rd

June
09
)
confirmed that it will
freeze
growth at its nine UK bases with immediate effect
. Ryanair
highlighted
that Gordon Brown'
s £10 tourist tax, combined with the
BAA

M onopoly
's high airport
charges

have caused

loss of over 4.5 million passenger

s

at the BAA UK airports

in the first five months of the year.

Ryanair

called on

Gordon Brown

to scrap this £10 APD

tax and

speed up

the sale of

Gatwick and

Stansted airports to prevent a further collapse in

UK

tourism

and related jobs

next

winter.

I

f

the

UK

traffic collapse

continues for the full year the economy will lose over 10 million passengers, 10,000 airport jobs and over £2.5 billion in tourism spend in 2009 alone, with the Government losing at least £350 million in VAT receipts.

The

is

now

a

high cost

tourism destination which is in steep decline.

Ryanair

urged the

British

Government

to follow the lead of t he Belgian, Dutch, Greek and Spanish Governments

who have recently scrapped similar tourist taxes and/or airport charges in order to reverse falling passenger numbers and prevent further tourism and job losses.

Ryanair
Michael O'Leary
said:

Ryanair will grow by 15% this year to over 67 million passengers. However, the UK will not share in any of this growth in 2009 as Ryanair (the only major European airline continuing to grow) freezes growth at our nine UK bases. Gordon Brown's £10 tourist tax will see

Britain lose

over 10 million passengers, 10,000 airport jobs and more than £2.5 billion in tourism spend in the UK

this year alone

The Government

*should follow the example of their Belgian, Dutch, Greek and Spanish counterparts by immediately scrapping this stupid and regressive tourist tax to avoid any further devastation to
tourism and jobs.*

*"
Tourism is one of the UK's most important industries and employers. It responds q uickly to price
changes
. The G overnment's £10 tourist tax is making the
UK
an uncompetitive desti
nation and they must
scrap this tax
now to prevent
further collapse of
passenger

tourism and job

numbers

*.
While the UK keeps taxing tourists Ryanair will switch its growth to other EU countries where low cost airports are growing and where G overnments are wel coming tourists not taxing them*

Ends.
