Section 8 - Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events.

Dolby Laboratories, Inc. (the "Company") announced that Ray Dolby as Trustee of the Ray Dolby Trust under the Dolby Family Trust Instrument dated May 7, 1999 (the "Family Trust") adopted a Rule 10b5-1 trading plan in the second quarter of fiscal 2011.

The trading plan was established as part of the Family Trust's investment strategies for asset diversification and liquidity. The trading plan was adopted during an "open window" in accordance with guidelines specified by Rule 10b5-1 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and as permitted by the Company's insider trading policy.

A total of up to 3 million shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock (or approximately 5.1% of Ray Dolby's direct and indirect holdings as of February 14, 2011) could be sold under the Family Trust's trading plan. Sales under the trading plan may commence in May 2011, are based upon pre-established stock price thresholds, are subject to daily volume limits and will expire once all of the shares have been sold or May 31, 2012, whichever is earlier. Under the terms of the trading plan, absent amendment, the Family Trust may not make additional sales outside of the trading plan during the term of the trading plan. Actual sale transactions will be disclosed publicly through filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, as required.

Rule 10b5-1 allows persons who may be considered insiders to adopt pre-arranged written plans for trading specified amounts of stock. A plan establishes predetermined trading parameters that, among other things, do not permit the person adopting the plan to exercise subsequent influence over how, when or whether to effect trades. Once a plan has been properly adopted, trades may be executed pursuant to the terms of the plan at times when the person would otherwise be restricted from trading. Trading plans are designed to allow persons to sell shares in an orderly fashion for asset diversification, liquidity, tax planning and other purposes when they might otherwise be restricted from doing so due to material, non-public information that they might possess at the time of the sale.

The Company does not undertake any obligation to report Rule 10b5-1 trading plans that may be adopted by any of its officers, directors or stockholders in the future, or to report any modifications or terminations of any publicly announced plan, except to the extent required by law.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
