ITEM 1. Business

General

On January 19, 2004, Moore Medical Corp. (the "Company" or "Moore Medical") entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger") with McKesson Corporation ("McKesson"). Pursuant to the terms of the Merger, McKesson will acquire each outstanding share of Moore Medical common stock for $12.00 in cash, or approximately $40 million in the aggregate. Moore Medical shareholder approval is required to consummate the Merger and a meeting to obtain shareholder approval has been scheduled for March 30, 2004. The acquisition is expected to be completed in the Company's second fiscal quarter of 2004. Upon consummation of the Merger, Moore Medical will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of McKesson. The Company incurred legal and consulting fees of approximately $0.5 million during fiscal 2003 related to the proposed Merger between the Company and McKesson.

Moore Medical is an Internet-enabled, multi-channel marketer and distributor of medical, surgical and pharmaceutical products to health care practices and facilities in non-hospital settings nationwide, including: physicians, emergency medical technicians, schools, correctional institutions, municipalities, occupational/industrial health doctors and nurses, and other specialty practice communities. The Company markets and serves its customers through direct mail, industry-specialized telephone support staff, field sales representatives, customer community affiliates and the Internet. Its direct marketing and distribution business has been in operation for 55 years. The Company operates principally from three distribution facilities located in the United States with nearly 100% of its revenues from customers in the United States.

The Company is a Delaware corporation, organized in 1969. Its principal executive offices are located at 389 John Downey Drive, New Britain, Connecticut 06050, telephone (860) 826-3600.

Provide an enjoyable and efficient multi-channel customer experience

We offer our customers a variety of ways to communicate with us and have streamlined the process of providing the quality goods and services that they have come to expect. Our web site houses a sophisticated e-commerce application that allows customers to make real-time selections and purchases online. We complement the total buying experience with a gateway to industry associations and customer community affiliates, while continuing to maintain a traditional direct mail communication campaign through our market-specific sales flyers and catalogs.

Current Developments

On January 19, 2004, Moore Medical entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger with McKesson. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger, McKesson will acquire each outstanding share of Moore Medical common stock for $12.00 in cash, or approximately $40 million in the aggregate. Moore Medical shareholder approval is required to consummate the Merger and a meeting to obtain shareholder approval has been scheduled for March 30, 2004. The acquisition is expected to be completed in the Company's second fiscal quarter of 2004. Upon consummation of the Merger Moore Medical will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of McKesson. The Company incurred legal and consulting fees of approximately $0.5 million or $0.12 per share during fiscal 2003 related to the Merger.

On November 6, 2003, the Company amended its $15 million loan agreement with its lender and extended the maturity date to June 30, 2006. Interest is charged at the prime rate, plus or minus 25 basis points or, at the option of the Company, at the LIBOR rate plus a margin ranging from 1.5% to 2.0% depending on the financial leverage of the Company. As of December 27, 2003, the Company was in violation of the earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) financial covenant contained in its revolving line of credit agreement for the two quarters ending December 27, 2003. On March 23, 2004, the Company's lender waived the EBITDA financial covenant violation for the two quarters ending December 27, 2003. Additionally, the Merger with McKesson allows the lender to exercise certain rights with respect to the loan agreement. In February 2004, the Company repaid the amounts outstanding on the loan agreement. McKesson does not intend to use the loan agreement subsequent to the completion of the Merger.

Health Care Products Distribution Competition

Competition: The trend of health care product distributor consolidation continues in an effort to realize economies of scale. Our competitors are large national distributors, regional distributors, and local distributors with the majority depending on field sales representatives to build customer relationships. Some primarily use direct mail and telemarketing, some rely on the Internet, and others make sales and deliveries to their customers with a dedicated sales force and a fleet of distributor-operated delivery vehicles.

The health care product industry is highly competitive and many of the Company's customers utilize more than one health care product distributor to gain the best pricing. Generally, we compete with other distributors on breadth of product line, brand recognition, delivery speed, price, order completion rates, and other value-added customer service factors, such as the convenience of ordering through the Internet. As more health care practices consolidate, we expect that a growing number of large customers will require their distributor to reliably service many delivery locations in different regions across the country. By providing a multi-channel distribution network, we are able to meet the needs of our present and prospective customers.

Sales and Marketing

In fiscal 2003, the Company enhanced its multi-channel strategy to surround specialty health care customers with a convenient means of communication and commerce and to deliver expert service and customer care in every experience in which the Company engages the customer. The Company enhanced and integrated five channels by which our customers may communicate with Moore Medical. The five channels include: direct marketing, market-specific sales representatives, field and national account representatives, web sites and customer community affiliates. All of our customer gateways work together to foster a single voice to the customer and to be a receptive listener to the needs of specialty health care customers and prospective customers.

Direct Marketing: From Moore Medical's inception, the cornerstone of our customer communication has been direct marketing—sending a printed catalog, flyer or promotional offer to our customers and receiving a response via the Web, a phone call, fax or letter to our Customer Support Center. Our customer support representatives are trained and organized by health care specialty and product knowledge to better serve our customers. This approach continued to be important in fiscal 2003 and the effectiveness of our targeted mail and its response rate improved significantly. An in-house creative department, equipped with a digital design studio, designs and produces Company marketing material, examples of which include catalogs and flyers, web graphics and animations, Moore Medical brand product packaging, trade show booth graphics, and vendor partner-sponsored pieces. The Company contracts printing services through outside printers. Marketing materials are mailed throughout the year, utilizing a schedule based on historic results, customer buying patterns, and specialty customer prospecting.

Market-Specific Sales Representatives and Field and National Account Representatives: The results produced by our direct marketing channel are augmented by the efforts of two coordinated sales channels: market-specific sales representatives (who provide service to assigned customers, generally by phone) and field and national account representatives (geographically located across the country, who thus far have focused primarily on the Occupational Health and Corrections markets). During the 4th quarter of fiscal 2003, the Company implemented a partnered sales channel approach in the Primary Care Business Unit. This alignment of sales channels will allow the sales representatives to focus on larger contracted business while providing an improved customer experience. The Company expects increased sales and profitability in the Primary Care Business Unit in fiscal 2004 as a result of additional visits to current and prospective customers and due to the introduction of diagnostic testing product lines to this market. Health care specialty field and national account representatives in the Occupational Health and Corrections markets are located in California, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, Texas, Ohio, and Pennsylvania.

