MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
OF RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION

INTRODUCTION

Management's discussion and analysis of results of operations and financial condition ( MD&A ) is a supplement to the accompanying consolidated financial statements and provides additional information on Time Warner Inc.'s ( Time Warner or the Company ) businesses, current developments, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. MD&A is organized as follows:

Overview. This section provides a general description of Time Warner's business segments, as well as recent developments the Company believes are important in understanding the results of operations and financial condition or in understanding anticipated future trends.

Results of operations. This section provides an analysis of the Company's results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2014. This analysis is presented on both a consolidated and a business segment basis. In addition, a brief description of transactions and other items that affect the comparability of the results being analyzed is included.

Financial condition and liquidity. This section provides an analysis of the Company's financial condition as of March 31, 2014 and cash flows for the three months ended March 31, 2014.

Caution concerning forward-looking statements. This section provides a description of the use of forward-looking information appearing in this report, including in MD&A and the consolidated financial statements.

OVERVIEW

Time Warner is a leading media and entertainment company whose major businesses encompass an array of the most respected and successful media brands. Among the Company's brands are TNT, TBS, CNN, HBO, Cinemax, Warner Bros., New Line Cinema, People, Sports Illustrated and Time. During the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Company generated Revenues of $7.545 billion (up 9% from $6.939 billion in 2013), Operating Income of $1.932 billion (up 37% from $1.410 billion in 2013), Net Income attributable to Time Warner shareholders of $1.292 billion (up 71% from $754 million in 2013) and Cash provided by operations of $1.704 billion (up 134% from $729 million in 2013). On March 6, 2013, Time Warner announced that its Board of Directors has authorized management to proceed with plans for the complete legal and structural separation of the Company's Time Inc. segment from Time Warner (the Time Separation ). Time Warner expects to complete the Time Separation during the second quarter of 2014.

Time Warner Businesses

Time Warner classifies its operations into four reportable segments: Turner, Home Box Office, Warner Bros. and Time Inc. For additional information regarding Time Warner's segments, refer to Note 12, Segment Information, to the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Turner. Time Warner's Turner segment consists of businesses managed by Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (Turner). During the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Turner segment recorded Revenues of $2.593 billion (34% of the Company's total Revenues) and Operating Income of $900 million.

Turner operates domestic and international television networks, including such recognized brands as TNT, TBS, truTV, CNN and Cartoon Network, which are among the leaders in advertising-supported television networks. The Turner networks generate revenues principally from providing programming to affiliates that have contracted to receive and distribute this programming to subscribers and from the sale of advertising. In addition, Turner provides online and mobile offerings for on-demand viewing of programs on its networks and live streaming of its networks to authenticated subscribers. Turner also manages and operates various digital media properties that primarily consist of websites, including CNN.com, BleacherReport.com, NBA.com, NCAA.com and cartoonnetwork.com, that generate revenues principally from the sale of advertising and sponsorships.

Home Box Office. Time Warner's Home Box Office segment consists of businesses managed by Home Box Office, Inc. (Home Box Office). During the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Home Box Office segment recorded Revenues of $1.339 billion (18% of the Company's total Revenues) and Operating Income of $464 million.

Home Box Office operates the HBO and Cinemax multi-channel premium pay television services, with the HBO service ranking as the most widely distributed multi-channel premium pay television service. HBO- and Cinemax-branded premium pay and basic tier television services are distributed in more than 60 countries across Latin America, Asia and Europe. HBO and Cinemax domestic premium pay television subscribers have access to the authenticated HBO GO and MAX GO streaming services, respectively, on various mobile devices and other online platforms, and an authenticated HBO GO streaming service is available to international premium pay television subscribers of HBO in a number of countries. Home Box Office generates revenues principally from providing programming to domestic affiliates that have contracted to receive and distribute such programming to their customers who subscribe to the HBO or Cinemax services. Home Box Office also derives subscription revenues from the distribution by international affiliates of country-specific HBO and Cinemax premium pay and basic tier television services to their local subscribers. Additional sources of revenues for Home Box Office are the sale of its original programming, including Game of Thrones, True Blood and Boardwalk Empire, via DVDs, Blu-ray Discs and electronic sell-through ( EST ) and the licensing of its original programming.

Warner Bros. Time Warner's Warner Bros. segment consists of businesses managed by Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc. ( Warner Bros. ) that principally produce and distribute feature films, television shows and videogames. During the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Warner Bros. segment recorded Revenues of $3.066 billion (38% of the Company's total Revenues) and Operating Income of $369 million.

The Warner Bros. segment's theatrical product revenues are generated principally through rental fees from theatrical exhibition of feature films, including the following recently released films: 300: Rise of An Empire, Gravity, The Hobbit: The Desolation of Smaug, and The LEGO Movie and subsequently through licensing fees received from the distribution of films on television networks and premium pay television services. Television product revenues are generated principally from the licensing of programs to television networks and premium pay television services. The segment also generates revenues for both its theatrical and television product through home video distribution on DVD and Blu-ray Discs and in various digital formats (e.g., EST and video-on-demand) as well as through licensing of feature films and television programming to subscription video-on-demand ( SVOD ) services. In addition, the segment generates revenues through the development and distribution of videogames.

Warner Bros. continues to be an industry leader in the television content business. Domestically, for the 2013-2014 season, Warner Bros. produced more than 60 series, including (i) at least three series for each of the five broadcast networks (including 2 Broke Girls, Arrow, The Bachelor, The Big Bang Theory, The Following, The Mentalist, The Middle, Mike & Molly, Mom, Person of Interest, Revolution, Super Fun Night, Two and a Half Men, Vampire Diaries and The Voice), (ii) original series for cable television networks (including Dallas, Longmire, Major Crimes, Pretty Little Liars and Rizzoli & Isles), (iii) series for first-run syndication (including The Ellen DeGeneres Show, Extra and TMZ) and (iv) animated series for cable television networks. Warner Bros. also licenses many of these series internationally. In addition, Warner Bros. operates a group of local television production companies in the U.K., Belgium and the Netherlands that focus on developing non-scripted programs and formats that can be sold internationally and adapted for sale in the U.S. Warner Bros. also creates locally-produced versions of programs owned by the studio as well as original local television programming for international territories.

The distribution and sale of physical discs (both standard definition DVDs and high definition Blu-ray Discs) is one of the largest contributors to the segment's revenues and profits. In recent years, home video revenues have declined as a result of several factors, including consumers shifting to subscription rental services and discount rental kiosks, which generate significantly less revenue per transaction for the Company than physical disc sales; changing retailer initiatives and strategies (e.g., reduction of floor space devoted to physical discs); retail store closures; the general economic conditions in the U.S. and many regions around the world; increasing competition for consumer discretionary time and spending; and piracy. The electronic delivery of film and television content is growing and becoming more important to the Warner Bros. segment, which has helped to offset some of the decline in sales of physical discs. For the first quarter of 2014, consumer spending on physical discs continued to decline and consumer spending on electronic delivery continued to increase.

Time Inc. Time Warner's Time Inc. segment consists principally of magazine publishing businesses and related websites and operations managed by Time Inc. During the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Time Inc. segment recorded Revenues of $745 million (10% of the Company's total Revenues) and Operating Loss of $120 million.

As of March 31, 2014, Time Inc. published 23 magazines in print in the U.S., including People, Sports Illustrated, InStyle and Time, and over 70 magazines outside the U.S. For most of Time Inc.'s major magazine titles, Time Inc. also offers tablet editions, websites optimized for mobile viewing and mobile applications. In addition, as of March 31, 2014, Time Inc. operated over 45 websites that collectively have millions of average monthly unique visitors around the world.

The Time Inc. segment generates revenues primarily from the sale of advertising, magazine subscriptions and magazine newsstand sales. The Time Inc. segment is experiencing declines in its print advertising and newsstand sales as a result of market conditions in the magazine publishing industry as well as the economic environment in the United States and internationally.

During the third quarter of 2013, Time Inc. appointed a new Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, who have been developing new strategies and initiatives for Time Inc. as part of a new long-range plan. The strategies and initiatives encompassed in the long-range plan are intended to enhance the scale of Time Inc.'s digital platforms and associated revenues, extend brands and audiences into new adjacent opportunities, and stabilize operating income trends.

In the first quarter of 2014, Time Inc. initiated a significant restructuring plan that includes streamlining its organizational structure to enhance operational flexibility, speed decision-making, and spur the development of new cross-brand products and services. Time Inc. incurred restructuring and severance charges of $115 million in the first quarter of 2014 and expects to incur approximately $30 million during the second quarter of 2014 in connection with this restructuring plan and certain real estate consolidations. Beyond its current restructuring plan, Time Inc. anticipates additional headcount reductions and real estate consolidations in the future.

Recent Developments

Venezuela Currency

Certain of the Company's divisions conduct business in Venezuela. As of March 31, 2014, the Company has $111 million of net Venezuelan Bolivares Fuertes ( VEF ) denominated consolidated monetary assets, primarily consisting of cash and accounts receivable, which have been remeasured at the official exchange rate as published by the Central Bank of Venezuela of 6.3 VEF to each U.S. Dollar. However, because of Venezuelan government-imposed restrictions on the exchange of foreign currency in Venezuela, the Company has not been able to convert VEF earned in Venezuela into U.S. Dollars at the official government rate.

