Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 13, 2015, William J. Gerber, TD Ameritrade's chief financial officer, notified TD Ameritrade of his intention to retire on September 30, 2015 after sixteen years with TD Ameritrade, nine as executive vice president and chief financial officer. Until the date of his retirement, he will continue to serve as the chief financial officer of TD Ameritrade.

In connection with his retirement, Mr. Gerber and TD Ameritrade agreed as follows:

cash payment, in an aggregate amount of $2.5 million, to be paid over four years following the date of his retirement (subject to required withholdings) in exchange for entering into a consulting and release of claims agreement containing customary terms, including a non-competition agreement for 24 months and providing support and counsel to the CEO and his successor to assist in the transition of the CFO responsibilities accelerated vesting of all unvested restricted stock units on the date of his retirement, which have a market value of approximately $2.6 million (based on the closing price of common stock of TD Ameritrade on January 9, 2015)

non-solicitation and mutual non-disparagement agreement, as well as a customary confidentiality covenant standard release in favor of TD Ameritrade and its officers, directors, employees, shareholders, affiliates, subsidiaries, predecessor and successor corporations and assigns continued health benefits pursuant to COBRA continuation coverage for Mr. Gerber and any eligible dependents, with TD Ameritrade paying the employer portion of any premiums for continued health benefits under any group medical or dental plan until 24 months following his retirement

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