Our Web Site: Moore Medical's third generation web site, www.mooremedical.com, raised our fourth channel of communication to a new level of performance with improved search functionality, enhancements to facilitate ease of use for customers and the creation of customer retention tools. More than 15,000 customers executed transactions on our web site during fiscal 2003, either as their preferred or only method of communication or as a brick and click customer, using the Internet in conjunction with our customer support representatives, market-specific representatives, or field and national account representatives. A small team of net agents, trained to facilitate live, online chats with customers, assists in the customer Internet purchase experience as requested by the customer. Our customer relations representatives are also conversant in web ordering so that a customer inquiry can be a one-stop ordering experience.

Customer Community Affiliates: Complementing the other channels created to support our customers' needs, customer community affiliates have joined Moore Medical to offer additional value-added services to their memberships and audiences. Moore Medical works with our affiliates to anticipate the needs of their customer communities and engages in an ongoing dialogue regarding their product requirements, business challenges and industry issues. The affiliate program exposes Moore Medical to thousands of association members who might otherwise not connect with or learn about Moore Medical.

Customers

The Company serves approximately 90,000 customers nationwide in health care practices in non-hospital settings. No single customer accounted for more than 1% of net sales in fiscal 2003. Customers are the focal point of Moore Medical's marketing, sales and supply chain strategies, and the Company strives to provide value-added services to the health care specialties Moore Medical serves. The Company also maintains a number of Internet alliances to help new customers find Moore Medical more easily, encourage existing customers to choose us more frequently, and help Moore Medical understand customer community needs. Internet alliances include strategic partnerships, advertising sponsorships, and Internet affiliates. These alliances are designed to link sales from the affiliate's web site to www.mooremedical.com, encourage direct sales through our web site and establish pre-conditioned sales through our Customer Support Center.

We continue to benefit from our Corporate Customer Council and Market Advertising Groups, where customers share their views on Moore Medical's support, service, products, terms, pricing and delivery, and make suggestions on ways to improve their customer experience.

Supply Chain

Our core supply chain objective is to continuously identify new processes that improve customer satisfaction, eliminate non-value added processes and reduce costs.

During fiscal year 2003 Moore Medical enhanced a workflow tool to incorporate a process which streamlined new product setup from a multiple day process to a single day process. In addition, the Company deployed the Fulfillment Solutions® distribution software from Pitney Bowes Corporation. This system greatly improves supply-chain efficiency by optimizing Moore Medical's daily shipments across multiple freight carriers.

The Company has continued its use of a fully automated advanced forecasting and replenishment solution which automatically determines the appropriate inventory levels needed in our warehouses to meet our customers' expectations. Our suppliers are able to adjust their shipping schedules based on our inventory demand projections. The forecasting and replenishment software has reduced manual labor, helped increase inventory turns and improved customer service levels for our Company, as measured by complete, on time orders and line fill rates.

Distribution: Moore Medical distributes products throughout the United States and U.S. territories from three distribution centers located in Connecticut, California, and Florida. The distribution network has been designed with the objectives of delivering a satisfying purchasing experience to the customer, providing broader second-day delivery coverage, and minimizing inventory and transportation costs. We provide consistent, time-sensitive and high-quality order fulfillment services through sophisticated product allocation strategies, maintaining high standards of accuracy and fulfillment.

Customer orders enter the enterprise resource planning (ERP) system via our web site, and through entry by our market-specific sales representatives, customer support center representatives, or field and national account representatives. Order fulfillment is completed the same day when the order is received by 4:00 p.m. local time. Moore Medical is a national account of United Parcel Services (UPS), our primary small package carrier. FedEx Ground provides small package service to our customers in the Midwest. Small package deliveries constitute over 90% of our package volume, with over 99% of orders filled to completion the same business day. With our national coverage, nearly 90% of our customers receive delivery within two business days.

We are continually benchmarking our service and fulfillment performance against our system of Perfect Order Metrics, which is the percentage of orders shipped complete, on time, from the customer's assigned primary shipping warehouse (i.e., distribution center closest to customer's ship-to location) and received by the customer error-free. We have also implemented a process mapping method to identify every one of the individual steps involved in taking and fulfilling an order, with a goal toward streamlining and/or eliminating steps to make the process flow more smoothly.

Product Line/Suppliers: Moore Medical's product line consists of over 15,000 of the most popular medical/surgical supplies and pharmaceutical products, encompassing a broad and diversified selection. Over 9,200 stock keeping units (SKUs) are carried. We are one of the few distributors of medical/surgical products to health care practitioners in non-hospital settings who also offer pharmaceuticals to those practices. Although many of our products are consumables and disposables, we also sell medical/surgical equipment and a variety of diagnostic instrumentation and accessories. During fiscal 2003, the Company increased its instrumentation and exam office furniture product lines as a result of a focus on selling physicians in-office equipment. The Company also sells the necessary supplies to operate the medical equipment, and it is anticipated that the medical equipment will provide a consistent stream of revenue for the Company.

Moore Medical purchases products primarily from manufacturers and other distributors and does not manufacture or assemble any products, with the exception of medical and first aid kits. The Company maintains insurance coverage against potential losses due to product liability claims and believes such coverage is adequate. In fiscal 2003 our largest product suppliers were 3M, Aventis Pasteur, Bayer Diagnostics, Becton Dickinson, Glaxo SmithKline, Johnson & Johnson, Kendall Healthcare Products Co., Laerdal Medical Corp, Microflex Corporation (Microflex® is a registered trademark of the Microflex Corporation), Graham Medical Products and Welch Allyn. The Company has several competing sources for many medical/surgical supplies and pharmaceuticals. Sales of products from our largest supplier in fiscal 2003 (Microflex Corporation) accounted for approximately 4.8% of net sales.

We have long-term purchase arrangements (i.e., 2 years or longer) with several of our suppliers (American Diagnostic Corp., ASO, Beckman/Colter Corporation). The Company has preferred supplier status in a number of markets and online health care communities for particular product offerings.

During fiscal 2003, the Company entered into multiple agreements to distribute various medical products nationwide. The Opus and Opus Plus System, an in-office blood analysis device used to detect various life-threatening disorders, is offered exclusively by Moore Medical to the POL (physicians' office laboratories) market in a 10-state region including Delaware, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and is sold to the rest of the United States on a nonexclusive basis. Moore Medical also obtained the right to distribute Immulite and Immulite 1000, an in-office blood analysis device used to detect various life-threatening disorders to physician offices, nationwide on a nonexclusive basis.

Regulation

The health care delivery industry in the United States continues to be under intensive scrutiny as a result of a wide variety of political, economic and regulatory influences. Because of uncertainty regarding the ultimate features of any future reform initiatives, the Company cannot predict the impact such proposals, should they be adopted, will have on its business.

