ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

On December 17, 2010, Marshall & Ilsley Corporation, a Wisconsin corporation (M&I), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Bank of Montreal, a Schedule I Bank under the Bank Act (Canada) (BMO). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, M&I will merge with and into an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of BMO (Merger Sub), with Merger Sub continuing as the surviving entity (the Merger). Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, which has been approved by the Boards of Directors of both companies, upon completion of the Merger, each outstanding share of M&I common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.1257 (the Merger Consideration) of a share of BMO common stock (subject to the payment of cash in lieu of fractional shares). In addition, as of consummation of the Merger, outstanding M&I stock options and other stock-based awards will be converted into stock options and other stock-based awards with respect to shares of BMO s common stock, with adjustments to reflect the Merger Consideration.

Immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger, BMO will purchase from the United States Department of the Treasury (Treasury) all of the issued and outstanding shares of M&I s Senior Preferred Stock, Series B (the TARP Preferred Stock), for an aggregate cash purchase price equal to the sum of (1) the aggregate liquidation amount of such shares and (2) the amount of any accrued and unpaid dividends with respect to such shares (the TARP Purchase). In connection with the TARP Purchase, the parties expect that BMO will also purchase from Treasury the warrant that was issued to Treasury in connection with the issuance of the TARP Preferred Stock.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties from both M&I and BMO that, in the case of M&I s representations and warranties, are qualified by the confidential disclosures provided by M&I to BMO in connection with the Merger Agreement, as well as matters included in M&I s reports filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). M&I has agreed to various customary covenants and agreements, including, among others, (1) to conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice in all material respects during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Merger, (2) not to engage in certain kinds of transactions or take certain actions during this period (without the prior written consent of BMO), (3) to convene and hold a meeting of its shareholders to consider and vote upon the Merger, and (4) not to (A) solicit, initiate, or knowingly encourage any alternative proposal to acquire M&I, or (B) subject to certain exceptions, provide any non-public information in connection with any such proposal, or engage in any discussions or negotiations regarding any such proposal.

Completion of the Merger is subject to various customary conditions, including, among others, (a) approval of the Merger Agreement by M&I shareholders, (b) effectiveness of the registration statement for the BMO common stock to be issued in the Merger, (c) approval of the listing on the New York Stock Exchange and Toronto Stock Exchange of the BMO common stock to be issued in the Merger, (d) the absence of any law or order prohibiting the closing, of the Merger and (e) receipt of required regulatory approvals. Each party s obligation to consummate the Merger is also subject to certain additional customary conditions, including (i) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, (ii) performance in all material respects by the other party of its obligations and (iii) the receipt by such party of an opinion from its counsel to the effect that the Merger, together with the TARP Purchase (A) will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) and (B) will not result in gain recognition to the holders of M&I common stock pursuant to Section 367(a) of the Code. BMO s obligation to consummate the merger is further conditioned on (1) the absence of any condition to the receipt of a required regulatory approval that would have a material adverse effect on BMO, the surviving company or any of their respective affiliates (in each case measured on a scale relative to M&I) and (2) BMO s completion of the TARP Purchase.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for M&I and BMO, as the case may be, applicable upon: (1) final, non-appealable denial of required regulatory approvals or injunction prohibiting the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (2) the first anniversary of the date of the Merger Agreement if the Merger has not been completed by that time, (3) a breach by the other party that is not or cannot be cured within 60 days' notice of such breach if such breach would result in a failure of the conditions to closing set forth in the Merger Agreement, (4) a failure by the Board of Directors of M&I to recommend the Merger to its shareholders or M&I's material breach of its obligation to call, give notice of, convene and hold the M&I shareholders' meeting, (5) if M&I's shareholders fail to approve the Merger by the required vote, (6) if a tender or exchange offer for 20% or more of the outstanding shares of M&I's common stock is commenced (other than by BMO or its affiliates) and the M&I Board of Directors recommends that its shareholders tender their shares or otherwise fails to recommend that M&I shareholders reject such offer within a 10 business day period, and (7) if the M&I Board of Directors determines in good faith by a majority vote that BMO has substantially engaged in bad faith in breach of its obligations to negotiate a restructuring of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement if M&I's shareholders fail to approve the Merger.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The Merger Agreement has been included to provide security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide factual information about M&I, BMO or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, are solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties, or covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of M&I, BMO or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties, and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by M&I.

In connection with the Merger Agreement, M&I has granted to BMO an option to purchase, under certain circumstances, up to 104,096,963 shares of M&I common stock at a price, subject to certain adjustments, of $5.79 per share (the "Stock Option Agreement"). The foregoing description of the Stock Option Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Stock Option Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated into this report by reference.

Risk Factors in M&I's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 and as may be described from time to time in M&I's subsequent SEC filings, which factors are incorporated herein by reference. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which reflect only M&I's belief as of the date of this Form 8-K. Except as required by federal securities law, M&I undertakes no obligation to update these forward-looking statements or reflect events or circumstances after the date of this Form 8-K.
