Severance and Separation Agreements

Severance agreements are in effect between the Company and the following named executive officers: Messrs. Cumming, Muir and Cascella and Dr. Stein. The agreements are intended to encourage the executives to continue to carry on their duties in the event of a change of control of the Company. The agreements provide that 30 days after a change of control, the Company shall pay the executive a lump sum in cash equal to the sum of the executive's annual salary for the fiscal year immediately preceding the change of control plus the executive's highest annual bonus, multiplied by three. In addition, the agreements provide that, upon a change of control, all unvested stock options or stock appreciation rights held by the executive shall become immediately exercisable for a one year period following the executive's termination date. These severance agreements confer no benefits prior to a change of control. In the event that any payments received by the executive in connection with a change of control are subject to the excise tax imposed upon certain change of control payments under federal tax laws, the agreements provide that the Company's auditing firm immediately preceding the change of control shall compute the excise tax imposed on the executive and the Company shall pay that amount to the executive to provide the executive with a payment that is economically equivalent to the payment he would have received but for the imposition of the excise tax. Under the terms of these severance agreements, if the executive remains employed through the one year anniversary of a change of control, then the executive will receive a special bonus (the "special bonus") equal to the sum of the executive's annual salary and highest annual bonus (as defined in the agreements). In addition, if termination of an executive's employment occurs within the three-year period following a change of control of the Company and such termination is by the Company (or its successor) without cause or termination is by the executive for good reason, then the executive will be entitled to receive, among other things, in a lump sum in cash: (i) the executive's accrued salary; (ii) a pro rata portion of such executive's highest annual bonus; (iii) to the extent not previously paid, the special bonus; (iv) continued welfare benefits for a period of one year; and (v) any compensation previously deferred by the executive and any accrued bonus amounts or vacation pay.

The Company also has separation agreements with Messrs. Cumming, Muir, Pekarsky and Soltani. Under the terms of these agreements, if the executive's employment is terminated for any reason other than cause, the executive will receive a separation package which will include a salary contribution of up to one year of base salary and continued medical and dental benefits up to the earlier of one year or such time as the executive becomes re-employed. The separation agreements for Messrs. Pekarsky and Soltani survive a change in control, but cannot be triggered by a change in control or any voluntary separation notice given by the executive. These separation agreements for Messrs. Cumming and Muir do not survive a change in control.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Decisions regarding executive compensation are made by the Company's Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, which is currently composed of Irwin Jacobs, David LaVance, William A. Peck, and Nancy Leaming. The Compensation Committee also administers the Company's stock option and incentive plans, Executive Bonus Program and Key Employee Bonus and Retention Program, and 401(k) Profit-Sharing Plan. None of the members of the Compensation Committee has ever been an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries and no executive officer of the Company serves on the board of directors of any company at which any of the Compensation Committee members is employed.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, consisting entirely of independent non-management directors, approves all policies under which compensation is paid or awarded to the Company's executive officers. For fiscal 2004, the Committee was comprised of Messrs. Jacobs and LaVance, Dr. Peck and Ms. Leaming.

The Company's Compensation Philosophy and Plan

The Company's executive compensation program is designed to attract and retain superior executive talent, to provide incentives and rewards to executive officers who will contribute to the long-term success of the Company and to closely align the interests of executives with those of the Company's stockholders.

The Committee reviews the Company's executive compensation program through the application of the subjective business judgment of each of its members and through an informal survey of executive compensation programs of peer companies. The Compensation Committee does not use a quantitative method or use a mathematical formula to set any element of compensation for a particular executive officer. The Compensation Committee uses discretion and considers all elements of an executive's compensation package when setting each portion of compensation which is based upon corporate performance and individual initiatives and performance. The principal elements of the Company's executive compensation program consist of: (i) base annual salary, (ii) executive bonus program and (iii) equity awards.

Base Annual Salaries. Base annual salaries for executive officers are initially determined by evaluating the responsibilities of the position and the experience and knowledge of the individual. Also taken into consideration is the competitiveness of the marketplace for executive talent, including a comparison of base annual salaries for comparable positions at peer companies. Individual adjustments are made at the discretion of the Compensation Committee, taking into consideration factors such as the Company's performance and the Compensation Committee's subjective perception of the individual's performance.

