Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or By-laws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Effective January 5, 2006, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Westinghouse Air Brake Technologies Corporation (the Company) approved certain changes to the Company's By-laws to eliminate some of the provisions that granted Board representation to certain former stockholders and members of management, and to reflect other corporate governance changes. The changes to the By-laws include:

Article II Meetings of Stockholders

Eliminated from Section 2 the requirement that Directors be elected in accordance with the provisions of that certain Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement dated as of March 4, 1997 (the Stockholders Agreement). Directors are now elected according to the provisions of the By-laws only.

Article III Directors

Section 1 was amended to incorporate the current classified board structure of three classes of directors for three years terms.

Eliminated from Section 1 the exclusive right of the Chairman of the Board to select members to serve on the Nominating Committee.

Eliminated from Section 1 provisions related to the Stockholders Agreement that was terminated, including the requirement that certain individuals such as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, another executive officer of the Company, at least three individuals who are not employees of the Company or its subsidiaries, one individual designated by Vestar Equity Partners, L.P. one individual designated by William E. Kassling, one individual designated by Harvard Private Capital Holdings, Inc., and Emilio A. Fernandez be nominated for election to the Board. Section 1 now provides that the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall nominate, subject to certain requirements, William E. Kassling and Emilio A. Fernandez for election to the Board.

Eliminated from Section 2 the provision that William E. Kassling shall continue to be the Chief Executive Officer and shall continue to serve as such until replaced by the Board in accordance with the provisions of any employment agreement.

Revised Section 7 to provide that each committee of the Board shall consist of two, rather than one, Director of the Company. Added provision that a majority of members of any committee then in office shall constitute a quorum and the act of a majority of those present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of such committee. In the absence of a quorum, the meeting may be adjourned.

The foregoing summary of such amendments is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Company's By-laws, as amended and restated effective January 6, 2006, filed as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
