(b) On June 7, 2011, Richard J. Gultinan, Jr., Senior Vice President Finance and Chief Accounting Officer, Office of the Chief Financial Officer, formally informed Flowserve Corporation (the Company) of his decision to retire in 2012. The exact date of Mr. Gultinan's retirement is not yet determined. The Company has commenced an external search for a new Chief Financial Officer to replace the Company's current Office of the Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Gultinan has advised the Company that he will remain in his current positions and continue to serve as the Company's principal financial officer and principal accounting officer for external reporting purposes until the Company's new Chief Financial Officer is appointed, which the Company hopes to accomplish before the end of 2011. Following the appointment of the Company's new Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Gultinan plans to remain with the Company and report to the new Chief Financial Officer for a period of time to facilitate an orderly transition. Dean Freeman, who currently serves in the Office of the Chief Financial Officer with Mr. Gultinan, will remain with the Company as an officer with the title of Vice President and Treasurer after the new Chief Financial Officer is appointed.