Moore Medical's business is subject to regulation under various local, state, and federal laws governing the sale, marketing, packaging and distribution of prescription drugs, including controlled substances, regulated chemicals and medical devices, as well as licensing requirements.

Each of our distribution centers is registered with the Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA) and as a wholesale distributor of prescription drugs and devices in each state that requires registration and/or licensure. In addition, the Company is registered with the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) as a Drug Establishment and as a Device Establishment.

Moore Medical is mandated by the Prescription Drug Marketing Act of 1987 and the Controlled Substance Act to validate our customers for purchases of regulated products. We require documentary evidence of our customers' regulatory authority to purchase regulated products and we are in material compliance with applicable federal and state statutes which protect against the diversion of those products. We maintain extremely tight standards and ensure that every transaction constitutes a legal sale prior to shipping.

In the Company's capacity as a distributor of prescription pharmaceuticals, the Company is also subject to Medicare, Medicaid and state health care fraud, abuse and anti-kickback laws and regulations.

In order to remain current with the regulatory environment, Moore Medical employs a pharmacist who serves as Senior Manager of Regulatory Affairs. This individual heads the department which is responsible for monitoring all pharmaceutical sales for compliance with state and federal regulations as well as with Company policy. He works closely with the U.S. Drug Enforcement Agency to help spot potential abuses, and serves as a source of information for our customers regarding regulations and recalls. He is also a past president of the Connecticut Pharmacists Association and remains a member of their executive committee as well as sitting on the board of directors for the Connecticut Pharmacists Foundation.

Information Technology

Moore Medical continued its investment in information technology during fiscal 2003. These investments resulted in both improved business process efficiency and greater customer service capabilities. Moore Medical's information technology strategy demonstrated business benefit by investing in industry-proven, scalable, and re-usable toolsets. These technologies can be leveraged across multiple business processes and needs, as opposed to various point solutions that present limited capability and diminished return on investment.

Moore Medical's information systems were largely unaffected by numerous internet-based attacks and personal computer viruses. During fiscal year 2003, Moore Medical implemented tools to maintain data confidentiality, availability and integrity. Through the use of various intrusion detection systems, anti-virus software, and web/e-mail filtering, the company ensured consistent system performance during a year of significant internet-based electronic threats.

In July 2003, the Company implemented the Avaya DEFINITY® telephony platform for use in its corporate facilities and customer support centers. The system provides improved information and functionality which allows Moore Medical to optimize telephone call handling and staffing requirements. This system enables remote agent capability, allowing customer support representatives to assist Moore Medical's customers from alternate locations during inclement weather events.

Moore Medical continued in its strategy to benefit from real-time business process integration with its Enterprise Resource Planning system. During fiscal 2003, the Company streamlined and automated its process for creating, entering, and propagating new product information into required information systems. Through the use of .NET® technology from Microsoft Corporation, the Company was able to significantly reduce the timeframe from product inception to customer sale, while alleviating much of the manual processing effort for Moore Medical employees.

Employees

As of December 27, 2003, the Company had approximately 295 full time employees and 11 part time employees (or 300 full-time equivalents), none of whom had collective bargaining agreements. Overall, the Company considers its employee relations to be good.

Results of Operations for the Years Ended December 27, 2003, December 28, 2002 and December 29, 2001

FISCAL 2004 DEVELOPMENT

On January 19, 2004, Moore Medical Corp. (the Company or Moore Medical) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger) with McKesson Corporation (McKesson). Pursuant to the terms of the Merger, McKesson will acquire each outstanding share of Moore Medical common stock for $12.00 in cash, or approximately $40 million in the aggregate. Moore Medical shareholder approval is required to consummate the Merger and a meeting to obtain shareholder approval has been scheduled for March 30, 2004. The acquisition is expected to be completed in the Company's second fiscal quarter of 2004. Upon consummation of the Merger, Moore Medical will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of McKesson. The Company incurred legal and consulting fees of approximately $0.5 million during fiscal 2003 related to the proposed Merger between the Company and McKesson.

OVERVIEW

Moore Medical is an Internet-enabled, integrated multi-channel marketer and distributor of medical, surgical and pharmaceutical products to health care practices and facilities in non-hospital settings nationwide, including: physicians, emergency medical technicians, schools, correctional institutions, municipalities, occupational/industrial health doctors and nurses, and other specialty practice communities. The Company markets and serves its customers through direct mail, industry-specialized telephone support staff, field sales representatives, customer community affiliates and the Internet. Its direct marketing and distribution business has been in operation for 55 years. The Company operates principally from three distribution facilities located in the United States with nearly 100% of its revenues from customers in the United States.

The Company incurred legal and consulting fees of approximately $0.5 or $0.12 per share during fiscal 2003 related to the Merger during fiscal 2003. It is expected that the Company will incur approximately $1.5 million in additional legal and consulting expenses in fiscal 2004 related to the Merger.

On November 6, 2003, the Company amended its $15 million revolving line of credit agreement with its lender and extended the maturity date to June 30, 2006. Interest is charged at the prime rate, plus or minus 25 basis points or, at the option of the Company, at the LIBOR rate plus a margin ranging from 1.5% to 2.0% depending on the financial leverage of the Company. As of December 27, 2003, the Company was in violation of the earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) financial covenant contained in its revolving line of credit agreement for the two quarters ending December 27, 2003. On March 23, 2004, the Company's lender waived the EBITDA financial covenant violation for the two quarters ending December 27, 2003. Additionally, the Merger with McKesson allows the lender to exercise certain rights with respect to the loan agreement. In February 2004, the Company repaid the amounts outstanding on the loan agreement. The Company has been notified by McKesson that McKesson does not intend to use the loan agreement subsequent to the completion of the Merger.

On February 13, 2002, as a result of favorable interest rates on the Company's revolving line of credit, the Company utilized approximately $4.6 million of its revolving line of credit to pay off the government settlement note. The government settlement note related to a settlement with the U.S. Government over a pricing error by our former wholesale division under Federal supply contracts entered into in 1991. The government settlement note was to be repaid over a five year period at higher interest rates. The interest rate on borrowings in fiscal 2002 on the revolving line of credit averaged 5.25% while the government settlement note had interest rates ranging from 5.30% to 7.30% over five years.

In July 2002, the Company completed its purchase of the remaining 49% interest it did not previously own in Podiatry Online, an on line information site and electronic newsletter. The total purchase price of $750,000 was made with cash in the amount of $500,000 and 33,566 shares of the Company's common stock with an aggregate value of $250,000.

