Safe
Harbor
Statement
under
the
Private
Securities

Litigation Reform Act of 1995 A number of the matters discussed in this document that are not historical or current facts deal with potential future circumstances and developments, particular, information regarding expected synergies resulting from the merger of Cleveland-Cliffs and Alpha, combined operating and financial data,

the combined company s

plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and whether and when the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be consummated. The discussion of such matters is qualified by the inherent risks and uncertainties surrounding future expectations generally, and also may materially differ from actual future experience involving any one or more matters.

Such

risks

and

uncertainties

include:

may

not

be

fully

realized

or

take

longer

to

realize

than

expected;

changes

in

demand

for

iron

ore

industry;

timing of changes in customer coal inventories; changes in, renewal of and acquiring new long-term coal supply arrangements; inherent risks of coal mining beyond the combined company s control; environmental laws, including those directly affecting coal mining production, and those affecting customers' coal usage; competition in coal markets; railroad, barge, truck and

suppliers;

failure

obtain

governmental

approvals

transaction

proposed

terms

schedule,

any

conditions

imposed

combined

company

merger

by

stockholders

Cleveland-Cliffs

Alpha

satisfy

various other conditions to the closing of the merger contemplated by the merger agreement; and the risks that are described from time to time in Cleveland-Cliffs and Alpha s respective reports filed with the SEC, including each of Cleveland-Cliffs and Alpha s annual report on Form 10-K for the
