Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

On October 18, 2007, a jury in Baldwin County, Alabama returned an adverse verdict against A. O. Smith Corporation (the Company) in a lawsuit alleging one of the Company's gas residential water heaters was the cause of an explosion resulting in the death of a 55-year-old male, Richard Krantz. The jury awarded the family of Mr. Krantz $50 million in damages.

The Company strongly disagrees with the verdict, and will appeal. The Company has a self-insured retention of $5 million and believes it has sufficient insurance above that amount to satisfy the verdict, if it stands on appeal.

The foregoing paragraph contains statements as to the Company's belief that the Company considers to be forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and as such are subject to risks and uncertainties, such as uncertainties associated with litigation, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated as of the date of this report. Forward-looking statements included in this report are made only as of the date of this report, and the Company is under no obligation to update these statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.