Executive Bonus Program. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors approved an Executive Bonus Program for fiscal 2004 under which executive officers, senior management and key contributors selected by the Compensation Committee were eligible for cash bonuses up to 100% of the executive's base compensation, stock options and stock grants, awarded at the discretion of the Compensation Committee, to be paid in the first quarter of fiscal 2005. This program is designed to attract and retain key talent and is directly related to the Company's success and to an overall increase in shareholder value. To qualify for a bonus under this program, executive officers are measured against a combination of strategic, corporate, divisional and individual goals and overall market conditions. Considerations include an evaluation of comparable salary and incentive data within the medical device industry, overall and divisional revenues and profitability, new product development and introductions, and improved shareholder value. Based on an evaluation of the foregoing, including in particular the Company's overall profitability and appreciation in shareholder value during fiscal 2004, bonuses aggregating $1,130,000 were granted under the Executive Bonus Program to the Company's executive officers. See Executive Compensation Summary Compensation Table .

Equity Awards. The third component of executive officers' compensation are equity awards in the form of stock options.

Stock options are designed to align the interests of the executive with those of the stockholders. Stock options are granted at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. These options generally vest at the rate of 20% or 25% per year, with the first installment vesting either at the end of one or two years, respectively, from the date of employment (for options granted upon initial employment) or the date of grant and are exercisable within ten years from the date of grant. The size of individual stock options are based upon the Committee's subjective review of the job responsibility and individual contribution to the Company's success. Previous stock options are considered when awards are determined. These equity awards are designed to provide incentives for the creation of long-term value for the Company's stockholders. During fiscal 2004, options to purchase an aggregate of 476,250 shares of the Company's Common Stock were granted to executive officers under the Company's stock option plans. Of such stock options, options to purchase 166,250 shares of the Company's Common Stock were granted on September 23, 2004 to executive officers with full vesting at the end of one year and are exercisable within five years from the date of grant.

Section 162(m)

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, provides that compensation in excess of $1,000,000 paid to the Chief Executive Officer or to any of the other four most highly compensated executive officers of a company will not be deductible for federal income tax purposes unless such compensation is paid pursuant to one of the enumerated exceptions set forth in Section 162(m). The Company's primary objective in designing and administering its compensation policies is to support and encourage the achievement of the Company's long term strategic goals and to enhance stockholder value. When consistent with this compensation philosophy, the Company also intends to attempt to structure its compensation programs such that compensation paid thereunder will be tax deductible by the Company. In general, stock options granted under the Company's 1999 Amended and Restated Equity Incentive Plan, as amended, are intended to qualify under and comply with the performance based compensation exemption provided under Section 162(m), thus excluding from the Section 162(m) compensation limitation any income recognized by executives pursuant to such stock options. The Committee intends to review periodically the potential impacts of Section 162(m) in structuring and administering the Company's compensation programs.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

In January 2004, Mr. Cumming's salary was increased to $440,000 from $400,000, which the Committee considered at the time to be comparable to the salaries of chief executive officers of peer companies based on the Committee's informal survey of executive compensation at peer companies. In fiscal 2004, Mr. Cumming received a bonus of $440,000 which was paid in the first quarter of fiscal 2005. In fiscal 2004, Mr. Cumming was instrumental in, among other things, driving the Company to increased revenues and earnings, expanding sales distribution efforts and developing new strategic alliances. In addition, in December 2002, in recognition of the exceptional service rendered to the Company by Mr. Cumming, the Compensation Committee approved a special bonus program to provide Mr. Cumming with the funds necessary to pay the quarterly installments due under an outstanding loan. The Company paid Mr. Cumming $338,718 under this special bonus program in fiscal 2004. See Certain Relationships and Related Transactions below.

Conclusion

Through these programs, a significant portion of the Company's executive compensation is linked directly to individual and Company performance in pursuance of strategic goals as well as stock price appreciation. The Compensation Committee intends to continue the policy of linking executive compensation to Company performance and stockholder return, recognizing however, that fluctuations in the operating results of the business may result over time.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

In January 2001, to assist John W. Cumming, the Company's Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and a director, in the purchase of a local primary residence in connection with his initial relocation to Danbury, Connecticut to take on the position of Senior Vice President and President of Lorad, the Company loaned Mr. Cumming the principal amount of $300,000 pursuant to a promissory note. In August 2001, in connection with Mr. Cumming's move to the Company's Massachusetts headquarters in order to assume the position of Chief Executive Officer and President, the Company loaned Mr. Cumming an additional principal amount of $200,000. This additional $200,000 loan was consolidated with the original loan into one $500,000 promissory note on the same terms as the original loan. The promissory note bears interest at the rate of 7.0% per year. In April 2002, the Board of Directors deferred the payment obligations under the note by one year, such that the note is now required to be repaid in quarterly installments of $41,666 plus interest, commencing April 1, 2003 until paid in full no later than April 1, 2006. In the event that the Company undergoes a change of control, the balance of the note will be forgiven. In the event Mr. Cumming's employment with the Company is terminated, either voluntarily or for cause, Mr. Cumming has agreed to repay the balance of the note.