Table of ContentsCHANGES IN RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following table represents selected financial information, expressed as a percentage of net sales:

	2003	2002	2001
Net sales	100%	100%	100%
Cost of products sold	72.6	72.8	73.4
Gross profit	27.4	27.2	26.6

General and administrative expenses	20.2	18.1	19.3

Net Sales

Net sales for fiscal 2003 were $141.7 million, an increase of $3.9 million or 2.8% from net sales of $137.8 million for the comparable period of fiscal 2002. The increase was primarily attributable to increased volumes in certain specialty markets, new product introductions and increased prices. In the aggregate, sales growth fell short of the Company's expectations for the year; however, the Company expects to realize sales growth in fiscal 2004 in several of its specialty markets that were the focus of investments in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2002 and in fiscal 2003. The Company's sales growth occurred primarily in its public sector and podiatry markets, offset by decreases in the occupational health and reseller markets. The overall net sales growth was supported by the Company's growth in Internet-based revenue. Internet-based revenue increased $3.4 million, or 23.8%, to $17.7 million in fiscal 2003 compared to $14.3 million for the same period a year ago. Internet revenue as a percentage of net sales increased to 12.5% in fiscal 2003 from 10.4% in fiscal 2002.

Net sales for fiscal 2002 were $137.8 million, an increase of $5.0 million or 3.8% from net sales of $132.8 million for the comparable period of fiscal 2001. The increase was equally attributable to increases in prices and in sales volume. The development and implementation of more effective targeted marketing campaigns contributed to the volume increase. The Company's sales growth occurred primarily in its public sector and podiatry markets. The overall net sales growth was supported by the Company's Internet-based revenue as more customers took advantage of the Company's enhanced web-based channel. Internet-based revenue increased $3.5 million, or 32.4%, to $14.3 million in fiscal 2002 compared to $10.8 million for the same period a year ago.

Gross Margin

Gross margin remained relatively level at 27.4% in fiscal 2003, compared to 27.2% in fiscal 2002. The level gross margin percentage in fiscal 2003 as compared to fiscal 2002 was due in part to less sales volume in relatively lower margin vaccines and continued realization of benefits from our supply chain initiatives, partially offset by competitive pricing pressures in certain markets and aggressive pricing associated with gaining entry into competitively held new accounts.

Edgar Filing: MOORE MEDICAL CORP - Form 10-K

Gross profit increased $1.3 million, or 3.5%, to $38.7 million for fiscal 2003 compared to $37.4 million for the same period a year ago. The increase is primarily attributable to increased sales volume in higher margin products and continued realization of benefits from our supply chain initiatives, offset by increased sales in lower margin vaccines.

The gross profit margin percentage increased to 27.2% in fiscal 2002 from 26.6% in fiscal 2001. The increase was primarily attributable to increased sales volume in higher margin products and continued realization of benefits from our supply chain initiatives, offset by increased sales in lower margin vaccines.

Sales and Marketing Expenses

Sales and marketing expenses increased by $1.0 million, or 9.3%, to $11.8 million in fiscal 2003 from $10.8 million in fiscal 2002. Sales and marketing expenses as a percentage of net sales increased to 8.3% in fiscal 2003 from 7.9% in fiscal 2002. The fiscal 2003 increase was attributable to increased sales and marketing salaries and benefits expenses to support the Company's multi-channel marketing and distribution strategy, and a result of the expansion of the field sales force in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2002, which continued into fiscal 2003. This increase was offset by continued efforts to establish and implement more effective targeted marketing campaigns, which resulted in a decrease in advertising expense in fiscal 2003 compared to fiscal 2002 of approximately $0.7 million, and growth in vendor advertising programs. The Company reduced advertising expense by approximately $0.3 million more in 2003 than in the prior year due to an increase in vendor advertising programs.

Sales and marketing expenses decreased by $1.1 million, or 9.2%, to $10.8 million in fiscal 2002 from $11.9 million in fiscal 2001. Sales and marketing expenses as a percentage of net sales decreased to 7.9% in fiscal 2002 from 9.0% in fiscal 2001. The decreases were due to continued efforts to establish and implement more effective targeted marketing campaigns and growth in vendor advertising programs. The Company recorded approximately $0.4 million more in revenue from vendor advertising programs in fiscal 2002 than in fiscal 2001. During the second half of fiscal 2002, the Company made a strategic decision to increase its field sales force by adding experienced capital equipment representatives for the Primary Care Market. As a result of the additional field sales force hired to support the new strategy of selling physician in-office testing equipment, the Company made significant investments in the fourth quarter of 2002 in field sales representatives' training.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses increased by $3.6 million, or 14.4%, to $28.6 million in fiscal 2003 from $25.0 million in fiscal 2002. As a percentage of net sales, general and administrative expenses increased to 20.2% in fiscal 2003 compared to 18.1% in the same period a year ago. The increase from fiscal 2002 was primarily related to increases in professional service and legal fees, bad debt expense and employee benefit expenses.

The Company incurred legal and consulting fees of approximately $0.5 million during fiscal 2003 related to the proposed Merger between the Company and McKesson. In addition, on July 31, 2003, the Company received an unfavorable court judgment requiring the Company to pay the legal fees of the plaintiff in a lawsuit filed against the Company by the estate of a former employee. The lawsuit related to employee benefits administration in 1993. The Company recorded $0.2 million of general and administrative expense in fiscal 2003 related to this judgment. During fiscal 2003, the Company experienced difficulties in its collection of accounts receivable recorded in prior years, particularly in smaller dollar volume customer accounts, which contributed to the increase in bad debt expense of $1.0 million. As a result of continued increases in medical insurance costs and the actuarially calculated net periodic pension expense, health and welfare expense and pension expense both increased by $0.3 million in fiscal 2003 compared to fiscal 2002.

General and administrative expenses decreased by $0.6 million, or 2.3%, to $25.0 million in fiscal 2002 from $25.6 million in fiscal 2001. As a percentage of net sales, general and administrative expenses decreased to 18.1% in fiscal 2002 compared to 19.3% in fiscal 2001. The decreases were due to the continued realization of benefits from cost containment initiatives.

Interest Expense

Interest expense for fiscal 2003 decreased to $158 thousand from $241 thousand for the same period a year ago, a decrease of 34.4%. The fair value of the interest rate cap at December 27, 2003 and December 28, 2002 was $0. Interest expense decreased primarily due to a reduction in the principal amount of borrowings under the Company's revolving line of credit.