In March of 2013, the Venezuelan government announced the creation of a new foreign currency exchange system called the Complimentary System of Foreign Currency Acquisition ( SICAD ), a complementary currency auction system it created for purchases of U.S. Dollars by certain eligible importers and tourists. In December 2013, the Venezuelan government published the SICAD rate for the first time and issued Exchange Agreement No. 24, which clarified that SICAD could be used only by companies operating in the oil and gas industry for certain transactions and for gold purchases conducted by the Venezuelan Central Bank. In January 2014, the government expanded the use of SICAD and announced that it would increase the amount of U.S. Dollars available to buyers to $220 million per week from $100 million. In addition, through Exchange Agreement No. 25, the government noted that it would expand the use of the SICAD auction rate for certain other types of transactions that were previously limited to the official rate. For the weeks ended March 28 and April 4, 2014, the published SICAD exchange rates were 10.8 and 10.7 VEF for each U.S. Dollar, respectively. Based on the published SICAD requirements, the Company does not believe it is eligible to access the SICAD exchange. If the Company had used the published SICAD exchange rate as of March 31, 2014 to remeasure its VEF-denominated consolidated monetary assets, the Company would have recognized foreign exchange losses of approximately $46 million, on a pre-tax basis, in its Consolidated Statement of Operations.

On March 24, 2014, the Venezuelan government introduced a new currency exchange system referred to as SICAD 2, which is regulated by the Central Bank of Venezuela. The Company does not believe it is eligible to access the SICAD 2 exchange due to the requirements regarding its legal structure that must be met for an entity to participate in the exchange. In its initial week of activity, the average daily exchange rates realized from transactions through SICAD 2 were published by the Central Bank of Venezuela and ranged from 50.9 VEF to 51.9 VEF for each U.S. Dollar. On March 31, 2014, the

TIME WARNER INC.

published average daily rate was 49.8 VEF for each U.S. Dollar. Given the status of its eligibility to access the SICAD and SICAD 2 exchanges, the Company continues to use the official exchange rate for its remeasurement rate as of March 31, 2014. If the Company is able to utilize the SICAD 2 exchange system to regularly access U.S. Dollars in future periods, the SICAD 2 rate may be used as its remeasurement rate. If the Company had used the published SICAD 2 exchange rate as of March 31, 2014 to remeasure its VEF-denominated consolidated monetary assets, the Company would have recognized foreign exchange losses of approximately $97 million, on a pre-tax basis, in its Consolidated Statement of Operations.

Central European Media Enterprises Ltd.

On February 28, 2014, Time Warner and Central European Media Enterprises Ltd. ( CME ) entered into a framework agreement and a term loan agreement. Pursuant to the framework agreement and the term loan agreement, Time Warner and CME agreed to undertake a series of related financing transactions in which the Company will provide CME with up to approximately $550 million through (i) a $115 million revolving credit facility and a $30 million term loan that mature on December 1, 2017, and (ii) the purchase of units from CME. CME will use the proceeds from the transactions to redeem the approximately 273 million aggregate principal amount of its fixed rate notes due 2016 and for general corporate purposes.

As part of these transactions, on April 3, 2014, CME commenced a rights offering and offered its shareholders rights to subscribe for 3,418,467 units at a subscription price of $100.00 per unit. Each unit consists of $100 principal amount of 15% senior secured notes due 2017 and 21 unit warrants, with each unit warrant entitling the holder to purchase one share of CME Class A common stock at an exercise price of $1.00 per share. At the closing of the rights offering, which is expected to occur on May 2, 2014 (the Closing Date ), Time Warner has agreed to exercise in full its right to purchase approximately 2.2 million units and also will purchase any units that are not purchased by CME's other shareholders. In addition, on the Closing Date, Time Warner will purchase a total of 581,533 units in private offerings, and CME will issue warrants to Time Warner to purchase a total of 30 million shares of Class A common stock. The warrants that will be issued to Time Warner, including the unit warrants in connection with the rights offering, do not contain any voting rights and are exercisable for a two-year period starting on the second anniversary of their issuance. The warrants are subject to a limited right whereby the Company can exercise any of its warrants earlier solely to maintain its ownership percentage.

The $30 million term loan will bear interest at a rate of 15.0% per annum, paid semi-annually either fully in cash or by adding such amount to the principal amount of the loan. Amounts outstanding under the revolving credit facility will bear interest at a rate per annum based on LIBOR (subject to a minimum rate of 1.00%) plus 14%. CME can pay accrued interest for an applicable quarterly interest period either fully in cash or by adding such amount to the principal amount of the revolving credit facility. The revolving credit facility also contains a commitment fee on the average daily unused amount under the facility of 0.50% per annum.

The transactions will not change the Company's approximately 49% voting interest, but will result in the Company holding up to an approximate 78% economic interest in CME's equity interests on a diluted basis. At December 31, 2013, the Company held an approximate 65% economic interest in CME's equity interests. The Company accounts for its investment in CME's common stock and Class A convertible preferred stock under the equity method of accounting. The Company accounts for its investment in CME's Series B convertible redeemable preferred shares under the cost method of accounting.

Eyeworks

On February 11, 2014, Warner Bros. entered into an agreement with Eyeworks Group ( Eyeworks ), a television production and distribution company, to acquire its operations outside the U.S., which are located in 15 countries across Europe, South America, Australia and New Zealand, for approximately 200 million. The transaction, which is subject to customary closing conditions including regulatory approval, is expected to close during the second quarter of 2014.

Sale and Leaseback of Time Warner Center

On January 16, 2014, Time Warner sold the office space it owned in Time Warner Center for approximately $1.3 billion and agreed to lease office space in Time Warner Center from the buyer until early 2019. In connection with these transactions, the Company recognized a pretax gain of $441 million and a tax benefit of $58 million in the first quarter of 2014. Additionally, a pretax gain of approximately $325 million has been deferred and will be recognized ratably over the lease period. The Company also reached a preliminary agreement relating to the move of its Corporate headquarters and its

New York City-based employees to the Hudson Yards development on the west side of Manhattan. The preliminary agreement is subject to the negotiation and execution of final agreements. While negotiations regarding the agreements are ongoing, certain conditions were met by the developer during the first quarter that resulted in the Company making payments of $66 million related to its investment in the Hudson Yards development project. Over the next several years, the Company expects to invest approximately $1.3 billion in the Hudson Yards development project.

Time Inc. Separation from Time Warner

On March 6, 2013, Time Warner announced that its Board of Directors has authorized management to proceed with plans for the Time Separation. The Time Separation is currently expected to be effected as a spin-off of Time Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. In the Time Separation, Time Warner will distribute all of its Time Inc. common stock to Time Warner stockholders, and Time Inc. will become an independent publicly-traded company. The Time Separation is contingent on the satisfaction of a number of conditions, including the effectiveness of a registration statement on Form 10, which Time Inc. filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 22, 2013. Time Warner expects to complete the Time Separation during the second quarter of 2014.

Time Inc. Financing Transactions

In connection with the Time Separation, on April 29, 2014, Time Inc. issued $700 million aggregate principal amount of 5.75% senior unsecured notes due 2022 in a private offering. The notes are guaranteed by substantially all of Time Inc.'s wholly-owned domestic subsidiaries. If Time Warner decides not to pursue the Time Separation or the Time Separation is not completed by October 26, 2014, Time Inc. must redeem all the outstanding notes.

On April 24, 2014, Time Inc. entered into senior secured credit facilities (the "Senior Credit Facilities") providing for a term loan in an initial principal amount of $700 million with a seven-year maturity (the "Term Loan") and a $500 million revolving credit facility with a five-year maturity, of which up to $100 million is available for the issuance of letters of credit (the "Revolving Credit Facility"). Time Inc.'s obligations under the Senior Credit Facilities are guaranteed by substantially all of its wholly-owned domestic subsidiaries and secured by substantially all of its assets and the assets of the guarantors. The commitments of the lenders under the Senior Credit Facilities terminate on June 30, 2014 if the Term Loan has not been borrowed by that date. As of April 30, 2014, no amounts have been borrowed under the Senior Credit Facilities. The Revolving Credit Facility will be used by Time Inc. for working capital and other general corporate purposes. The Revolving Credit Facility is not available for borrowing prior to the Time Separation.

Time Warner is not a guarantor of, and does not otherwise provide credit support for, the senior unsecured notes or the Senior Credit Facilities.

The proceeds of the notes and a portion of the Term Loan will be used to fund Time Inc.'s acquisition of the IPC publishing business in the U.K., which is currently owned by a wholly-owned subsidiary of Time Warner (the "IPC Purchase ), and the remaining proceeds from the Term Loan will be used to pay a special dividend to Time Warner in connection with the Time Separation. The purchase price for the IPC Purchase, together with the amount of the special dividend, is expected to be approximately $1.4 billion.

Other

Other reflects external costs related to mergers, acquisitions or dispositions of $20 million and $11 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. External costs related to mergers, acquisitions or dispositions for the three months ended March 31, 2014 consisted of $7 million at the Turner segment primarily related to exit costs in connection with the shutdown of CNN Latino, a Spanish-language news broadcast programming block, $6 million at the Warner Bros. segment primarily related to the pending Eyeworks transaction and $7 million at Corporate related to the Time Separation and for the three months ended March 31, 2013 consisted of $2 million at the Turner segment related to the shutdown of certain entertainment networks in Spain and $9 million at Corporate related to the Time Separation.

External costs related to mergers, acquisitions or dispositions are included in Selling, general and administrative expenses in the accompanying Consolidated Statement of Operations.

Investment Gains (Losses), Net

For the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Company recognized $5 million of net investment losses.