In December 2002, in recognition of the exceptional service rendered to the Company by Mr. Cumming, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors approved a special bonus program to provide Mr. Cumming with the funds necessary to pay the quarterly installments due under the loan. Under the special bonus program, for so long as Mr. Cumming remains an officer of the Company and there are amounts remaining to be repaid under the loan, the Company will pay Mr. Cumming a special quarterly bonus equal to the amount due under the loan, including interest due, plus an additional payment equal to the taxes due as a result of the special bonus and such additional payment, such that the net-after-tax special quarterly bonus to be received by Mr. Cumming will equal the principal and interest then due under the loan. During fiscal 2004, the Company paid Mr. Cumming $338,718 under this special bonus program. As of the date of this proxy statement, an aggregate of $166,664 of principal on this loan remains outstanding.

In fiscal 2004, the Company paid Mr. Cumming's wife compensation in the aggregate amount of approximately $114,000 for services rendered to the Company in her capacity as the Company's Director of Marketing.

In fiscal 2004, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company determined that it would be in the best interests of the Company to assist Mr. Robert A. Cascella, the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer, in relocating his principal residence from Connecticut to Massachusetts so that Mr. Cascella would be able to perform his duties and responsibilities at the Company's principal executive offices located in Bedford, Massachusetts.

On December 15, 2004, the Company's Audit Committee determined to make certain payments pursuant to the Company's relocation program with a relocation company to assist Mr. Cascella in his relocation. In connection with the Company's relocation program, Mr. Cascella and the relocation company entered into a purchase and sale agreement pursuant to which the relocation company paid Mr. Cascella $551,904, which represented Mr. Cascella's equity value (representing the $820,000 purchase price less the amounts then outstanding under his mortgage, taxes, maintenance, utilities and insurance) in his Madison, CT residence. The relocation company is expected to attempt to resell Mr. Cascella's residence to a third party. After the signing of the purchase and sale agreement and through January 31, 2005, the date on which Mr. Cascella is expected to vacate his residence, Mr. Cascella remains responsible for paying taxes, maintenance, utilities, insurance and all other operating costs relating to the residence.

In connection with above-described transactions, on December 21, 2004, pursuant to the Company's relocation program with the relocation company, the Company paid the relocation company approximately $82,000, representing 10% of the purchase price as an advance against the relocation company's management fee and direct expenses associated with the sale of his residence. This amount may be adjusted based upon the timing and sale price of the residence at the closing. The Company has also agreed to pay the taxes, maintenance, utilities, insurance and all other operating costs and payments relating to the residence following the date on which Mr. Cascella vacates his residence through the date on which the sale is completed. In the event that the relocation company sells Mr. Cascella's residence for a price less than the purchase price paid to Mr. Cascella, the Company has agreed to pay the deficiency of such amount to the relocation company. In the event that the relocation company sells Mr. Cascella's residence for a price greater than the purchase price paid to Mr. Cascella, the relocation company will pay the surplus of such amount to the Company. As of January 10, 2005, no closing date for the sale of Mr. Cascella's Madison, CT residence has been set. In no event is Mr. Cascella required to repay any amounts he received from the relocation company or any amounts paid by the Company to the relocation company. In making its determination to approve the payments and transactions described above, the Company's Audit Committee, based upon the review of information presented to the Audit Committee, including, but not limited to, advice received from the relocation company and the receipt of appraisals from two independent real estate appraisers, concluded that the payments that the Company agreed to make were fair to and in the best interests of the Company.

On December 23, 2004, as part of Mr. Cascella's relocation to Massachusetts, the Company reimbursed Mr. Cascella for approximately $26,600 to cover relocation costs and expenses in connection with the purchase of his new residence in Massachusetts.