Edgar Filing: MOORE MEDICAL CORP - Form 10-K

Interest expense for fiscal 2002 increased to $241 thousand from $209 thousand for the same period a year ago, an increase of 15.3%. The Company recorded $56 thousand of interest expense attributable to recording the fair value of the premium payment on the Company's interest rate cap agreement. Notwithstanding the $56 thousand expense recorded on the Company's interest rate cap agreement, interest expense decreased primarily due to lower interest rates in fiscal 2002 on the Company's borrowing under its revolving line of credit compared to higher interest rates in fiscal 2001 on the government settlement note.

Income Taxes

The effective income tax benefit rate was 20.1% for fiscal 2003 compared to the prior fiscal year's effective income tax rate of 28.6%. The difference between the Company's effective tax rate benefit and the federal statutory rate is due primarily to an increase in the valuation allowance for state income taxes and tax credits and the non-deductibility of certain merger related expenses.

Table of Contents

The effective income tax rate was 28.6% for fiscal 2002 compared to the prior fiscal year's effective income tax benefit rate of 32.9%. The difference between the Company's effective tax rate and the federal statutory rate is due primarily to state income taxes, a reduction in valuation allowances on state net operating loss carryforwards and adjustments to estimates on previously recorded income taxes.

Net Income (Loss)

Net loss was $1.5 million, or $0.46 per diluted share in fiscal 2003 compared with net income of $1.0 million, or $0.31 per diluted share for fiscal 2002.

Net income was $1.0 million, or $0.31 per diluted share for fiscal 2002, an improvement of $2.6 million or $0.83 per diluted share over fiscal 2001 in which the Company experienced a net loss of $1.6 million or $0.52 per diluted share.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

On January 26, 2001, the Company entered into a three-year bank financing agreement which provides up to $15 million in a collateralized revolving credit facility (loan agreement). On November 6, 2003, the Company amended its $15 million loan agreement with its lender and extended the maturity date to June 30, 2006. During the first fiscal quarter of 2002, the Company utilized its collateralized revolving credit facility to pay off the government settlement note in full to take advantage of the low interest rate environment. As of December 27, 2003, the Company was in violation of the earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) financial covenant contained in its revolving line of credit agreement for the two quarters ending December 27, 2003. On March 23, 2004, the Company's lender waived the EBITDA financial covenant violation for the two quarters ending December 27, 2003. Additionally, the Merger with McKesson allows the lender to exercise certain rights with respect to the loan agreement. In February 2004, the Company repaid the amounts outstanding on the loan agreement. The Company has been notified by McKesson that McKesson does not intend to use the loan agreement subsequent to the completion of the Merger.

The Company's cash and cash equivalents at December 27, 2003 totaled $0.1 million in the form of a certificate of deposit. With the exception of the $0.1 million certificate of deposit, all amounts of cash and cash equivalents are offset against outstanding borrowings on the loan agreement. As of December 27, 2003, the Company had $2.6 million outstanding on its loan agreement, a reduction of $1.7 million from outstanding borrowings of $4.3 million at December 28, 2002. This reduction is due to utilizing cash being generated from operations to pay down the outstanding borrowings on the loan agreement.

Net cash provided by operating activities was $4.8 million for fiscal 2003 and resulted primarily from net loss of $1.5 million and on non-cash charges of $4.7 million and a decrease in operating items of working capital of $1.6 million. Non-cash charges consisted primarily of depreciation expense of $2.7 million and bad debt expense of $2.2 million. The decrease in working capital needs was primarily due to a $0.6 million decrease in accounts receivable and a $0.4 decrease in other assets, but was offset by a $0.8 increase in accounts payable and a $0.4 million increase in inventory. The decrease in accounts receivable was primarily due to greater efforts in collecting accounts receivable in a more timely manner, but was offset by increases in net sales. The increase in accounts payable and accrued liabilities was primarily due to accrued legal and consulting fees at December 27, 2003 of $0.5 million related to the Merger with McKesson.

Net cash used in investing activities was $1.9 million in fiscal 2003 and consisted principally of the replacement of the communications infrastructure within the Company, the development of an enhanced work-flow tool and the purchase of computer equipment. The Company expects to invest approximately $0.5 million during fiscal 2004 in capital projects on computer infrastructure systems and operating efficiency initiatives.

Net cash used in financing activities of $2.9 million for fiscal 2003 is net of reduced borrowings on the Company's loan agreement by $1.7 million and a cash overdraft reduction of $1.3 million, offset by proceeds of $0.1 million from options exercised.

Cash Requirements

The Company believes that cash flows from operations and available cash and cash equivalents are adequate to fund the Company's operations for the foreseeable future.

Critical Accounting Policies

The Company's consolidated financial statements are based on the application of significant accounting policies, which require management to make significant estimates and assumptions. The Company believes the following are some of the more critical accounting policies that impact the Company's consolidated financial statements:

Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Subsequent actual outcomes could differ from those estimated and assumed. The more significant estimates and assumptions used by management in the preparation of the financial statements relate to the reserves established for uncollectible accounts receivable, obsolete and slow moving inventory and certain accrued liabilities.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts - The Company is required to use substantial judgment in estimating the collectibility of its accounts receivable. This estimate is based on various factors, including the length of time receivables are past due, economic conditions and historical experience.

Inventories - Inventories, consisting of products purchased for resale, are stated at the lower of average cost or market value. Market values are based on the net realizable value of the products. Estimates are used in the determination of the reserves for excess and obsolete inventories.

Goodwill - As a result of adopting Statement of Financial Accounting Standard (SFAS) No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, goodwill is no longer amortized, and the future economic benefit of the carrying value of goodwill is reviewed annually and whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value of goodwill may not be recoverable based on a fair value measurement. An impairment loss would be recorded in the period so determined.

Income Taxes - The liability method is used to calculate deferred income taxes. Under this method, deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized on temporary differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities, using applicable tax rates, and on tax carryforwards. Inherent in the measurement of these deferred balances are certain judgments and interpretations of existing tax law and other published guidance as applied to the Company's operations. The Company's effective tax rate considers management's judgment of expected tax liabilities in the various taxing jurisdictions within which it is subject to tax.

Pension - The determination of the Company's obligation and expense for pension is dependent on the Company's selection of certain assumptions used by actuaries in calculating such amounts. Those assumptions are described in Note 7 to the consolidated financial statements and include, among others, the discount rate, expected long-term rate of return on plan assets, and rates of increase in compensation. In accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, actual results that differ from the Company's assumptions are accumulated and amortized over future periods and therefore, generally affect the Company's recognized expense and recorded obligation in such future periods. While the Company believes that the assumptions are appropriate, significant differences in actual experience or significant changes in assumptions may materially affect pension obligations and the Company's future expense. Additionally, the Company has approved the freezing of benefits under the pension plan upon consummation of the McKesson Merger. The Company has not yet determined the impact of this action on future funding, expense or other items.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In April 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 149, Amendment of Statement 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. SFAS No. 149 amends and clarifies accounting for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, and for hedging activities under SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. SFAS No. 149 is effective for contracts entered into or modified after September 30, 2003.