For the three months ended March 31, 2013, the Company recognized $71 million of net investment gains, consisting of a $65 million gain on the sale of the Company's investment in a theater venture in Japan, which included a $10 million gain related to a foreign currency contract, and $6 million of net miscellaneous investment gains.

Amounts Related to the Separation of Time Warner Cable Inc.

For the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company recognized $1 million of other expense and $5 million of other income, respectively, related to the expiration, exercise and net change in the estimated fair value of Time Warner equity awards held by Time Warner Cable Inc. ( TWC ) employees, which has been reflected in Other income (loss), net in the accompanying Consolidated Statement of Operations.

Amounts Related to the Disposition of Warner Music Group

For both the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company recognized losses of $1 million primarily related to a tax indemnification obligation associated with the disposition of Warner Music Group ( WMG ) in 2004. These amounts have been reflected in Other income (loss), net in the accompanying Consolidated Statement of Operations.

Income Tax Impact

The income tax impact reflects the estimated tax provision or tax benefit associated with each item affecting comparability. The estimated tax provision or tax benefit can vary based on certain factors, including the taxability or deductibility of the items and foreign tax on certain items.

Consolidated Results

The following discussion provides an analysis of the Company's results of operations and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying Consolidated Statement of Operations.

Revenues. The components of Revenues are as follows (millions):

Table of Contents

TIME WARNER INC.

For the three months ended March 31, 2014, the increase in Subscription revenues was primarily related to increases at the Turner, Home Box Office and Time Inc. segments. Advertising revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2014 increased primarily due to an increase at the Turner segment. The increase in Content revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2014 was due primarily to an increase at the Warner Bros. and Home Box Office segments, partially offset by a decline at the Turner segment. The increase in Other revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2014 was primarily related to an increase at the Warner Bros. segment, partially offset by a decline at the Time Inc. segment.

Each of the revenue categories is discussed in greater detail by segment in Business Segment Results.

Costs of Revenues. For the three months ended March 31, 2014, Costs of revenues increased to $4.160 billion from $3.750 billion for the three months ended March 31, 2013 reflecting increases at the Warner Bros., Turner and Home Box Office segments. The segment variations are discussed in Business Segment Results.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. For the three months ended March 31, 2014, Selling, general and administrative expenses increased 3% to $1.663 billion from $1.620 billion for the three months ended March 31, 2013 primarily related to increases at the Time Inc., Turner and Home Box Office segments. The segment variations are discussed in Business Segment Results.

Included in Costs of revenues and Selling, general and administrative expenses is depreciation expense of $157 million for both the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013.

Amortization Expense. Amortization expense was $69 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and $60 million for the three months ended March 31, 2013.

Restructuring and Severance Costs. For the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company incurred Restructuring and severance costs primarily related to employee terminations and other exit activities. Restructuring and severance costs are as follows (millions):

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2014	2013
Turner	$ 12	$ 14
Home Box Office	8	8
Warner Bros.	2	3
Time Inc.	115	53
Corporate	4	2

Eliminations		(4)		-
Total restructuring and severance costs	$	137	$	80

Operating Income. Operating Income increased to $1.932 billion for the three months ended March 31, 2014 from $1.410 billion for the three months ended March 31, 2013. Excluding the items noted under Transactions and Other Items Affecting Comparability totaling $396 million of income and $30 million of expense for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively, Operating Income increased $96 million, reflecting increases at the Warner Bros., Home Box Office and Turner segments, partially offset by a decrease at the Time Inc. segment.

The segment variations are discussed under Business Segment Results.

Interest Expense, Net. For the three months ended March 31, 2014, Interest expense, net decreased to $266 million from $290 million for the three months ended March 31, 2013 mainly due to the recognition of interest income on a note receivable that was collected in March 2014.

Other Income (Loss), Net. Other income (loss), net detail is shown in the table below (millions):

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2014	2013
Investment gains (losses), net	$ (5)	$ 71
Amounts related to the separation of TWC	(1)	5
Amounts related to the disposition of WMG	(1)	(1)
Loss from equity method investees	(1)	(60)
Other	2	1
Other income (loss), net	$ (6)	$ 16

Investment gains (losses), net and amounts related to the separation of TWC and the disposition of WMG are discussed under Transactions and Other Items Affecting Comparability. The remaining change in Other income (loss), net was related to lower net losses from equity method investees.

Income Tax Provision. Income tax provision decreased to $368 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 from $382 million for the three months ended March 31, 2013. The Company's effective tax rate was 22% for the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to 34% for the three months ended March 31, 2013. The decrease in the effective tax rate for the three months ended March 31, 2014 was primarily due to the expected utilization of tax attribute carryovers.

Net Income Attributable to Time Warner Inc. Shareholders. Net income attributable to Time Warner Inc. shareholders was $1.292 billion and $754 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. Excluding the items noted under Transactions and Other Items Affecting Comparability totaling $463 million and $23 million of income for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively, Net income attributable to Time Warner Inc. shareholders increased $98 million, primarily reflecting higher Operating Income. Basic and Diluted net income per common share attributable to Time Warner Inc. common shareholders were $1.45 and $1.42, respectively, for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and were $0.80 and $0.79, respectively, for the three months ended March 31, 2013.

The increase in Costs of revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2014 was primarily due to higher originals and sports programming costs, mainly due to higher costs related to the NCAA Tournament.

For the three months ended March 31, 2014, Selling, general and administrative expenses increased mainly due to higher marketing expense of $9 million and higher exit costs of $5 million, primarily related to the shutdown of CNN Latino.

As previously noted under Transactions and Other Items Affecting Comparability, the results for the three months ended March 31, 2014 included a $13 million gain on operating assets related to the sale of Zite and a $7 million charge primarily related to exit costs for the shutdown of CNN Latino. The results for the three months ended March 31, 2013 included a $12 million charge related to the impairment of certain Turner international intangible assets and an $8 million charge related to Turner's decision in the first quarter of 2013 to shut down certain of its entertainment networks in Spain. This charge consisted of a $6 million impairment related to programming assets and a $2 million charge related to exit costs.

The increase in Operating Income for the three months ended March 31, 2014 was primarily due to higher Revenues, lower asset impairments and the gain on the sale of operating assets related to the sale of Zite, partially offset by higher Costs of revenues and higher Selling, general and administrative expenses.

Home Box Office. Revenues and Operating Income of the Home Box Office segment for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013 are as follows (millions):

The increase in Costs of revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2014 was primarily due to higher acquired films and syndicated series programming costs reflecting the consolidation of HBO Asia and HBO Nordic as well as higher other direct operating costs mainly due to higher distribution costs associated with higher home video revenues. Originals and sports programming costs were essentially flat as lower programming impairments and lower costs for sports programming were partially offset by higher costs for original series.

For the three months ended March 31, 2014, Selling, general and administrative expenses increased mainly due to the consolidation of HBO Asia and HBO Nordic.

The increase in Operating Income for the three months ended March 31, 2014 was primarily due to higher Revenues, partially offset by higher Costs of revenues.

Other	214	134	60%
Total Content revenues	$ 2,903	$ 2,568	13%

Theatrical product revenues from film rentals increased for the three months ended March 31, 2014, reflecting higher revenues of $220 million from theatrical films released during the first quarter of 2014 and higher carryover revenues of $11 million from prior period releases. The Company released 4 and 5 theatrical films during the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

For the three months ended March 31, 2014, theatrical product revenues from home video and electronic delivery decreased due to lower revenues of $73 million from releases during the first quarter of 2014. There were 2 home video and electronic delivery releases during both the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013.

Television product revenues from television licensing for the three months ended March 31, 2014 increased due to higher revenues from initial telecasts due in part to increased production and the timing of deliveries as well as higher international television licensing revenues.

The decrease in television product revenues from home video and electronic delivery for the three months ended March 31, 2014 was primarily due to lower revenues from consumer packaged goods.

Other content revenues increased for the three months ended March 31, 2014 primarily due to higher carryover revenues of $41 million from videogames released in prior periods and higher revenues of $21 million from videogames released during the first quarter of 2014. The Company released 3 and 2 videogames during the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Other revenues increased for the three months ended March 31, 2014 primarily due to higher international third party production activity.

Included in film and television production costs are production costs related to videogames, as well as theatrical film valuation adjustments resulting from revisions to estimates of ultimate revenue for certain theatrical films. Theatrical film valuation adjustments for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013 were $36 million and $10 million, respectively. The increase in film and television production costs was primarily due to the performance and mix of product released and also reflected higher videogame production costs, including impairments of $18 million related to certain videogames in production. Other costs, including merchandise and related costs, increased primarily due to higher distribution costs associated with videogames.

As previously noted under Transactions and Other Items Affecting Comparability, the results for three months ended March 31, 2014 included a $5 million impairment of certain internally developed software, and the results for the three months ended March 31, 2013 included $2 million of miscellaneous asset impairments.

The increase in Operating Income for the three months ended March 31, 2014 was primarily due to higher Revenues, partially offset by higher Costs of revenues.

For the three months ended March 31, 2014, Subscription revenues increased due to $11 million of revenues resulting from the acquisition of Time Inc. Affluent Media Group (formerly known as American Express Publishing Corporation) in the fourth quarter of 2013 (the AMG Acquisition). Excluding the AMG Acquisition, Subscription revenues were essentially flat reflecting a benefit from additional issues in the current year quarter, offset by declines related to market conditions in the magazine publishing industry.

