CORVEX AND RELATED ANNOUNCE BOARD SLATE TO BE NOMINATED AT SPECIAL MEETING OF COMMONWEALTH REIT SHAREHOLDERS

NEW YORK, January 16, 2014 Corvex Management LP (Corvex) and Related Fund Management, LLC (Related), whose separately managed investment funds collectively own approximately 9.6% of the outstanding shares of Commonwealth REIT (NYSE:CWH), today announced that they intend to nominate a slate of five highly qualified trustees for consideration by Commonwealth shareholders: James Corl, Edward Glickman, Peter Linneman, Jim Lozier, and Kenneth Shea.

As previously announced, Corvex and Related have commenced the process to launch a new consent solicitation to remove the entire Board of Trustees of Commonwealth in accordance with the rules implemented by the Arbitration Panel ruling on November 18, 2013. To that end, Corvex and Related will file today revised preliminary consent solicitation materials with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Corvex and Related will request a record date for the new solicitation by February 16, 2014.

Keith Meister of Corvex and Jeff T. Blau of Related, said:

After consulting with fellow shareholders, we are excited to propose a strong slate of nominees with significant, relevant real estate industry expertise, who we are confident have the track records and corporate leadership experience to create significant, long-term value for Commonwealth and all of its shareholders. Our slate of truly independent, accountable trustees will enable us to achieve our sole goal from the beginning ceasing the value destruction caused by the Portnoys and enabling Commonwealth shareholders to take back their company. The holders of more than 70% of the outstanding shares previously supported our proposal to remove the entire Commonwealth Board of Trustees and we expect the same level of support for our consent solicitation.

Recently, Commonwealth has conveniently unveiled various reversible, governance alterations that in our view do not give shareholders the ability to hold RMR accountable for its underperformance and enable the Portnoys to retain control of Commonwealth, despite their owning virtually no stock. Further, we firmly believe that the two recently-appointed Trustees will be no more independent than the other Trustees, having been hand-picked by the same Board who supported every appalling action taken by the Portnoys over the past year to impede the will of Commonwealth's shareholders. Among others, these actions include passing illegal bylaw amendments, which were rejected by the Arbitration Panel, and reinstating Trustee Joe Morea after only 14% of the outstanding shares were voted for him at the 2013 annual meeting, and then selecting him to spearhead Commonwealth's efforts to improve governance. As long as the Portnoys maintain control of Commonwealth via their conflicted management structure, Commonwealth will continue its long-term track record of underperformance and value destruction.