In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 150, Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity. This statement requires that an issuer classify financial instruments that are within its scope as a liability. Many of those instruments were classified as equity under previous guidance. Most of the guidance in SFAS No. 150 is effective for all financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003. On November 5, 2003 the FASB issued FSP 150-3 which deferred the effective date of SFAS No. 150 indefinitely for certain monetarily redeemable non controlling interests. In addition, on November 7, 2003, the FASB issued FSP No. 150-4, which states that employee stock ownership plan shares (ESOP) which are mandatorily redeemable or free-standing agreements to repurchase ESOP shares are not within the scope of Statement 150.

In November 2002, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation (FIN) No. 45, Guarantor s Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others. FIN No. 45 clarifies and expands existing disclosure requirements for guarantees, including loan guarantees. The provisions of FIN No. 45 are effective for financial statements issued after December 15, 2002.

In January 2003, the FASB issued FIN No. 146, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities an Interpretation of Accounting Research Bulletin No. 51 (Revised in December 2003). FIN No. 46(R) clarifies rules for consolidated of special purpose entities.

In December 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 132 (Revised 2003), Employers Disclosures about Pensions and Other Postretirement Benefits, an amendment of FASB Statements No. 87, 88 and 106. This statement revises employers disclosures about pension plans and other postretirement benefit plans.

The adoption of these statements did not have a material impact on the Company s consolidated financial position, consolidated results of operations or consolidated cash flows.

ITEM 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Interest Rate Risk

As described in the notes to the financial statements included in this Form 10-K, the Company maintains a collateralized bank financing agreement, which provides up to a $15 million revolving line of credit maturing on June 30, 2006. Interest is charged at the prime rate, plus or minus 25 basis points or, at the option of the Company, at the LIBOR rate plus a margin ranging from 1.5% to 2.0% depending on the financial leverage of the Company. In February 2002, the Company purchased a 30-month interest rate cap in the notional amount of $3.0 million with a cap rate of 4.0% to hedge against an increase in interest rates. At December 27, 2003 and December 28, 2002, the fair value of the Interest Rate Cap was $0. The Company does not expect changes in interest rates to have a material effect on income or cash flows in fiscal 2004, since the Company repaid the amount outstanding on the revolving line of credit in February 2004.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Fiscal 2004 Developments

On January 19, 2004, Moore Medical Corp. (the Company or Moore Medical) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger) with McKesson Corporation (McKesson). Pursuant to the terms of the Merger, McKesson will acquire each outstanding share of Moore Medical common stock for $12.00 in cash, or approximately $40 million in aggregate. Moore Medical shareholder approval is required to consummate the Merger and a meeting to obtain shareholder approval has been scheduled for March 30, 2004. The acquisition is expected to be completed in the Company s second fiscal quarter of 2004. Upon consummation of the Merger, Moore Medical will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of McKesson. The Company incurred legal and consulting fees of approximately $0.5 million during fiscal 2003 related to the proposed Merger between the Company and McKesson.

General - Moore Medical is an Internet-enabled, integrated multi-channel marketer and distributor of medical, surgical and pharmaceutical products to health care practices and facilities in non-hospital settings nationwide, including: physicians, emergency medical technicians, schools, correctional institutions, municipalities, occupational/industrial health doctors and nurses, and other specialty practice communities. The Company markets and serves our customers through direct mail, industry-specialized telephone support staff, field sales representatives, customer community affiliates and the Internet. Its direct marketing and distribution business has been in operation for 55 years. The Company operates principally from three distribution facilities located in the United States with nearly 100% of its revenues from customers in the United States.

Principles of Consolidation - The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiary using the fiscal year-ends discussed below. All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. The results of operations of companies acquired in purchase business transactions are included in the accompanying consolidated financial statements from the dates of acquisition.

Fiscal Year - The Company s fiscal year ends on the Saturday closest to December 31. The fiscal years ended December 27, 2003, December 28, 2002 and December 29, 2001 were comprised of 52 weeks.

Reclassifications Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Subsequent actual outcomes could differ from those estimated and assumed. The more significant estimates and assumptions used by management in the preparation of the financial statements relate to the reserves established for uncollectible accounts receivable, obsolete and slow moving inventory and certain accrued liabilities.

Cash and Cash Equivalents Represents a certificate of deposit with a bank, scheduled to mature in fiscal 2004.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts The Company is required to use substantial judgment in estimating the collectibility of its accounts receivable. This estimate is based on various factors, including the length of time receivables are past due, economic conditions and historical experience.

Inventories - Inventories, consisting of products purchased for resale, are stated at the lower of average cost or market value. Market values are based on the net realizable value.

Property and Equipment Property and equipment is recorded at cost. Depreciation is provided on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Table of ContentsEstimated Useful Lives

Equipment	7 years
Furniture & Fixtures	7 years
Computer equipment and software	3-5 years
Leasehold improvements	Shorter of asset life or lease term

Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. Major improvements to equipment are capitalized. The cost of assets sold or retired and the related amounts of accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts in the year of disposal, and any resulting gain or loss is included in income.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets The Company regularly evaluates the recoverability of the net carrying value of its property and equipment when an indicator of impairment is present by comparing the carrying values to the estimated future undiscounted cash flows and fair value of the long-lived asset. An impairment loss is recognized when the carrying value of the long-lived asset exceeds its undiscounted future cash flows. The impairment write-down would be the difference between the carrying amounts and the fair value of these long-lived assets. A loss on impairment would be recognized through a charge to earnings. No impairment losses have been recognized during the fiscal years ended December 27, 2003, December 28, 2002 or December 29, 2001.

Goodwill - Goodwill is included in other assets. As a result of adopting Statement of Financial Accounting Standard (SFAS) No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, goodwill is no longer amortized, but the future economic benefit of the carrying value of goodwill is reviewed annually and whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value of goodwill may not be recoverable based on a fair value measurement, an impairment loss would be recorded in the period so determined. No impairment losses have been recognized during the years ended December 27, 2003, December 28, 2002 or December 29, 2001.

Revenue Recognition - Revenues are recorded upon transfer of title to customers. Revenue from freight charged to customers is recognized when products are shipped. The Company makes estimates and assumptions and uses judgment relating to estimates for product returns in the period the related sales are recorded.