For the three months ended March 31, 2014, Advertising revenues were essentially flat. Included in domestic magazine advertising revenues was $25 million of revenues resulting from the AMG Acquisition as well as a benefit from additional issues in the current year quarter, which were offset by declines related to market conditions in the magazine publishing industry. In addition, non-magazine advertising revenues were also flat as an increase in website advertising revenues was offset by declines in custom publishing and other non-magazine advertising revenues. Included in website advertising revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2014 was $4 million of revenues resulting from the AMG Acquisition.

The Company expects the market conditions associated with the Time Inc. segment's Subscription revenues and Advertising revenues to continue.

For the three months ended March 31, 2014, Other revenues declined due to lower revenues from third party subscription marketing activities.

The components of Costs of revenues for the Time Inc. segment are as follows (millions):

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2014	2013	% Change
Production costs	$ 175	$ 171	2%

For the three months ended March 31, 2014, Costs of revenues were flat. Production costs increased slightly due to higher costs of $8 million associated with the AMG Acquisition, partially offset by lower paper prices and reduced print volume. Editorial costs decreased due to cost savings initiatives, including savings realized from restructurings in both the first quarters of 2014 and 2013 as well as a $6 million change in the classification of certain overhead costs, partially offset by higher costs of $5 million associated with the AMG Acquisition.

For the three months ended March 31, 2014, Selling, general and administrative expenses increased primarily due to higher costs of $26 million resulting from the AMG Acquisition, a $6 million change in the classification of certain overhead costs and higher costs of $6 million associated with the Time Separation, partly offset by cost savings initiatives, including savings realized from restructurings in both the first quarters of 2014 and 2013.

As previously noted under Transactions and Other Items Affecting Comparability, the results for the three months ended March 31, 2014 included $26 million of asset impairments primarily related to a building held for sale.

The Time Inc. segment incurred charges of $115 million in the first quarter of 2014 in connection with a significant restructuring, primarily consisting of headcount reductions and certain real estate consolidations. In the first quarter of 2013, Time Inc. incurred charges of $53 million in connection with a significant restructuring primarily consisting of headcount reductions. The Time Inc. segment expects to incur additional restructuring and severance charges of approximately $30 million in the second quarter of 2014, primarily related to certain real estate consolidations.

Operating Loss increased for the three months ended March 31, 2014 primarily due to higher Restructuring and severance costs, higher Asset impairments and higher Selling, general and administrative expenses.

As a result of the Company's decision to spin off Time Inc., the Company assessed Goodwill and long-lived assets at Time Inc. for impairment as of March 2014, which did not result in any impairment. As of March 31, 2014, the fair value of the Time Inc. reporting unit was approximately 5% in excess of its book value. However, market conditions in the publishing industry, including declines in print advertising revenues and newsstand sales, remain challenging. During the third quarter of 2013, Time Inc. appointed a new Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, who have been developing new strategies and initiatives for Time Inc. as part of a new long-range plan. The strategies and initiatives encompassed in the long-range plan are intended to enhance the scale of Time Inc.'s digital platforms and associated revenues, extend brands and audiences into new adjacent opportunities, and stabilize operating income trends. If market conditions worsen as compared to the assumptions incorporated in that long-range plan or if Time Inc.'s performance fails to meet current expectations, it is possible that the Company's expectations of future cash flows could change. If market conditions or the Company's expectations of future cash flows are worse than the Company's current expectations, it is possible that the carrying values of the Time Inc. reporting unit and certain of its tradenames will exceed their respective fair values, which could result in the Company recognizing a noncash impairment of goodwill that could be material. As previously noted under Transactions and Other Items Affecting Comparability, the results for the three months ended March 31, 2014 included a $441 million gain in connection with the sale and leaseback of the Company's office space in Time Warner Center and a $6 million impairment of certain internally developed software. The results for the three months ended March 31, 2013 included an $8 million gain on the disposal of certain corporate assets and a $7 million impairment of certain internally developed software.

Excluding the transactions and other items affecting comparability noted above, Operating Loss for the three months ended March 31, 2014 was essentially flat.

Selling, general and administrative expenses included costs related to enterprise efficiency initiatives of $12 million and $10 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The enterprise efficiency initiatives involve the centralization of certain administrative functions to generate cost savings or other benefits for the Company.

FINANCIAL CONDITION AND LIQUIDITY

Management believes that cash generated by or available to the Company should be sufficient to fund its capital and liquidity needs for the foreseeable future, including scheduled debt repayments, quarterly dividend payments and the purchase of common stock under the Company's stock repurchase program. Time Warner's sources of cash include Cash provided by operations, Cash and equivalents on hand, available borrowing capacity under its committed credit facilities and commercial paper program and access to capital markets. Time Warner's unused committed capacity at March 31, 2014 was $8.568 billion, which included $3.546 billion of Cash and equivalents.

Current Financial Condition

At March 31, 2014, Time Warner had net debt of $16.745 billion ($20.291 billion of debt less $3.546 billion of Cash and equivalents) and $30.044 billion of Shareholders' equity, compared to net debt of $18.303 billion ($20.165 billion of debt less $1.862 billion of Cash and equivalents) and $29.904 billion of Shareholders' equity at December 31, 2013.

The following table shows the significant items contributing to the decrease in net debt from December 31, 2013 to March 31, 2014 (millions):

Balance at December 31, 2013	$ 18,303
Cash provided by operations	(1,704)
Capital expenditures	99
Repurchases of common stock	991
Dividends paid to common stockholders	287

Proceeds from the exercise of stock options	(116)
Proceeds from the sale of Time Warner Center	(1,264)
Other investment and sale proceeds	(44)
All other, net	52
Balance at March 31, 2014	$ 16,745

On January 30, 2014, Time Warner's Board of Directors authorized up to $5.0 billion of share repurchases beginning January 1, 2014, including amounts available under the Company's prior stock repurchase program as of December 31, 2013. Purchases under the stock repurchase program may be made from time to time on the open market and in privately negotiated transactions. The size and timing of these purchases are based on a number of factors, including price and business and market conditions. From January 1, 2014 through April 25, 2014, the Company repurchased 20 million shares of common stock for $1.286 billion pursuant to trading plans under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

On January 16, 2014, Time Warner sold the office space it owned in Time Warner Center for approximately $1.3 billion and agreed to lease office space in Time Warner Center from the buyer until early 2019. In connection with these transactions, the Company recognized a pretax gain of $441 million and a tax benefit of $58 million in the first quarter of 2014. Additionally, a pretax gain of approximately $325 million has been deferred and will be recognized ratably over the lease period. The Company also reached a preliminary agreement relating to the move of its Corporate headquarters and its New York City-based employees to the Hudson Yards development on the west side of Manhattan. The preliminary agreement is subject to the negotiation and execution of final agreements. While negotiations regarding the agreements are ongoing, certain conditions were met by the developer during the first quarter that resulted in the Company making payments of $66 million related to its investment in the Hudson Yards development project. Over the next several years, the Company expects to invest approximately $1.3 billion in the Hudson Yards development project.

Time Inc. Financing Transactions

In connection with the Time Separation, on April 29, 2014, Time Inc. issued $700 million aggregate principal amount of 5.75% senior unsecured notes due 2022 in a private offering. In addition, on April 24, 2014, Time Inc. entered into senior secured credit facilities providing for a term loan in an initial principal amount of $700 million with a seven-year maturity and a $500 million revolving credit facility with a five-year maturity, of which up to $100 million is available for the issuance of letters of credit. No amounts were outstanding under the senior secured credit facilities at April 30, 2014. See Recent Developments for more information.

Cash Flows

Cash and equivalents increased by $1.684 billion for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and decreased by $348 million for the three months ended March 31, 2013. Components of these changes are discussed below in more detail.

Cash provided by operations	$ 1,704	$ 729

(a) Includes cash interest received of $25 million and $13 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

(b) Includes income tax refunds received of $32 million and $11 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Cash provided by operations for the three months ended March 31, 2014 increased primarily due to higher Operating Income, lower cash used by working capital and lower net income taxes paid. Cash used by working capital decreased primarily due to lower participation and production spending as well as the timing of sports programming payments.

Details of Cash used by investing activities are as follows (millions):

Cash used by financing activities	$ (1,088)	$ (1,068)

Cash used by financing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2014 increased primarily due to higher Repurchases of common stock and lower Proceeds from the exercise of stock options, partially offset by lower Debt repayments and an increase in Borrowings. During the first quarter, the Company borrowed $125 million under a federal program that is designed to stimulate the U.S. economy through capital investment by foreign investors. The loan bears interest at 1.25% per annum and is due in November 2018.

During the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Company issued approximately 3 million shares of common stock and received $116 million in connection with the exercise of stock options. At March 31, 2014, all of the approximately 34 million exercisable stock options outstanding on such date had exercise prices below the closing price of the Company's common stock on the New York Stock Exchange.

- (a) The revolving credit facilities, commercial paper program and public debt of the Company rank pari passu with the senior debt of the respective obligors thereon. The weighted average maturity of the Company's outstanding debt and other financing arrangements was 14.0 years as of March 31, 2014.
- (b) Represents the portion of committed capacity, including from bilateral letter of credit facilities, reserved for outstanding and undrawn letters of credit.
- (c) Represents principal amounts adjusted for premiums and discounts. At March 31, 2014, the principal amounts of the Company's publicly issued debt mature as follows: $0 in 2014, $1.000 billion in 2015, $1.150 billion in 2016, $500 million in 2017, $600 million in 2018, $0 million in 2019 and $16.781 billion thereafter. In the period after 2019, no more than $2.0 billion will mature in any given year.
- (d) The revolving credit facilities consist of two $2.5 billion revolving credit facilities. The Company may issue unsecured commercial paper notes up to the amount of the unused committed capacity under the revolving credit facilities.

