Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Officers and Directors.

Indemnification under the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) (the ABCA)

The Registrant was incorporated under the ABCA. The ABCA provides that the Registrant may indemnify an individual who:

is or was a director or officer of the Registrant; or is or was a director or officer of another corporation, of which the Registrant is or was a shareholder or creditor, at the Registrant's request;

against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by the director or officer in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding, in which such eligible party is involved because of that association with the Registrant or the other entity.

However, indemnification is prohibited under the ABCA if:

such eligible party did not act honestly and in good faith with a view to the Registrant's best interests (or the best interests of the other entity, as the case may be); and in the case of a criminal or administrative proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, such eligible party did not have reasonable grounds for believing that such person's conduct was lawful.

Subject to the foregoing, the Registrant may, with the approval of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta, indemnify or pay the expenses of an eligible party in respect of an action brought against the eligible party by the Registrant or on our behalf to which the eligible party is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the Registrant (or the other entity as the case may be).

The ABCA provides that the Registrant may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of an eligible party (or the heirs and personal or other legal representatives of the eligible party) against any liability that may be incurred by reason of the eligible party being or having been a director or officer, or in an equivalent position, of the Registrant or that of an associated corporation, except when the liability relates to the person's failure to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the Registrant's best interests or an associated corporation, as applicable. As of the date of filing of this registration statement, the Registrant has purchased and maintains liability insurance that insures our directors and officers against certain losses and that insures the Registrant against certain obligations to indemnify our directors and officers.

Indemnification under the Registrant's By-Laws

The Registrant's By-law No. 1 (the By-Laws) contain provisions for the indemnification of its directors and officers, which are summarized as follows:

The Registrant will indemnify a director or officer of the Registrant, a former director or officer of the Registrant or another person who acts or acted at the Registrant's request as a director or officer of a body corporate of which the Registrant is or was a shareholder or creditor, and the director's or officer's heirs and legal representatives (each, an Indemnified Party), against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or potential action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by the director or officer in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which the director or officer is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of that corporation or body corporate.

The Registrant will advance funds to a director, officer or other person for the costs, charges and expenses of a proceeding referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph. However, the person being indemnified must repay the funds advanced if such person has not acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Registrant, or in the case of a criminal, quasi-criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, such person did not have reasonable grounds for believing that the person's conduct was lawful.

The Registrant will, with the approval of a court, indemnify an Indemnified Party in respect of an action by or on behalf of the Registrant or body corporate to procure a judgment in its favor, to which the person is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the Registrant or body corporate, against all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action.

An Indemnified Party will be entitled to indemnity from the Registrant in respect of all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by such Indemnified Party, if such Indemnified Party was substantially successful on the merits in the Indemnified Party's defense of the action or proceeding and is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Registrant will not indemnify any person unless such person acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Registrant and, in the case of a criminal, quasi-criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, such person had reasonable grounds for believing that the person's conduct was lawful.

The Registrant may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of the Indemnified Parties against any liability for which the Indemnified Parties may be indemnified by the Registrant.

Indemnification Agreements with the Registrant's Directors and Executive Officers

The Registrant has entered into a Director and Officer Indemnification Agreement (Indemnification Agreement) with each of its directors and executive officers. Each Indemnification Agreement provides that the Registrant must indemnify and save harmless such director or executive officer and the heirs and legal representatives of such person to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law from and against all expenses sustained or incurred by such person (a) in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding to which such person is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the Registrant; or (b) as a result of serving as a director or officer of the Registrant in respect of any act, matter, deed or thing whatsoever made, done, committed, permitted or acquiesced in by such person as a director or officer of the Registrant, whether before or after the effective date of such Indemnification Agreement and whether or not related to a Proceeding (as defined in the Indemnification Agreement). The Registrant's indemnification obligations under the Indemnification Agreements also apply to a director or executive officer in respect of such person's service at the Registrant's request as (y) an officer or director of another corporation or (z) a similar role with another entity, including a partnership, trust, joint venture or other unincorporated entity.

The rights to indemnification under each Indemnification Agreement will, subject to applicable law, apply without reduction to each director and executive officer, provided that such person acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Registrant or other entity and, in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, and such person had reasonable grounds for believing that such person's conduct was lawful.

The Registrant's indemnification obligations under each Indemnification Agreement will not apply to (a) claims initiated by the director or executive officer party to the Indemnification Agreement against the Registrant or any subsidiary except for claims relating to the enforcement of the Indemnification Agreement, (b) claims initiated by the director or executive officer party to such Indemnification Agreement against any other person or entity unless the Registrant or an affiliated party has joined with such director or executive officer in or consented to the initiation of such proceeding, and (c) claims by the Registrant for the forfeiture and recovery by the Registrant of bonuses or other compensation received by such director or executive officer from the Registrant due to such person's violation of applicable securities or other laws. To the extent prior court or other approval is required in connection with any indemnification obligation of the Registrant under the Indemnification Agreements, the Registrant will seek and use all reasonable efforts to obtain that approval as soon as reasonably possible in the circumstances.

Under each Indemnification Agreement, the Registrant will, upon request by the director or executive officer party to such Indemnification Agreement, advance to such person all expenses for which such person seeks indemnification under the Indemnification Agreement before the final disposition of the relevant proceeding. The director or executive officer being indemnified will repay to the Registrant all expense advances not actually required and will repay all expense advances if it is subsequently determined that such director or executive officer was not entitled to indemnification pursuant to the Indemnification Agreement.

The Registrant agreed in each Indemnification Agreement to ensure that its liabilities under the Indemnification Agreement, and the potential liabilities of the director or executive officer indemnified thereunder, are at all times covered by a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy that has been approved by the Registrant's board. In the event the Registrant is sold or enters into any business combination or other transaction as a result of which the directors' and officers' liability insurance policy is terminated and not replaced with a substantially similar policy equally applicable to the directors and executive officers, the Registrant will cause a run off tail insurance policy to be purchased for the benefit of such director or executive officer to provide substantially similar coverage for six years without any gap in coverage.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not Applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits.

The exhibits listed in the accompanying Index to Exhibits are furnished as part of this registration statement.

Item 9. Undertakings.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(a)(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement; and

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) To file a post-effective amendment to the registration statement to include any financial statements required by Item 8.A of Form 20-F at the start of any delayed offering or throughout a continuous offering. Financial statements and information otherwise required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act need not be furnished, provided that the Registrant includes in the prospectus, by means of a post-effective amendment, financial statements required pursuant to this paragraph (a)(4) and other information necessary to ensure that all other information in the prospectus is at least as current as the date of those financial statements.

(5) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
