PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Rambus Inc. (the Company) plans to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 (Form 10-K) as soon as practicable, but does not expect that it will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the required filing date as prescribed in Rule 12b-25.

As described in its current report on Form 8-K filed with Securities and Exchange Commission (the S.E.C.) on October 19, 2006, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors reported the findings of its independent investigation into historical stock option grants to the Company's Board of Directors. The Company's Board of Directors and management have indicated that they will continue to work with appropriate legal and accounting advisors to develop recommendations and to implement remedial measures to ensure that proper procedures are followed with respect to awards of equity compensation. In addition, the Company is evaluating Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting set forth in the Company's 2005 Annual Report. Although the Company has not yet completed its analysis, the results of the investigation confirm the Company's earlier determination that it is likely that the Company had a material weakness in internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2005. Until the restatement of the previously issued financial statements is completed, the Company will be unable to prepare and file its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006. The Company intends to file its Form 10-K as soon as practicable after the completion of the accounting, tax and legal analyses required as a result of the investigation.

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s). Yes  No

The Company has not filed its Form 10-Q for the quarterly periods ended June 30, 2006 and September 30, 2006, respectively.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As described in its current report on Form 8-K filed with S.E.C. on October 19, 2006, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors has concluded that the Company's previously issued financial statements for the fiscal years 2003, 2004, 2005, which are included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with respect to each of these fiscal years and the financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the first quarter of fiscal year 2006, should no longer be relied upon and will be restated. In addition, the restatement will affect financial statements for prior fiscal years and the Company will reflect those adjustments as a part of the opening balances in the financial statements for the restatement period. The Company preliminary estimates that the aggregate pre-tax, non-cash stock-based compensation charges in connection with its stock options investigation will be in excess of $200 million. Because the Audit Committee's review is not yet completed, the Company cannot provide a reasonable estimate and comparison of the results of its operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year at this time.