Discounts Sales discounts are negotiated with customers prior to billing and revenue is initially recorded net of negotiated sales discounts.

Product Returns Customer returns have historically been insignificant. However, the Company does record a liability for the insignificant amount of estimated sales returns based upon historical experience. The Company's specific return policies include accepting returns for damaged and expired products.

Advertising - The cost of direct response catalog advertising is deferred and amortized over the period of expected revenues. Direct response catalog advertising consists primarily of catalog production expenses and related postage costs. Catalogs are effective for varying time periods but the largest catalogs are generally effective for less than a year. Advertising expenses reimbursed under vendor advertising programs from vendors are recognized in the period the catalog is shipped. At December 27, 2003 and December 28, 2002, approximately $283,000 and $391,000, respectively, of direct response advertising costs were deferred and included in other noncurrent assets. Direct response advertising costs totaled approximately $1,676,000, $2,561,000 and $4,579,000, net of advertising reimbursement from vendors of approximately $1,133,000, $872,000 and $460,000, in fiscal years 2003, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

Edgar Filing: MOORE MEDICAL CORP - Form 10-K

Freight The Company records freight costs in accordance with Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) No. 00-10, Accounting for Shipping and Handling Fees and Costs . Amounts billed to customers upon shipment of product are recorded as revenue. Freight costs billed and not billed to customers are recorded in cost of products sold.

Income Taxes - The liability method is used to calculate deferred income taxes. Under this method, deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for temporary differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities, using applicable tax rates, and on tax carryforwards.

Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities The Company records derivatives on the balance sheets as assets or liabilities, measured at fair value. Gains or losses resulting from changes in the values of those derivatives are reported in the consolidated statements of operations or as accumulated other comprehensive income (loss), depending on the use of the derivatives and whether they qualify for hedge accounting. In order to qualify for hedge accounting, the derivative must be highly effective in achieving offsetting changes in fair value or cash flows of the hedged items during the term of the hedge.

Basic and Diluted Net (Loss) Income Per Share - Basic earnings per share computations are determined based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. The effect of the exercise and conversion of all diluted securities, including stock options, are included in the diluted earnings per share calculation if the effect of assumed conversion has a dilutive effect.

Stock Based Compensation The Company accounts for stock-based compensation plans under Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees. Accordingly, no compensation expense was included in the determination of net (loss) income for the fiscal years ended 2003, 2002 and 2001 since the exercise price of options was not below fair market value at the date of the grant. The following table illustrates the impact on net (loss) income for the periods presented had the Company recorded stock-based compensation using a fair value based method for the determination of net (loss) income. The amounts presented below for the years ended December 28, 2002 and December 29, 2001 have been restated from amounts previously reported.

The fair value is estimated based on the Black Scholes option-pricing model. The weighted average assumptions for each of the fiscal years ended 2003, 2002 and 2001 are as follows:

Note 2 - Business Combination

In July 2002, the Company completed its purchase of the remaining 49% interest it did not previously own in Podiatry Online, an online information site and electronic newsletter. The purchase of Podiatry Online created a sales channel to serve podiatrists nationwide. The total purchase price of $750,000 was made with cash in the amount of $500,000 and 33,566 shares of the Company's common stock with an aggregate value of $250,000. The acquisition was recorded as a purchase transaction, with $750,000 recorded as goodwill.

Table of ContentsNote 3 - Goodwill

The initial evaluation of goodwill for impairment was performed as of January 1, 2002. An annual evaluation is performed to test for goodwill impairment by applying a fair value based test. The Company recorded no impairment losses in fiscal 2003, 2002 and 2001.

Included in other noncurrent assets is goodwill of $1.7 million at December 27, 2003 and December 28, 2002, which represent the excess of the purchase price paid over the fair value of the net assets acquired in the acquisitions of Podiatry Online and MERGInet Medical Resources.

The following table shows the changes in carrying value of goodwill:

Amounts in thousands	2003	2002

As described in Note 7, the Company recorded an intangible pension asset of approximately $18,000 and $23,000 at December 27, 2003 and December 28, 2002, respectively, as a result of the accumulated benefit obligation exceeding plan assets.

Note 4 - Earnings Per Share

A reconciliation of shares used in calculating basic and diluted EPS follows (in thousands):

	Years Ended
	December 27, 2003	December 28, 2002	December 29, 2001
Basic EPS	3,190	3,168	3,144
Effect of assumed conversion of employee stock options		16
Diluted EPS	3,190	3,184	3,144

Employee stock options to purchase approximately 211,000 and 265,000 shares of common stock were outstanding during fiscal 2003 and 2001, but were excluded from the calculation of diluted EPS due to being anti-dilutive.

Table of ContentsNote 5 Property and Equipment

Property and equipment and accumulated depreciation are summarized as follows:

Amounts in thousands	2003	2002
Equipment	$ 3,719	$ 3,839
Furniture & fixtures	843	877

	$ 5,307	$ 6,254

Depreciation expense on property and equipment was $2,708,000, $3,080,000 and $2,867,000 in fiscal 2003, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

Note 6 Debt

On January 26, 2001, the Company entered into a collateralized bank financing agreement (the Loan Agreement), which provides up to a $15 million revolving line of credit which was to mature on January 26, 2004. On November 6, 2003, the Company amended the $15 million loan agreement with its lender and extended the maturity date to June 30, 2006. Interest is charged at the prime rate, plus or minus 25 basis points or, at the option of the Company, at the LIBOR rate plus a margin ranging from 1.5% to 2.0% depending on the financial leverage of the Company. The Company pays a commitment fee ranging from 0.20% to 0.30% per annum on the unused line of credit. With the exception of the $0.1 million certificate of deposit, all amounts of cash and cash equivalents are required to be offset against outstanding borrowings on the loan agreement.

In consideration for the Loan Agreement, the Company has collateralized all of the Company's assets (current and future existence) over the term of the credit facility. Pursuant to the Loan Agreement, the Company covenants that as long as it has any obligations or commitments to the lender, the Company will be subject to financial covenants involving consolidated tangible net worth, minimum earnings requirements and a leverage ratio calculation. These covenant targets fluctuate over the course of the term of the collateralized bank financing agreement.

At December 27, 2003, the Company was in violation of the earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) financial covenant contained in its revolving line of credit agreement for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2003. On March 23, 2004, the Company's lender waived the EBITDA financial covenant violation for the two quarters ending December 27, 2003. Additionally, the Merger with McKesson allows the lender to exercise certain rights with respect to the Loan Agreement. In February 2004, the Company repaid the amounts outstanding on the Loan agreement. The Company has been notified by McKesson that McKesson does not intend to use the Loan Agreement subsequent to the completion of the Merger.

