PARTICIPANTS IN THE SOLICITATION

Medtronic, New Medtronic and Covidien and certain of their respective directors and executive officers and employees may be solicitation of proxies from the respective shareholders of Medtronic and Covidien in respect of the transactions contemplated in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Information regarding the persons who may, under the rules of the SEC, be deemed participants in the solicitation of proxies from the respective shareholders of Medtronic and Covidien in connection with the proposed transactions, including a description of their direct or indirect holdings or otherwise, will be set forth in the final Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus when it is filed with the SEC. Information regarding the directors and executive officers is contained in Medtronic's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 25, 2014 and its Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A, dated July 11, 2014, which are filed with the SEC. Information regarding Covidien's directors and executive officers is contained in Covidien's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 27, 2013 and its Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A, dated January 24, 2014, which are filed with the SEC.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Statements contained in this communication that refer to New Medtronic's, Medtronic's and/or Covidien's estimated or anticipated synergies, or other non-historical facts are forward-looking statements that reflect Medtronic's and/or Covidien's current expectations, trends and information as of the date of this communication. Forward-looking statements generally will be accompanied by words such as "may," "believe," "plan," "could," "should," "estimate," "expect," "forecast," "outlook," "guidance," "intend," "may," "might," "project," or other similar words, phrases or expressions. It is important to note that these goals and expectations are not predictions of future performance. Actual results may differ materially from current expectations depending upon a number of factors affecting New Medtronic's and Covidien's business and risks associated with the proposed transactions. These factors include, among others, the inherent uncertainties of the proposed transactions; restructuring in connection with, and successful close of, the Covidien acquisition; subsequent integration of the Covidien business with New Medtronic's business.

to recognize the anticipated synergies and benefits of the Covidien acquisition; the risk that the required regulatory approvals f not obtained, are delayed or are subject to conditions that are not anticipated; the anticipated size of the markets and continued

Covidien's products; the impact of competitive products and pricing; access to available financing (including financing for the Medtronic or Covidien debt) on a timely basis and on reasonable terms; the risks of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates; risks normally incident to the medical device industry, including competition in the medical device industry; product liability claims; the timing or outcome of pending or future litigation or government investigations; variability of trade buying patterns; the timing of product launches; the difficulty of predicting the timing or outcome of product development efforts and regulatory agency approvals or denials; adverse pricing movement; costs and efforts to defend or enforce intellectual property rights; difficulties or delays in manufacturing or in supply; product quality problems; the availability and pricing of third-party sourced products and materials; risks associated with commercial insurance; successful compliance with governmental regulations applicable to New Medtronic's products, Medtronic's and Covidien's and/or businesses; changes in the laws and regulations, affecting among other things, pricing and reimbursement of pharmaceuticals; policy changes; risks associated with international operations; changes in tax laws or interpretations that could increase New Medtronic's or Covidien's consolidated tax liabilities, including, if the transaction is consummated, changes in tax laws that would result in New Medtronic becoming a domestic corporation for United States federal tax purposes; the loss of key senior management or scientific staff; and such other risks as are detailed in Medtronic's periodic public filings with the SEC, including but not limited to Medtronic's Annual Report on Form 10-K for 2014, 2013, and 2012, in Covidien's periodic public filings with the SEC, including but not limited to Covidien's Annual Report on Form 10-K for September 27, 2013, and from time to time in Medtronic's and Covidien's other investor communications. Except as expressly stated, Medtronic and Covidien disclaims any intent or obligation to update or revise these forward-looking statements.