- (e) Unused committed capacity includes committed financings of subsidiaries under local bank credit agreements. Other debt obligations totaling $65 million are due within the next twelve months.

Programming Licensing Backlog

Programming licensing backlog represents the amount of future revenues not yet recorded from cash contracts for the worldwide licensing of theatrical and television product for premium cable, basic cable, network and syndicated television exhibition. Backlog was approximately $6.2 billion and $5.5 billion at March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively. Included in the backlog amounts is licensing of film product from the Warner Bros. segment to the Turner segment in the amount of $728 million and $477 million at March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively. Also included in the backlog amounts is licensing of film product from the Warner Bros. segment to the Home Box Office segment in the amount of $715 million and $749 million at March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively.

CAUTION CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements often include words such as anticipates, estimates, expects, projects, intends, believes and words and terms of similar substance in connection with discussions of future operating or financial performance. Examples of forward-looking statements in this report include, but are not limited to, statements regarding (i) the adequacy of the Company's liquidity to meet its needs for the foreseeable future, (ii) the Time Separation, (iii) the Company's expectation that the soft market conditions that have adversely affected the Time Inc. segment's Subscription and Advertising revenues will continue, (iv) restructuring and severance charges expected to be incurred by the Time Inc. segment in the second quarter of 2014, (v) anticipated additional headcount reductions and real estate consolidations at the Time Inc. segment, (vi) the expected closing of the CME financing transactions, (vii) the anticipated purchase price for the IPC purchase, (viii) the expected closing of the Eyeworks transaction, and (ix) the estimate of the reduction of recorded unrecognized tax benefits during the next twelve months.

The Company's forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations and assumptions regarding the Company's business and performance, the economy and other future conditions and forecasts of future events, circumstances and results. As with any projection or forecast, forward-looking statements are inherently susceptible to uncertainty and changes in circumstances. The Company's actual results may vary materially from those expressed or implied in its forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those in its forward-looking statements include government regulation, economic, strategic, political and social conditions and the following factors:

- recent and future changes in technology, services and standards, including, but not limited to, alternative methods for the delivery, storage and consumption of digital media and evolving home entertainment formats;
- changes in consumer behavior, including changes in spending behavior and changes in when, where and how digital content is consumed;
- the popularity of the Company's content;
- changes in the Company's plans, initiatives and strategies, and consumer acceptance thereof;
- changes in the plans, initiatives and strategies of the third parties that distribute, license and/or sell Time Warner's content;
- competitive pressures, including as a result of audience fragmentation and changes in technology;
- the Company's ability to deal effectively with economic slowdowns or other economic or market difficulties;
- changes in advertising market conditions or advertising expenditures due to, among other things, economic conditions, changes in consumer behavior, pressure from public interest groups, changes in laws and regulations and other societal or political developments;
- piracy and the Company's ability to exploit and protect its intellectual property rights in and to its content and other products;
- lower than expected valuations associated with the cash flows and revenues at Time Warner's reporting units, which could result in Time Warner's inability to realize the value recorded for intangible assets and goodwill at those reporting units;
- increased volatility or decreased liquidity in the capital markets, including any limitation on the Company's ability to access the capital markets for debt securities, refinance its outstanding indebtedness or obtain bank financings on acceptable terms;
- the effects of any significant acquisitions, dispositions and other similar transactions by the Company, including the Time Separation;
- the failure to meet earnings expectations;
- the adequacy of the Company's risk management framework;
- changes in U.S. GAAP or other applicable accounting policies;
- the impact of terrorist acts, hostilities, natural disasters (including extreme weather) and pandemic viruses;
- a disruption or failure of the Company's or its vendors' network and information systems or other technology on which the Company's businesses rely;

the effect of union or labor disputes or player lockouts affecting the professional sports leagues whose programming is shown on the Company's networks;
changes in tax, federal communication and other laws and regulations;
currency exchange restrictions and currency devaluation risks in some foreign countries, including, but not limited to, Venezuela; changes in foreign exchange rates; and the other risks and uncertainties detailed in Part I, Item 1A. Risk Factors, in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.

Any forward-looking statement made by the Company in this report speaks only as of the date on which it is made. The Company is under no obligation to, and expressly disclaims any obligation to, update or alter its forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, subsequent events or otherwise.

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company, under the supervision and with the participation of its management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rule 13a-15(e) under the Exchange Act) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed in reports filed or submitted by the Company under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms and that information required to be disclosed by the Company is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management to allow timely decisions regarding the required disclosure.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

There have not been any changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the quarter ended March 31, 2014 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, its internal control over financial reporting.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Description of Business

Time Warner Inc. ( Time Warner or the Company ) is a leading media and entertainment company, whose businesses include television networks, film and TV entertainment and publishing. Time Warner classifies its operations into four reportable segments: Turner: consisting principally of cable networks and digital media properties; Home Box Office: consisting principally of premium pay television services domestically and premium pay and basic tier television services internationally; Warner Bros.: consisting principally of feature film, television, home video and videogame production and distribution; and Time Inc.: consisting principally of magazine publishing and related websites and operations. See Note 2, Business Dispositions, for information regarding the separation of the Time Inc. segment from Time Warner.

Basis of Presentation

Interim Financial Statements

The consolidated financial statements are unaudited; however, in the opinion of management, they contain all of the adjustments (consisting of those of a normal recurring nature) considered necessary to present fairly the financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ( GAAP ) applicable to interim periods. The consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements of Time Warner included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 (the 2013 Form 10-K ).

Basis of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include all of the assets, liabilities, revenues, expenses and cash flows of entities in which Time Warner has a controlling interest ( subsidiaries ). Intercompany accounts and transactions between consolidated entities have been eliminated in consolidation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Significant estimates and judgments inherent in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements include accounting for asset impairments, multiple-element transactions, allowances for doubtful accounts, depreciation and amortization, the determination of ultimate revenues as it relates to amortization of capitalized film and programming costs and participations and residuals, home video and videogames product and magazine returns, business combinations, pension and other postretirement benefits, equity-based compensation, income taxes, contingencies, litigation matters, reporting revenue for certain transactions on a gross versus net basis, and the determination of whether the Company should consolidate certain entities.

Accounting Guidance Adopted in 2014

Presentation of Unrecognized Tax Benefits

On January 1, 2014, the Company adopted on a prospective basis guidance requiring a liability related to an unrecognized tax benefit to be offset against a deferred tax asset for a net operating loss carryforward, a similar tax loss or a tax credit carryforward if such settlement is required or expected in the event the uncertain tax position is disallowed. In situations in which a net operating loss carryforward, a similar tax loss or a tax credit carryforward is not available at the reporting date under the tax law of a jurisdiction or the tax law of a jurisdiction does not require it, and the Company does not intend to use the deferred tax asset for such purpose, the unrecognized tax benefit would be presented in the financial statements as a liability and will not be combined with deferred tax assets. The adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Accounting Guidance Not Yet Adopted

In April 2014, guidance was issued that raises the threshold for disposals to qualify as discontinued operations. Under this new guidance, a discontinued operation is (1) a component of an entity or group of components that has been disposed of or is classified as held for sale and represents a strategic shift that has or will have a major effect on an entity's operations and financial results or (2) an acquired business that is classified as held for sale on the acquisition date. This guidance also requires expanded or new disclosures for discontinued operations, individually material disposals that do not meet the definition of a discontinued operation, an entity's continuing involvement with a discontinued operation following disposal and retained equity method investments in a discontinued operation. This guidance will become effective on a prospective basis for the Company on January 1, 2015 and is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Interim Impairment Testing of Goodwill and Long-Lived Assets at Time Inc.

As discussed in more detail in Note 1, Description of Business, Basis of Presentation and Summary of Significant Policies, to the Company's consolidated financial statements in the 2013 Form 10-K, Goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets are tested annually for impairment during the fourth quarter or earlier upon the occurrence of certain events or substantive changes in circumstances. Long-lived assets, including finite-lived intangible assets, do not require that an annual impairment test be performed. Instead, long-lived assets are tested for impairment upon the occurrence of a triggering event. As a result of the Company's decision to spin off Time Inc., the Company assessed Goodwill and long-lived assets at Time Inc. for impairment as of March 31, 2014.

The March 31, 2014 impairment test did not result in an impairment of Goodwill at Time Inc. because the fair value of the Time Inc. reporting unit exceeded its carrying value by approximately 5%. Had the fair value of the Time Inc. reporting unit been less than its carrying value, the second step of the impairment review process would need to be performed to determine the ultimate amount of the impairment loss to record. The significant assumptions utilized in the impairment test included projected future cash flows from Time Inc.'s 2014 budget and long-range plan, a discount rate of 10.5%, a terminal revenue growth rate of 1.0%, and a market multiple of 7.5x earnings. For more information regarding the separation of Time Inc. from Time Warner, see Note 2, Business Acquisitions and Dispositions.

The impairment test for long-lived assets, including finite-lived intangible assets, utilized estimates of undiscounted future cash flows based on the use of the assets for their remaining useful life assuming the disposition transaction (i.e., the spin-off of Time Inc.) does not occur. The impairment test did not result in the impairment of any long-lived assets. Certain tradenames at the Time Inc. segment with a carrying value totaling approximately $586 million as of December 31, 2013 that were previously assigned indefinite lives, were assigned finite lives of 17 years and the Company began amortizing them starting in the first quarter of 2014.

