First Data/KKR Partnership

Q&A

Last Updated: April 20, 2007

Employee Questions

When do you anticipate the transaction closing?

Completion of the transaction, which is subject to the approval of First Data shareholders, regulatory approvals and customary closing conditions, is expected by the end of the third quarter of 2007.

Is there any chance that KKR is going to split up our businesses and sell off the pieces?

There haven't been any up-front discussions with First Data's executive management along these lines. KKR plans to buy First Data to create long-term value.

Vacation

Will there be any changes to our vacation policy moving forward?

Decisions of this nature will be made in the normal course of business, and we are committed to updating you as decisions are made.

Long Term Incentives Plan (LTIP)

Will KKR gross-up our proceeds of options/RSA/RSUs to cover a significant portion of the tax obligation?

No. Proceeds will not be grossed up and applicable income taxes due on the gain will be each employee's responsibility. To the extent required by law, taxes and social security/social insurance will be withheld from the gross proceeds.

If we have stock options that have an exercise price which is higher than the $34.00 per share, what happens to them at the close of the deal?

All stock options will be cancelled at closing. Holders of stock options with an exercise price below $34.00 will be entitled to receive the difference between the exercise price and the merger consideration of $34.00, less any applicable tax withholdings. Holders of options with an exercise price at or above $34.00 will not be entitled to receive any payment in connection with the cancellation of those options.

I have stock options and RSA/Us, how do I get a complete list of my outstanding holdings?

You may view your current stock option and RSA/U balances on the Smith Barney website (www.benefitaccess.com). You may also contact Smith Barney at 1-617-570-9533.

Employee Stock Purchase Plan (ESPP)

Although I think that the KKR buyout will give First Data considerably more flexibility, I am personally going to miss the feeling of ownership. Do you think that there will be an opportunity for employees to purchase private stock or participate in some other form of profit sharing?

We do not have any information at this time. As information becomes available, we will share it with you.

How do I find out what my current ESPP holdings are?

You may view your current ESPP holdings on the Computershare website (www-us.computershare.com/employee) or you may contact Computershare directly at 1-866-839-0209.

How will the purchase price for the June 30th ESPP purchase be determined?

The purchase price for the 2nd quarter 2007 ESPP purchase will be determined by taking the lower of 1) the closing price on April 2nd 2007 or 2) the closing price on June 29th 2007, less a 15% discount.

Once the KKR buyout occurs, will I need to take action to receive my payout at $34.00 per share for my ESPP shares or will I automatically receive a check?

Once we close, FDC common stock will no longer be traded publicly, and your ESPP FDC shares will be purchased by KKR and you will be receive a check for the proceeds, net of any required deductions and withholding. You will receive a check at your home address. Please note that all First Data shareholders have rights under Delaware law to dissent to the purchase of their FDC shares by KKR, which will be described in detail in the definitive proxy statement.

The above is a brief summary of the applicable plans. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this information. In the unlikely event that there is a discrepancy between the above summary and the official plan documents, the official plan documents will control. The company reserves the right to amend, suspend or terminate the plans or programs at any time.