Edgar Filing: MOORE MEDICAL CORP - Form 10-K

In addition, the Company was in violation of the earnings before interest and taxes (EBIT) financial covenant contained in the Loan Agreement for the quarters ended March 29, 2003 and June 28, 2003. The Company received a waiver from its lender for the covenant violation at March 29, 2003. For the covenant violation at June 28, 2003, the Company and its lender amended certain financial covenants effective for the quarter ended June 28, 2003. As of June 28, 2003, the Company was in compliance with the EBIT financial covenant, as amended.

At December 28, 2002, the Company was in violation of the consolidated tangible net worth and (EBIT) financial covenants contained in the Loan Agreement for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2002. On March 27, 2003, the Company and its lender amended certain financial covenants and conditions of the Loan Agreement effective for the period ended December 28, 2002, including the consolidated tangible net worth and EBIT financial covenants. As of December 28, 2002, the Company was in compliance with the financial covenants, as amended.

On February 1, 2001, the Company signed an agreement with the U.S. Government settling a pricing error by its former wholesale division under federal supply contracts entered into in 1991. In 1997, the Company voluntarily disclosed the error to the Government and established a $3.8 million reserve. In the fourth quarter of 2000, an additional $2.5 million reserve was recorded for the liability and associated legal costs. In settlement, the Company agreed to pay the government a total of $5.2 million (government settlement note), including $0.5 million on signing, and $4.7 million over five years. On February 13, 2002, the Company utilized approximately $4.6 million of its revolving line of credit to pay off the government settlement note.

Table of Contents

On February 15, 2002, the Company purchased a 30-month interest rate cap in the notional amount of $3.0 million with a cap rate of 4.0% to hedge against an increase in interest rates. The Company paid a $56,000 premium to enter into the cap. The premium payment was recorded as an asset in accordance with SFAS No. 133, as amended, Accounting for Derivatives and Hedging Activity. Under this standard, all derivative instruments are recorded at fair value on the balance sheets and all changes in fair value are recorded to earnings or to shareholders' equity through other comprehensive income (loss). The fair value of the interest rate cap at December 27, 2003 and December 28, 2002 was $0.

The weighted average interest rate on all borrowings was 4.1% and 5.3% for fiscal 2003 and 2002, respectively. Cash payments for interest totaled approximately $163,000, $265,000 and $206,000 in fiscal 2003, 2002 and 2001 respectively.

Note 7 - Employee Benefits

All employees meeting eligibility requirements participate in the Company's defined benefit pension plan under which pension benefits are based on the employee's highest consecutive five-year average annual compensation. The Company's funding policy is to comply with the minimum funding requirements set by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA).

The expected return on plan assets is determined on an annual basis, with input from the Company as well as an outside pension consultant. Every attempt is made to maintain a long-term investment horizon (e.g., 10 years or more) in developing the expected rate of return assumption, and the impact of current/short-term market factors is not permitted to exert a disproportionate influence on the process. The expected return on plan assets does not represent the forecasted return for the near term; rather, it represents a best estimate of normalized capital market returns over the next decade or more, based on the target asset allocation in effect.

Asset Allocation Constraints: Because of their liquidity, diversification and cost efficiency, the trustees of the Company's defined pension benefit plan (the Trustees) have elected to use mutual funds as the investment vehicles for Plan assets. The Trustees believe that the Plan's risk and liquidity posture is a function of asset class mix. The Trustees have reviewed the long-term performance characteristics of various asset classes, focusing on balancing the risks and rewards of market behavior. The following asset classes were selected:

- Domestic mid-large capitalization equities
- Domestic small capitalization equities
- International equities developed and emerging countries
- Fixed Income securities

Based on the Plan's time horizon, risk tolerances, performance expectations, and asset class preferences, an efficient portfolio has been developed. The strategic asset allocation of the Plan is as follows:

	Asset Allocation
	Lower Limit	Strategic Allocation	Upper Limit
Domestic mid-large capitalization equities	35%	45%	55%
Domestic small capitalization equities	5%	10%	15%
International equities	5%	10%	15%
Total Equity		65%
Fixed income:
Bonds & money market	30%	35%	40%
Total Fixed Income		35%

Rebalancing of Strategic Allocation: The percentage allocation to each asset class may vary depending on market conditions. At no time will the tactical mix exceed 70% equity. The investment portfolio will be re-balanced semi-annually or as contributions/withdrawals occur throughout the year. Asset transfers, liquidations and purchases to achieve the desired asset allocation are approved by the Trustees when these events occur.

Cash Contributions

The Company expects to contribute approximately $590,000 to its pension plan during fiscal 2004 (see Note 13).

Provisions of SFAS No. 87, Employers' Accounting for Pensions, require the recognition of an additional liability and related intangible asset if the accumulated benefit obligation exceeds plan assets. At December 27, 2003 and December 28, 2002, $825,000 and $832,000, respectively, was recorded as a liability with a related intangible asset of $18,000 and $23,000, respectively. The additional liability exceeded the unrecognized prior service cost resulting in a reduction in shareholders' equity of $0.9 million and $1.1 million, net of $0.5 million and $0.6 million of income taxes at December 27, 2003 and December 28, 2002, respectively.

In addition to the pension plan, the Company has a 401(k) defined contribution retirement plan available to employees meeting eligibility requirements. This plan provides for Company non-discretionary matching contributions in an amount equal to 50% of employee pretax contributions subject to a maximum of 6% of employee's eligible compensation contributed to the plan. The plan allows for the Company to reduce its expense to the plan with amounts forfeited by non-vested terminated employees. The Company's expense in connection with this plan for fiscal years 2003, 2002 and 2001 amounted to approximately $224,000, $30,000 and $139,000, respectively.

Note 8 - Income Taxes

The income tax benefit (provision) consists of the following:

Statutory federal income tax rate	34.0%	34.0%	34.0%
State income taxes, net of federal tax benefit	0.8	(5.4)	1.9

The effective income tax rates of 20.1%, 28.6% and 32.9% in fiscal 2003, 2002 and 2001, respectively, were lower than the Federal statutory rate due primarily to certain non-deductible expenses and changes in the valuation allowance on the state net operating losses and tax credits

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON SUPPLEMENTAL SCHEDULE

To the Board of Directors of Moore Medical Corp.

New Britain, Connecticut

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The schedule of valuation and qualifying accounts at December 27, 2003 and for the year then ended is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. This schedule is the responsibility of the Company's management. Such schedule of valuation and qualifying accounts at December 27, 2003 and for the year then ended has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects when considered in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.