Although the March 31, 2014 impairment test did not result in an impairment of goodwill or long-lived assets, Time Inc. is experiencing declines in its print advertising and newsstand sales as a result of market conditions in the publishing industry. Senior management at Time Inc. has prepared a long-range plan that served as the basis for the discounted cash flow ( DCF ) analysis used in the March 31, 2014 impairment review. If market conditions worsen as compared to the assumptions incorporated in that long-range plan, if market conditions associated with valuation multiples of comparable companies decline, or if Time Inc. s performance fails to meet current expectations, it is possible that the carrying value of Time Inc. will exceed its fair value, which could result in the Company recognizing a noncash impairment of goodwill that could be material.

Venezuela Currency

Certain of the Company s divisions conduct business in Venezuela. As of March 31, 2014, the Company has $111 million of net Venezuelan Bolivares Fuertes ( VEF ) denominated consolidated monetary assets, primarily consisting of cash and accounts receivable, which have been remeasured at the official exchange rate as published by the Central Bank of Venezuela of 6.3 VEF to each U.S. Dollar. However, because of Venezuelan government-imposed restrictions on the exchange of foreign currency in Venezuela, the Company has not been able to convert VEF earned in Venezuela into U.S. Dollars at the official government rate. While there are two other legal exchange systems available in Venezuela, the Company believes the official exchange rate is appropriate to use as its remeasurement rate at March 31, 2014 for several reasons, including (i) the Company's belief that it is not eligible to access those other exchange systems, (ii) a lack of clarity about those exchange systems stability and transaction volume and (iii) the Company's inability to access Venezuelan currency exchange markets operated by the government in the past several years. If the Company had used the least favorable legal published exchange rate as of March 31, 2014 to remeasure its VEF-denominated consolidated monetary assets, the Company would have recognized foreign exchange losses of approximately $97 million, on a pre-tax basis, in its Consolidated Statement of Operations.

2. BUSINESS DISPOSITIONS*DispositionsTime Inc. Separation from Time Warner

On March 6, 2013, Time Warner announced that its Board of Directors has authorized management to proceed with plans for the complete legal and structural separation of the Company's Time Inc. segment from Time Warner (the Time Separation). The Time Separation is currently expected to be effected as a spin-off of Time Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary. In the Time Separation, Time Warner will distribute all of its Time Inc. common stock to Time Warner stockholders, and Time Inc. will become an independent publicly-traded company. The Time Separation is contingent on the satisfaction of a number of conditions, including the effectiveness of a registration statement on Form 10, which Time Inc. filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 22, 2013. Time Warner expects to complete the Time Separation during the second quarter of 2014.

3. INVESTMENTS*Central European Media Enterprises Ltd.

On February 28, 2014, Time Warner and Central European Media Enterprises Ltd. (CME) entered into a framework agreement and a term loan agreement. Pursuant to the framework agreement and the term loan agreement, Time Warner and CME agreed to undertake a series of related financing transactions in which the Company will provide CME with up to approximately $550 million through (i) a $115 million revolving credit facility and a $30 million term loan that mature on December 1, 2017, and (ii) the purchase of units from CME. CME will use the proceeds from the transactions to redeem the approximately 273 million aggregate principal amount of its fixed rate notes due 2016 and for general corporate purposes.

As part of these transactions, on April 3, 2014, CME commenced a rights offering and offered its shareholders rights to subscribe for 3,418,467 units at a subscription price of $100.00 per unit. Each unit consists of $100 principal amount of 15% senior secured notes due 2017 and 21 unit warrants, with each unit warrant entitling the holder to purchase one share of CME Class A common stock at an exercise price of $1.00 per share. At the closing of the rights offering, which is expected to occur on May 2, 2014 (the Closing Date), Time Warner has agreed to exercise in full its right to purchase approximately 2.2 million units and also will purchase any units that are not purchased by CME's other shareholders. In addition, on the Closing Date, Time Warner will purchase a total of 581,533 units in private offerings, and CME will issue warrants to Time Warner to purchase a total of 30 million shares of Class A common stock. The warrants that will be issued to Time Warner, including the unit warrants in connection with the rights offering, do not contain any voting rights and are exercisable for a two-year period starting on the second anniversary of their issuance. The warrants are subject to a limited right whereby the Company can exercise any of its warrants earlier solely to maintain its ownership percentage.

The $30 million term loan will bear interest at a rate of 15.0% per annum, paid semi-annually either fully in cash or by adding such amount to the principal amount of the loan. Amounts outstanding under the revolving credit facility will bear interest at a rate per annum based on LIBOR (subject to a minimum rate of 1.00%) plus 14%. CME can pay accrued interest for an applicable quarterly interest period either fully in cash or by adding such amount to the principal amount of the revolving credit facility. The revolving credit facility also contains a commitment fee on the average daily unused amount under the facility of 0.50% per annum.

The transactions will not change the Company's approximately 49% voting interest, but will result in the Company holding up to an approximate 78% economic interest in CME's equity interests on a diluted basis. At December 31, 2013, the Company held an approximate 65% economic interest in CME's equity interests. The Company accounts for its investment in CME's common stock and Class A preferred stock under the equity method of accounting. The Company accounts for its investment in CME's Series B convertible redeemable preferred shares under the cost method of accounting.

4. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

A fair value measurement is determined based on the assumptions that a market participant would use in pricing an asset or liability. A three-tiered hierarchy draws distinctions between market participant assumptions based on (i) observable inputs such as quoted prices in active markets (Level 1), (ii) inputs other than quoted prices in active markets that are observable either directly or indirectly (Level 2) and (iii) unobservable inputs that require the Company to use present value and other valuation techniques in the determination of fair value (Level 3). The following table presents information about assets and liabilities required to be carried at fair value on a recurring basis as of March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively (millions):

As of both March 31, 2014 and March 31, 2013, liabilities valued using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) primarily consisted of contingent consideration and options to redeem securities. The balance as of March 31, 2013 also included an asset related to equity instruments held by employees of a former subsidiary of the Company. As of March 31, 2014, all of these equity instruments have expired or been exercised. The following table reconciles the beginning and ending balances of net derivative assets and liabilities classified as Level 3 and identifies the total gains (losses) the Company recognized during the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013 on such assets and liabilities that were included in the Consolidated Balance Sheet as of March 31, 2014 and 2013 (millions):

Other Financial Instruments

The Company's other financial instruments, including debt, are not required to be carried at fair value. Based on the interest rates prevailing at March 31, 2014, the fair value of Time Warner's debt exceeded its carrying value by approximately $3.521 billion and, based on interest rates prevailing at December 31, 2013, the fair value of Time Warner's debt exceeded its carrying value by approximately $2.754 billion. The fair value of Time Warner's debt was considered a Level 2 measurement as it was based on observable market inputs such as current interest rates and, where available, actual sales transactions. Unrealized gains or losses on debt do not result in the realization or expenditure of cash and generally are not recognized in the consolidated financial statements unless the debt is retired prior to its maturity. The carrying value for the majority of the Company's other financial instruments approximates fair value due to the short-term nature of the financial instruments or because the financial instruments are of a longer-term nature and are recorded on a discounted basis. At March 31, 2014, the estimated fair value of the Company's investment in CME exceeded its carrying value by approximately $91 million. For the remainder of the Company's other financial instruments, differences between the carrying value and fair value were not significant at March 31, 2014. The fair value of financial instruments is generally determined by reference to the market value of the instrument as quoted on a national securities exchange or an over-the-counter market. In cases where a quoted market value is not available, fair value is based on an estimate using present value or other valuation techniques.

Non-Financial Instruments

The majority of the Company's non-financial instruments, which include goodwill, intangible assets, inventories and property, plant and equipment, are not required to be carried at fair value on a recurring basis. However, if certain triggering events occur (or at least annually for goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets), a non-financial instrument is required to be evaluated for impairment. If the Company determines that the non-financial instrument is impaired, the Company would be required to write down the non-financial instrument to its fair value.

During the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Company committed to a plan to sell a building owned by Time Inc. As a result, the Company recorded a noncash impairment of $20 million to write down the value of the building to its fair value. The resulting fair value measurement was considered to be a Level 3 measurement and was determined using a market approach. During the three months ended March 31, 2013, the Company performed an impairment review of certain intangible assets at an international subsidiary at Turner. As a result, the Company recorded noncash impairments of $12 million to write down the value of these assets to zero. The resulting fair value measurements were considered to be Level 3 measurements and were determined using a DCF methodology with assumptions for cash flows associated with the use and eventual disposition of the assets.

In determining the fair value of its theatrical films, the Company employs a DCF methodology that includes cash flow estimates of a film's ultimate revenue and costs as well as a discount rate. The discount rate utilized in the DCF analysis is based on the weighted average cost of capital of the respective business (e.g., Warner Bros.) plus a risk premium representing the risk associated with producing a particular theatrical film. The fair value of any theatrical film and television production that management plans to abandon is zero. As the primary determination of fair value is determined using a DCF model, the resulting fair value is considered a Level 3 measurement. The following table presents certain theatrical film and television production costs, which were recorded as inventory in the Consolidated Balance Sheet, that were written down to fair value (millions):

6. DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

Time Warner uses derivative instruments, principally forward contracts, to manage the risk associated with the volatility of future cash flows denominated in foreign currencies and changes in fair value resulting from changes in foreign currency exchange rates. The principal currencies being hedged include the British Pound, Euro, Australian Dollar and Canadian Dollar. Time Warner uses foreign exchange contracts that generally have maturities of three to 18 months to hedge various foreign exchange exposures, including the following: (i) variability in foreign-currency-denominated cash flows, such as the hedges of unremitted or forecasted royalty and license fees owed to Time Warner's domestic companies for the sale or anticipated sale of U.S. copyrighted products abroad or cash flows for certain film production costs denominated in a foreign currency (i.e., cash flow hedges) and (ii) currency risk associated with foreign-currency-denominated operating assets and liabilities (i.e., fair value hedges). For these qualifying hedge relationships, the Company excludes the impact of forward points from its assessment of hedge effectiveness. As a result, changes in the fair value due to forward points are recorded in Other loss, net in the Consolidated Statement of Operations each quarter.

