Honda Establishes New Motorcycle Subsidiary in Kenya

TOKYO, Japan, March 27, 2013 - Honda Motor Co., Ltd. announced that, effective March 25, 2013, it has officially established a new motorcycle production and sales subsidiary in Kenya, where further market growth is expected.

Based on Honda's basic approach with local operations to start small and grow big, the new company, Honda Motorcycle Kenya Limited, will focus primarily on production and wholesale business. The company will establish a system and capability for global parts sourcing as well as efficient production to deliver high quality products at affordable prices. The new plant, which will have an initial production capacity of 25,000 units, is scheduled to become operational in September 2013.
