Announcement Regarding JOINT CORPORATION's Filing of a Petition for

Commencement of Corporate Rehabilitation Procedures

TOKYO, Japan May 29, 2009 ORIX Corporation (TSE: 8591; NYSE: IX), a leading integrated financial services group, in response to the petition for commencement of corporate rehabilitation procedures filed today with the Tokyo District Court by JOINT CORPORATION (TSE: 8874, Joint Corporation), in which ORIX has an investment, announced the impact that such event would have on the consolidated business results of ORIX.

The balance of ORIX's investment in Joint Corporation and its affiliates as of the end of March, 2009 amounts to 10.7 billion yen. Depending on the progress of the rehabilitation plan, it is possible that ORIX would be required to record a loss with respect to such investment. Although ORIX has granted a 20 billion yen line of credit to Joint Corporation, there are no performed or outstanding loans thereto.

There is no planned modification to the forecast of ORIX's consolidated business results for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2010 in connection with this event.