The Company also enters into derivative contracts that economically hedge certain of its foreign currency risks, even though hedge accounting does not apply or the Company elects not to apply hedge accounting. These economic hedges are used primarily to offset the change in certain foreign currency denominated long-term receivables and certain foreign-currency-denominated debt due to changes in the underlying foreign exchange rates.

Gains and losses from hedging activities recognized in the Consolidated Statement of Operations, including hedge ineffectiveness, were not material for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013 and were largely offset by corresponding economic gains or losses from the respective transactions that were hedged.

The Company monitors its positions with, and the credit quality of, the financial institutions that are party to its financial transactions and has entered into collateral agreements with certain of these counterparties to further protect the Company in the event of the deterioration of the credit quality of such counterparties. Additionally, netting provisions are included in agreements in situations where the Company executes multiple contracts with the same counterparty. The Company offsets the fair values of the foreign exchange derivatives contracts executed with the same counterparty and classifies that amount as a net asset or net liability within Prepaid expenses and other current assets or Accounts payable and accrued liabilities, respectively, in the Consolidated Balance Sheet. The following is a summary of amounts recorded in the Consolidated Balance Sheet pertaining to Time Warner's use of foreign currency derivatives at March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013 (millions):

Prepaid expenses and other current assets	$ 10	$ 10
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	(11)	(17)

<sup>(a)</sup> Includes $89 million ($68 million of qualifying hedges and $21 million of economic hedges) and $90 million ($57 million of qualifying hedges and $33 million of economic hedges) of foreign exchange derivative contracts in asset and liability positions, respectively.

<sup>(b)</sup> Includes $77 million ($64 million of qualifying hedges and $13 million of economic hedges) and $84 million ($53 million of qualifying hedges and $31 million of economic hedges) of foreign exchange derivative contracts in asset and liability positions, respectively.

At March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, $31 million and $28 million of gains, respectively, related to cash flow hedges are recorded in Accumulated other comprehensive loss, net and are expected to be recognized in earnings at the same time the hedged items affect earnings. Included in Accumulated other comprehensive loss, net at both March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013 are deferred net gains of $21 million related to hedges of cash flows associated with films that are not expected to be released within the next twelve months.

7. SHAREHOLDERS EQUITY

Common Stock Repurchase Program

In January 2014, Time Warner's Board of Directors authorized up to $5.0 billion of share repurchases beginning January 1, 2014, including amounts available under the Company's prior stock repurchase program as of December 31, 2013. Purchases under the stock repurchase program may be made from time to time on the open market and in privately negotiated transactions. The size and timing of these purchases are based on a number of factors, including price and business and market conditions.

From January 1, 2014 through March 31, 2014, the Company repurchased approximately 15 million shares of common stock for approximately $1.000 billion pursuant to trading plans under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. As of March 31, 2014, $4.000 billion was remaining under the stock repurchase program.

Six Flags

In connection with the Company's former investment in the Six Flags theme parks located in Georgia and Texas (collectively, the Parks), in 1997, certain subsidiaries of the Company (including Historic TW and, in connection with the separation of TWC in 2009, Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc.) agreed to guarantee (the Six Flags Guarantee) certain obligations of the partnerships that hold the Parks (the Partnerships) for the benefit of the limited partners in such Partnerships, including: annual payments made at the Parks or to the limited partners and additional obligations at the end of the respective terms for the Partnerships in 2027 and 2028 (the Guaranteed Obligations). The aggregate undiscounted estimated future cash flow requirements covered by the Six Flags Guarantee over the remaining term (through 2028) are $937 million (for a net present value of $419 million). To date, no payments have been made by the Company pursuant to the Six Flags Guarantee.

Six Flags Entertainment Corporation (formerly known as Six Flags, Inc. and Premier Parks Inc.) (Six Flags), which has the controlling interest in the Parks, has agreed, pursuant to a subordinated indemnity agreement (the Subordinated Indemnity Agreement), to guarantee the performance of the Guaranteed Obligations when due and to indemnify Historic TW, among others, if the Six Flags Guarantee is called upon. If Six Flags defaults in its indemnification obligations, Historic TW has the right to acquire control of the managing partner of the Parks. Six Flags' obligations to Historic TW are further secured by its interest in all limited partnership units held by Six Flags.

Because the Six Flags Guarantee existed prior to December 31, 2002 and no modifications to the arrangements have been made since the date the guarantee came into existence, the Company is required to continue to account for the Guaranteed Obligations as a contingent liability. Based on its evaluation of the current facts and circumstances surrounding the Guaranteed Obligations and the Subordinated Indemnity Agreement, the Company is unable to predict the loss, if any, that may be incurred under the Guaranteed Obligations, and no liability for the arrangements has been recognized at March 31, 2014. Because of the specific circumstances surrounding the arrangements and the fact that no active or observable market exists for this type of financial guarantee, the Company is unable to determine a current fair value for the Guaranteed Obligations and related Subordinated Indemnity Agreement.

Contingencies

In the ordinary course of business, the Company and its subsidiaries are defendants in or parties to various legal claims, actions and proceedings. These claims, actions and proceedings are at varying stages of investigation, arbitration or adjudication, and involve a variety of areas of law.

On October 8, 2004, certain heirs of Jerome Siegel, one of the creators of the Superman character, filed suit against the Company, DC Comics and Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc. in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California. Plaintiffs' complaint seeks an accounting and demands up to one-half of the profits made on Superman since the alleged April 16, 1999 termination by plaintiffs of Siegel's grants of one-half of the rights to the Superman character to DC Comics' predecessor-in-interest. Plaintiffs have also asserted various Lanham Act and unfair competition claims, alleging wasting of the Superman property by DC Comics, and the Company has filed counterclaims. On March 26, 2008, the court entered an order of summary judgment finding, among other things, that plaintiffs' notices of termination were valid and that plaintiffs had thereby recaptured, as of April 16, 1999, their rights to a one-half interest in the Superman story material, as first published, but that the accounting for profits would not include profits attributable to foreign exploitation, republication of pre-termination works and trademark exploitation. On January 10, 2013, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit reversed the district court's decision to grant summary judgment in plaintiffs' favor, holding that the parties reached a binding settlement agreement in 2001, and directed the district court to reconsider its ruling on DC Comics' counterclaims challenging the validity of the plaintiffs' termination notices. By orders dated March 20, 2013, April 18, 2013, and June 18, 2013, the district court, among other things, granted summary judgment and entered final judgment in this lawsuit and the related Superboy lawsuit, described below, in DC Comics' favor, ruling that the plaintiffs had transferred any and all rights in the Superman and Superboy properties to DC Comics in 2001 pursuant to a binding settlement agreement. On July 16, 2013, the plaintiffs filed a notice of appeal from the final judgment to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

On October 22, 2004, the same Siegel heirs filed a related lawsuit against the same defendants, as well as Warner Communications Inc. (now known as Warner Communications LLC) and Warner Bros. Television Production Inc., in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California. Plaintiffs claim that Siegel was the sole creator of the character Superboy and, as such, DC Comics has had no right to create new Superboy works since the alleged October 17, 2004 termination by plaintiffs of Siegel's grants of rights to the Superboy character to DC Comics predecessor-in-interest. This lawsuit seeks a declaration regarding the validity of the alleged termination and an injunction against future use of the Superboy character. As described in the paragraph above regarding the Superman lawsuit, by orders dated April 18, 2013 and June 18, 2013, the district court, among other things, entered final judgment in DC Comics' favor, ruling that the plaintiffs had transferred any and all rights in the Superman and Superboy properties to DC Comics in 2001 pursuant to a binding settlement agreement. On July 16, 2013, the plaintiffs filed a notice of appeal from the final judgment to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

On May 14, 2010, DC Comics filed a related lawsuit in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California against the heirs of Superman co-creator Joseph Shuster, the Siegel heirs, their attorney Marc Toberoff and certain companies that Mr. Toberoff controls. The lawsuit asserts a claim for declaratory relief concerning the validity and scope of the copyright termination notice served by the Shuster heirs, which, together with the termination notices served by the Siegel heirs described above, purports to preclude DC Comics from creating new Superman and/or Superboy works for distribution and sale in the United States after October 26, 2013. The lawsuit also asserts state law-based claims, including seeking declaratory relief with respect to, inter alia, the validity of various agreements between Mr. Toberoff, his companies and the Shuster and Siegel heirs, and claims for intentional interference by Mr. Toberoff with DC Comics' contracts and prospective economic advantage with the Shuster and Siegel heirs, for which DC Comics seeks monetary damages. On October 17, 2012, the district court granted partial summary judgment in favor of DC Comics, holding that, among other things, the copyright termination notice served by the Shuster heirs is invalid and the agreements referenced above interfered with DC Comics' rights under the copyright termination provisions. On April 4, 2013, the district court granted summary judgment in favor of defendants on DC Comics' state law intentional interference claims. On November 21, 2013, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit affirmed the district court's October 2012 decision. On January 21, 2014, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit denied defendants' request for a rehearing of the court's November 2013 decision.

