Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On December 15, 2011, SonoSite, Inc. (the Company) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with FUJIFILM Holdings Corporation (Fujifilm) and Salmon Acquisition Corporation, an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Fujifilm (Purchaser). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, and upon the terms and subject to the conditions thereof, Purchaser will commence a cash tender offer (the Offer) for all outstanding shares of the Company's common stock (Company Common Stock) at a purchase price of $54.00 per share, net to the seller in cash, less any applicable withholding taxes (the Offer Price).

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, following the consummation of the Offer, and subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, either (a) Purchaser will merge with and into the Company, with the Company as the surviving corporation in the merger (the Long-Form Merger) or (b) in the event (i) Fujifilm and Purchaser acquire at least 90% of the issued and outstanding Shares, including through exercise of the Top-Up Option (defined below), and (ii) after consummation of the Offer, Fujifilm elects to cause a merger of the Company into Purchaser, the Company will merge with and into Purchaser, with Purchaser as the surviving corporation in the merger under the short form merger procedures available under Washington law (the Short-Form Merger, and either the Long-Form Merger or the Short-Form Merger, the Merger). The Short-Form Merger may be effected without additional approval by the Company's shareholders. Otherwise, the Company will hold a special shareholders meeting to obtain shareholder approval of the Long-Form Merger. In the Merger, the remaining shareholders of Company, other than such shareholders who have validly exercised their dissenters' rights under the Washington Business Corporation Act, would be entitled to receive the Offer Price.

Upon the closing of the Offer (the Appointment Time), each outstanding Company stock option, whether vested or unvested, shall become fully vested and cancelled and (i) each Company stock option having a per share exercise price less than the Offer Price shall be cancelled and in exchange each former holder of any such cancelled Company stock option shall be paid an amount in cash equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company stock option immediately prior to the Appointment Time and (b) the amount by which the Offer Price exceeds the per share exercise price per share of such Company stock option and (ii) each Company stock option having a per share exercise price equal to or greater than the Offer Price shall be cancelled without payment of cash.

As a condition to consummating the Offer, Company shareholders must have validly tendered (and not withdrawn) shares constituting at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock (taking into account all shares of Company Common Stock that the Company would be required to issue pursuant to the conversion or exercise of options, rights and securities that are then convertible into or then exercisable for shares of Company Common Stock). In addition, the obligation of Purchaser to consummate the Offer is subject to several additional customary conditions described in the Merger Agreement, including among others, the expiration of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act and the receipt of antitrust or merger control approvals under applicable laws of Germany, and that no material adverse effect with respect to Company's business shall have occurred and be continuing.

If more than a majority of the outstanding shares, but fewer than 90% of the outstanding shares, are validly tendered (and not withdrawn) in the Offer, Purchaser shall be obligated to purchase the tendered shares but may elect to conduct a subsequent offering period of not less than three days nor more than 20 business days immediately following the expiration of the Offer in order to achieve ownership of 90% of the outstanding shares, in order to effect a Short-Form Merger. In addition, subject to certain conditions and limitations, Company has granted Purchaser an option to purchase that number of shares of Company Common Stock as would enable Purchaser upon exercise of such option to achieve ownership of one share more than 90% of the total outstanding shares of Company Common Stock then outstanding (the Top-Up Option).

The Merger Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants of the parties that are customary for transactions of this type. The Company has also agreed to customary covenants governing the conduct of its business, including an obligation to conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice through the closing of the Merger. Subject to certain limited exceptions in the Merger Agreement, the Company has agreed not to solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage proposals to acquire the Company from third parties and the Company has agreed to certain restrictions on its ability to respond to such proposals, subject to fulfillment of certain fiduciary requirements of the Company's Board of Directors. The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights of Fujifilm and the Company and provides that, upon the termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, the Company will be required to pay Fujifilm a termination fee of $24.9 million.

The closing of the Merger is also subject to customary closing conditions. If Purchaser achieves ownership of 90% of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock through the Offer or the exercise of the Top-Up Option, it may effect the Merger as a Short-Form Merger. Otherwise, the Company will be required to effect the Merger as a Long-Form Merger.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is only a summary, does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement and as of specified dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures exchanged between the parties in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement. The representations and warranties may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Fujifilm, Purchaser, the Company or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.

Rights Agreement Amendment

On December 15, 2011, the Company entered into the Second Amendment (the Second Amendment) to the Company's Amended and Restated Rights Agreement, dated as of November 28, 2007, as amended (the Rights Agreement), by and between the Company and Computershare Trust Company, N.A. Pursuant to Section 26 of the Rights Agreement and in connection with the Merger, the Company amended the Rights Agreement to, among other things, amend the definition of "Acquiring Person" to exclude Fujifilm and Purchaser. The foregoing description of the Second Amendment is only a summary, does not purport to be complete and qualified in its entirety by reference to the Second Amendment, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 4.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
