Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 12, 2011, the Board of Directors of Coeur d'Alene Mines Corporation (the "Company") appointed Mitchell J. Krebs, 40, previously the Company's Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, to the positions of President, Chief Executive Officer and director. Mr. Krebs will also continue to serve as the Company's Chief Financial Officer. In addition, the Board of Directors appointed Robert E. Mellor as non-executive Chairman of the Board.

Mr. Krebs has served as Chief Financial Officer of the Company since March 2008 and additionally served as Treasurer from July 2008 through March 2010. Mr. Krebs first joined the Company in 1995 after spending several years in the investment banking industry in New York.

Mr. Krebs and Mr. Mellor will succeed Dennis E. Wheeler, 68, who notified the Board of Directors of his decision to resign as President, Chief Executive Officer, Chairman of the Board and director on July 11, 2011. In recognition of Mr. Wheeler's leadership, operations and strategic planning experience and in-depth knowledge of the Company and the mining industry, and in order to provide for a smooth transition of management, the Company has entered into a transition agreement with Mr. Wheeler, providing for Mr. Wheeler to serve as a consultant to the Company for twelve months following his resignation. In return for these services, Mr. Wheeler will be paid a lump sum of $1,000,000, plus reimbursement for office expenses up to an aggregate of $75,000 and will have continued use of a company car. In addition, Mr. Wheeler will receive a separation package comprising (i) a lump sum payment of $2.8 million, (ii) all other rights and benefits in which Mr. Wheeler is or becomes vested pursuant to compensation plans and programs of the Company, including stock option, stock appreciation right, restricted stock, restricted stock unit, performance share and performance unit awards, (iii) continued coverage under the Company's group health insurance plan of Mr. Wheeler and his eligible dependents for three years and (iv) one Company-paid physical for each of Mr. Wheeler and his spouse at an aggregate expense not to exceed $25,000. Pursuant to the transition agreement, Mr. Wheeler has agreed that he will not directly or indirectly compete with the Company or solicit employees or customers of the Company for twelve months following his resignation.

Elizabeth M. Druffel, 33, will continue to serve as Chief Accountant and, upon Mr. Krebs' appointment to CEO, became the Company's principal accounting officer. Ms. Druffel was appointed Treasurer in March of 2010 and Chief Accountant in September of 2010. Prior to that, Ms. Druffel served as Director of Financial Operations and Assistant Treasurer since joining the Company in September of 2008. Ms. Druffel is a Certified Public Accountant and was previously employed as an Audit Senior Manager with KPMG.