On April 4, 2007, the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) issued a complaint against CNN America Inc. (CNN America) and Team Video Services, LLC (Team Video). This administrative proceeding relates to CNN America's December 2003 and January 2004 terminations of its contractual relationships with Team Video, under which Team Video had provided electronic newsgathering services in Washington, DC and New York, NY. The National Association of Broadcast Employees and Technicians, under which Team Video's employees were unionized, initially filed charges of unfair labor practices with the NLRB in February 2004, alleging that CNN America and Team Video were joint employers, that CNN America was a successor employer to Team Video, and/or that CNN America discriminated in its hiring practices to avoid becoming a successor employer or due to specific individuals' union affiliation or activities. The NLRB complaint seeks, among other things, the reinstatement of certain union members and monetary damages. On November 19, 2008, the presiding NLRB Administrative Law Judge issued a non-binding recommended decision, finding CNN America liable. On February 17, 2009, CNN America filed exceptions to this decision with the NLRB.

On March 10, 2009, Anderson News L.L.C. and Anderson Services L.L.C. (collectively, Anderson News ) filed an antitrust lawsuit in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York against several magazine publishers, distributors and wholesalers, including Time Inc. and one of its subsidiaries, Time/Warner Retail Sales & Marketing, Inc. Plaintiffs allege that defendants violated Section 1 of the Sherman Antitrust Act by engaging in an antitrust conspiracy against Anderson News, as well as other related state law claims. Specifically, plaintiffs allege that defendants conspired to reduce competition in the wholesale market for single-copy magazines by rejecting the magazine distribution surcharge proposed by Anderson News and another magazine wholesaler and refusing to distribute magazines to them. Plaintiffs are seeking unspecified monetary damages. On August 2, 2010, the court granted defendants motions to dismiss the complaint with prejudice and, on October 25, 2010, the court denied Anderson News motion for reconsideration of that dismissal. On November 8, 2010, Anderson News appealed and, on April 3, 2012, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit vacated the district court s dismissal of the complaint and remanded the case to the district court. On January 7, 2013, the U.S. Supreme Court denied defendants petition for writ of certiorari to review the judgment of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit vacating the district court s dismissal of the complaint. In February 2014, Time Inc. and several other defendants amended their answers to assert antitrust counterclaims against plaintiffs.

In April 2013, the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) Appeals Division issued a notice of deficiency to the Company relating to the appropriate tax characterization of stock warrants received from Google Inc. in 2002. On May 6, 2013, the Company filed a petition with the United States Tax Court seeking a redetermination of the deficiency set forth in the notice. The Company's petition asserts that the IRS erred in determining that the stock warrants were taxable upon exercise (in 2004) rather than at the date of grant based on, among other things, a misapplication of Section 83 of the Internal Revenue Code. Should the IRS prevail in this litigation, the additional tax payable by the Company would be approximately $70 million.

The Company intends to vigorously defend against or prosecute, as applicable, the matters described above.

The Company establishes an accrued liability for legal claims when the Company determines that a loss is both probable and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated. Once established, accruals are adjusted from time to time, as appropriate, in light of additional information. The amount of any loss ultimately incurred in relation to matters for which an accrual has been established may be higher or lower than the amounts accrued for such matters.

For matters disclosed above for which a loss is probable or reasonably possible, whether in excess of an accrued liability or where there is no accrued liability, the Company has estimated a range of possible loss. The Company believes the estimate of the aggregate range of possible loss in excess of accrued liabilities for such matters is between $0 and $65 million at March 31, 2014. The estimated aggregate range of possible loss is subject to significant judgment and a variety of assumptions. The matters represented in the estimated aggregate range of possible loss will change from time to time and actual results may vary significantly from the current estimate.

In view of the inherent difficulty of predicting the outcome of litigation and claims, the Company often cannot predict what the eventual outcome of the pending matters will be, what the timing of the ultimate resolution of these matters will be, or what the eventual loss, fines or penalties related to each pending matter may be. An adverse outcome in one or more of these matters could be material to the Company's results of operations or cash flows for any particular reporting period.

Income Tax Uncertainties

During the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Company recorded net increases to income tax reserves of approximately $9 million, all of which impacted the Company's effective tax rate. During the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Company recorded increases to interest reserves related to the income tax reserves of approximately $17 million.

In the Company's judgment, uncertainties related to certain tax matters are reasonably possible of being resolved during the next twelve months. The effect of such resolution, which could vary based on the final terms and timing of actual settlements with taxing authorities, is estimated to be a reduction of recorded unrecognized tax benefits ranging from $0 to $650 million, most of which would decrease the Company's effective tax rate.

14. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company has entered into certain transactions in the ordinary course of business with unconsolidated investees accounted for under the equity method of accounting. These transactions have been executed on terms comparable to the terms of transactions with unrelated third parties and primarily relate to the licensing of television programming to The CW broadcast network and certain international networks by the Warner Bros. segment. Accounting for Collaborative Arrangements

The Company's collaborative arrangements primarily relate to arrangements entered into with third parties to jointly finance and distribute theatrical productions and the arrangement entered into with CBS Broadcasting, Inc. ( CBS ) and The National Collegiate Athletic Association (the NCAA ) that provides Turner and CBS with exclusive television, Internet and wireless rights to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship events (the NCAA Tournament ) in the United States and its territories and possessions from 2011 through 2024.

For the Company's collaborative arrangements entered into with third parties to jointly finance and distribute theatrical productions, net participation costs of $118 million and $88 million were recorded in Costs of revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

The aggregate programming rights fee, production costs, advertising revenues and sponsorship revenues related to the NCAA Tournament and related programming are shared equally by Turner and CBS. However, if the amount paid for the programming rights fee and production costs, in any given year, exceeds advertising and sponsorship revenues for that year, CBS' share of such shortfall is limited to specified annual amounts, ranging from approximately $90 million to $30 million.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION
CONDENSED CONSOLIDATING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Overview

Set forth below are condensed consolidating financial statements presenting the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of (i) Time Warner Inc. (the Parent Company), (ii) Historic TW Inc. (in its own capacity and as successor by merger to Time Warner Companies, Inc.), Home Box Office, Inc., and Turner Broadcasting System, Inc., each a wholly owned subsidiary of the Parent Company (collectively, the Guarantor Subsidiaries), on a combined basis, (iii) the direct and indirect non-guarantor subsidiaries of the Parent Company (the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries), on a combined basis, and (iv) the eliminations necessary to arrive at the information for Time Warner Inc. on a consolidated basis. The Guarantor Subsidiaries, fully and unconditionally, jointly and severally, guarantee securities issued under certain of the Company's indentures on an unsecured basis.

There are no legal or regulatory restrictions on the Parent Company's ability to obtain funds from any of its wholly owned subsidiaries through dividends, loans or advances.

Basis of Presentation

In presenting the condensed consolidating financial statements, the equity method of accounting has been applied to (i) the Parent Company's interests in the Guarantor Subsidiaries and (ii) the Guarantor Subsidiaries' interests in the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries, where applicable, even though all such subsidiaries meet the requirements to be consolidated under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. All intercompany balances and transactions between the Parent Company, the Guarantor Subsidiaries and the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries have been eliminated, as shown in the column Eliminations.

The Parent Company's accounting bases in all subsidiaries, including goodwill and identified intangible assets, have been pushed down to the applicable subsidiaries. Corporate overhead expenses have been reflected as expenses of the Parent Company and have not been allocated to the Guarantor Subsidiaries or the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries. Interest income (expense) is determined based on outstanding debt and the relevant intercompany amounts at the respective subsidiary.

All direct and indirect domestic subsidiaries are included in Time Warner Inc.'s consolidated U.S. tax return. In the condensed consolidating financial statements, tax expense has been allocated based on each such subsidiary's relative pretax income to the consolidated pretax income. With respect to the use of certain consolidated tax attributes (principally operating and capital loss carryforwards), such benefits have been allocated to the respective subsidiary that generated the taxable income permitting such use (i.e., pro-rata based on where the income was generated). For example, to the extent a Non-Guarantor Subsidiary generated a gain on the sale of a business for which the Parent Company utilized tax attributes to offset such gain, the tax attribute benefit would be allocated to that Non-Guarantor Subsidiary. Deferred taxes of the Parent Company, the Guarantor Subsidiaries and the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries have been determined based on the temporary differences between the book and tax basis of the respective assets and liabilities of the applicable entities.

Certain transfers of cash between subsidiaries and their parent companies and intercompany dividends are reflected as cash flows from investing and financing activities in the accompanying condensed consolidating statements of cash flows. All other intercompany activity is reflected in cash flows from operations.

During the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Parent Company completed an internal reorganization to make Time Inc. a direct subsidiary of the Parent Company in connection with the planned legal and structural separation of the Parent Company's Time Inc. segment from the Parent Company. This reorganization was the primary reason for the reduction in the Guarantor Subsidiaries' Total assets as of March 31, 2014 as compared with their Total assets as of December 31, 2013.

Management believes that the allocations and adjustments noted above are reasonable. However, such allocations and adjustments may not be indicative of the actual amounts that would have been incurred had the Parent Company, Guarantor Subsidiaries and Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries operated independently.
