On March 13, 2012, Dorman Products, Inc. (the Company) sent a notice pursuant to Section 104 of Regulation BTR under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Notice), to its directors and executive officers informing them that due to a change in the third party provider of administrative services for the Company's 401(k) Retirement Plan and Trust (the Plan), Plan participants will be unable to make changes in investment elections or deferral percentages in the Plan or request loans or distributions, including with respect to the Company's common stock in the Plan, during the period beginning March 28, 2012 and ending during the week of April 8, 2012 (the Blackout Period). During the Blackout Period, all directors and executive officers of the Company will be prohibited from purchasing, selling or otherwise transferring any equity securities of the Company or exercising any derivative securities if such securities were acquired in connection with employment or service as a director or executive officer of the Company.

A copy of the Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. During the Blackout Period and for a period of two years after the ending date of the Blackout Period, shareholders or other interested parties may obtain, without charge, information regarding the Blackout Period, including the actual beginning and ending dates of the Blackout Period, by contacting the Office of General Counsel, Dorman Products, Inc., 3400 East Walnut Street, Colmar, PA, 18195, or by telephone at (215) 997-1800.
